DEMOCRATIC TARIFF AFFECTS CARLISLE

New Law Causes Interwoven Mills Company to Abandon Building Project

SITE HAD BEEN PURCHASED

Guarantee Fund of $25,000 Is Raised by Businessmen of Town

Carlisle, Pa., Aug. 25.—Following negotiations extending over about fifteen months, it was announced to-day that the Interwoven Mills Company, Inc., makers of the Interwoven hosiery, has definitely abandoned all thought of building a $100,000 branch plant here. This decision is, in the opinion of men intimately connected with the proposition to have the plant located here, directly ascribable to the new Democratic tariff.

On Saturday H. H. Emmet, treasurer, and George Mulhiss, superintendent of the company, were here, and in conference with members of the Carlisle Industrial League, an organization of merchants formed to secure additional industries for the town. To-day the announcement was made that the plant will not be established here or at any other point at present.

Members of the league and other citizens of the town who have contributed funds to secure a site will be reimbursed by the Interwoven Company, but the industry which would eventually employ over 500 persons is lost.

The headquarters of the company were in Martinsburg, W. Va. Over a year ago, before the effects of the new tariff were manifested, an increase in business brought on the decision to build a new branch plant. Carlisle, together with other valley towns, among which was Lemoyne, made proposals for the location of the plant in the various communities. The Industrial League was formed at this time and a guarantee fund of $25,000 was raised to bring sufficient operations for the proposed plant to the town.

Some little trouble was experienced relative to a site, but after the Bell and Cumberland Valley trunk lines had been moved after some discussion and at considerable expense, the site was accepted by the president of the company and purchased by the league.

That the company did intend to locate here was evinced from the fact that in a recent issue of the trade journal, Steam, proposals for the erection of a daylight plant here were asked. It was said by the officials that one reason for not building was the inability to secure help. This statement men in touch with the situation, who conducted a canvass for this express purpose, as well as several prominent manufacturers, deny.

The interwoven officials say they do not contemplate erecting a branch at any other place. This leads the local league members here to believe that the tariff law has interfered with the plans for the erecting of a branch. A small "training" plant run by the company here, employing about 100 persons, will also be put out of operation.

MARYSVILLE PICNIC AT BOILING SPRINGS

Merchants Offer Prizes and Will Close Business Places For Sunday School Event

Special to The Telegraph

Marysville, Pa., Aug. 25.—Plans for Marysville's big annual Sunday school picnic at Boiling Springs Park, to-morrow are completed. The general committee in charge has placed tickets at all the borough's business places and judging from the number already sold, it may safely be estimated that 1,000 persons will be in attendance.

The Valley Railways will run special cars, directly from Marysville to the park. They will leave at 8.10 following the regular car for Harrisburg, but will not enter Harrisburg. Marysville will be almost entirely deserted to-morrow. All of the twenty-two business places of town have announced their intention of "shutting up shop" for the day, and enjoying themselves at the park.

Even the Galem Theater, Marysville's moving picture parlor, will be closed. Big amusement events have been arranged, including a ball game between two local teams, and old-fashioned races.

The different events with the prizes offered follow: Wheelbarrow Race For Men—One box of handkerchiefs, given by A. J. Ellenberger. Egg Race For Men—One pair black silk hose, given by James L. Halbach. Boat Race For Men and Women—First prize, one sack of Pillsbury flour, second prize, one steel mantle burner, given by Mr. Rowan, agent for Penn Mercantile Company, of York.

Peanut Race For Ladies—Electric iron, given by J. E. White. Egg Race For Ladies—China pickle dish, given by James L. Halbach. One Legged Race For Girls—One pair of black silk hose, given by Klina Brothers.

Blindfold Race For Girls—First prize, one pound box chocolate candy, given by Mrs. Alice Ensminger; second prize, box of Cloverine Talcum Powder, given by D. D. Fisher. Foot Race For Small Children—First prize, box of salt water taffy, given by Ralph Fencle; second prize, pocket knife, given by J. E. White.

Three Legged Race For Boys—Alarm clock, given by Cunningham and Bittling. Barefoot Race For Boys—First prize, one pair cuff links, given by Max Williams; second prize, one-half pound box chocolate candy, given by Mrs. Alice Ensminger.

Tug of War For Boys—First prize, baseball glove, given by J. E. White; second prize, baseball given by J. E. White. Wheelbarrow Race for Young Ladies—First prize, fifty name cards, given by the Marysville Journal; second prize, one pound box chocolate candy.

HAIL RUINS FRUIT IN FRANKLIN COUNTY

Thousands of Bushels of Peaches and Apples Cut From Trees by Fierce Storm

Special to The Telegraph

Waynesboro, Pa., Aug. 25.—Thousands of dollars' damage was done to the fruit crop in southern Franklin county during the severe hailstorm that swept over an area one-half mile wide and traveled in a southeasterly direction Friday evening.

Hailstones as large as hickory nuts fell and the peach orchards of Joseph Dr. Ledy, Ledy's Station, and D. Maurice Wertz, Quincy and Mont Alto, were practically ruined. Mr. Ledy had 10,000 bushels of early peaches damaged in his orchard alone and has advertised the fruit for sale at half price. The hailstones stripped the trees of their foliage and cut into the ripe fruit and hundreds of bushels of peaches that had not reached maturity. He will also lose several hundred bushels of apples that were cut to pieces and knocked off the trees.

D. M. Wertz had between two and five thousand bushels of peaches destroyed and almost the same quantity of apples. At New Franklin the hailstorm was more severe and ruined practically all the peaches and apples belonging to growers in that section. Corn was hit hard and the blades were cut into shreds.

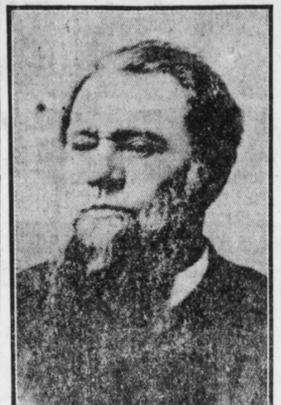

Several hundred persons that were employed in the local shops in Waynesboro and who were laid off on account of the war affecting foreign orders left for the large peach orchards in this section, where they have been promised work picking fruit.

DR. JOHN H. HARRIS SAFE
Special to The Telegraph
Lewisburg, Pa., Aug. 25.—A cablegram has been received from Dr. John Harris, president of Bucknell University, from London, stating that he is safe. Great concern was felt for Dr. Harris, as he had been touring the warring countries of Europe and no word had been received by his family here for two months. Dr. Harris succeeded in getting out of the warring countries and arrived in London. Professor E. W. Griffith, an instructor in Bucknell University, and Professor Leo Rockwell, also of Bucknell, are in Europe, but no word has been received from them during the past month.

OLD-TIME SCHOLARS HONOR THEIR TEACHER

Men and Women Taught by Prof. H. T. Albert at Maytown Hold Reunion

PROF. H. T. ALBERT

Special to The Telegraph
Marietta, Pa., Aug. 25.—Never in the history of Lancaster county was there such a celebration as was held Saturday night in the Band Hall, at Maytown, which was filled to overflowing with people of all ages, who had come to pay homage to their former teachers, Dr. John Beschler and Professor H. T. Albert, who taught in the days of 1861 to 1877. It was a reunion of the Professor H. T. Albert Memorial Association. The stage was artistically decorated with potted plants and cut flowers, and on the stage were seated the officers of the association, the members of the choir who lead in the singing, the organist, Mrs. Isaac Carpenter, and a number of others who took part in the exercises.

The school board of East Donegal was present and occupied front seats in the auditorium. The plans for this celebration were worked out by William H. Clepper, who was secretary, but who died several days ago and was buried Saturday afternoon. A postponement of the exercises was at first thought of, but the family suggested that it go on.

Promptly at 8 o'clock, James P. Johnston, the president, called the meeting to order, and the audience sang "All Together." The songs used were the ones sung during the school days of these instructors, and which copies of the same had been kept by a number of pupils. Immediately after the singing the Rev. E. E. Kauffman, pastor of the Church of God, gave the invocation, music, John Brooks and two children, on cornets. Mr. Brooks, a student at Mountville, and was a scholar of Professor Albert in 1869. An address of welcome was made by James F. Farmer, class of 1867. Reminiscences were read by Miss Halle Culp.

The following scholars were present: Class of 1861, Augusta Beschler, Helen Markley, John Houseal, Harry B. Jacobs, Jesse Klugh and James F. Johnston; 1862, Mary Wilson; 1863, all members are dead; 1864, C. G. Longenecker; 1865, Joseph L. Brandt, John Johnson, William Roath; 1866, S. Farmer, Abram Fletcher; 1877, E. Helen Hoffman, Eph. Hoffman, Ephraim Hoffman. Summer school pupils present were John R. Roath, Joseph Strickler, Emma Nissley, Ion E. Terry, Emily Hipple, Carrie Hipple.

After the exercises all registered in an autograph book, and the names will be sent to Professor Albert. During the terms of Professor Albert, 1860, he attended the sessions of the schools, and many of his grandparents. Among the audience was not only the aged pupils, but their children and grandchildren figured in the celebration. Professor Albert is living at Durham, Kansas, and is in ill health, being a sufferer from rheumatism. When he was eight years of age, he was seized with scarlet fever, which rendered him helpless for a number of years, and was compelled to use crutches the balance of his life. He was born at Bainbridge, and taught the first school, now the Franklin school, near Brosse's mill, and for many years endured many hardships, especially in the winter months.

A letter was read from Professor Albert, who wished he could be present. He will be 85 years old in September. Dr. Beschler died a number of years ago. Altoona, Lancaster, Harrisburg, Marietta, Maytown, Bainbridge and other places were represented at the exercises.

Do You Need Building Up?

There are conditions of ill health in which no one particular organ appears to be at fault, yet the patient is miserable and unable to pursue the activities of daily life with vigor and enjoyment. Sometimes the cause is attributed to the imagination but the patient knows that the debility is real.

The remedy evidently is a medicine that will benefit the whole system rather than a part. The blood reaches everywhere and an improvement in its quality is quickly followed by an improvement in the whole organism. Dr. Williams' Pink Pills make a visible improvement in the condition of the blood. The microscope will verify this improvement but the patient can see it in the mirror as shown by increased color in the cheeks and lips and added brightness of the eyes. There will also be a new elasticity in the step. These things record an improved tone in the body and if this tonic treatment is persisted in for a reasonable length of time, depending upon the degree of debility, the condition of ill health will be removed.

Those who are interested may obtain the pamphlet "Building Up the Blood" on request from the Dr. Williams Medicine Co., Schenectady, N. Y. All druggists sell Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. Advertisement.

Stomach Troubles Due to Acidity

SO SAYS EMINENT SPECIALIST

So-called stomach troubles, such as indigestion, an acid stomach, etc., are in probably nine cases out of ten simply evidence that fermentation is taking place in the contents of the stomach, causing the formation of gas and acids. Wind distends the stomach, and causes in that a oppressive feeling sometimes known as heartburn, while the acid irritates and inflames the delicate lining of the fermenting food. Such fermentation is unnatural, and may involve most serious consequences if not corrected. To stop or prevent fermentation of the food content of the stomach and to neutralize the acid, and render it bland and harmless, is a teaspoonful of bisulphated magnesia, probably the best and most effective corrector of acid stomach known, should be taken in a quarter of a glass of hot or cold water immediately after eating, or whenever wind or acidity is felt. This stops the fermentation, and neutralizes the acidity in a few moments. Fermentation, wind and acidity are dangerous and unnecessary. Stop or prevent them by the use of a proper antidote, such as bisulphated magnesia, which can be obtained from any druggist, and thus enable the stomach to do its work properly without being hindered by poison—as are dangerous acids.—M. F. P.—Advertisement.
