RAILROAD NEWS

INCREASED TARIFFS FOR ALL RAILROADS

Higher Passenger Rates Are Planned; Car Storage Fees Will Increase

Increased passenger rates on the Pennsylvania Reading, Erie and other roads and higher rates for the storage of cars are a certainty before the close of the year. This announcement was made by local officials to-day. Passenger rates may go as high as three cents a mile to some points. Nothing is known regarding the increase in car storage rates.

The new rates are now being worked out by all Eastern railroads. The increases will be in accordance with suggestions and permission of the Interstate Commerce Commission in order that the railroads may increase their profits. Local officials believe the passenger rate increase will be three cents all around. The increase for car storage will be made according to time. This additional revenue will be imposed as a penalty for failure to load and unload promptly. The penalties will affect coal, lumber, furniture and other nonperishable goods which are frequently allowed to stand for a week, and frequently two and three weeks, before unloading.

Will Journey Southward.—Members of the P. R. Y. M. C. A. Athletic Association have completed plans for a trip to Raleigh, N. C., Sunday. The trip south is to visit "Red" McCord and "Red" Crane, who are on the Raleigh baseball team and making good. In the party will be William T. Fitzgerald, manager of the local P. R. Y. M. C. A. team, and Patsy Fisher and Samuel Harner.

They have the double object of reducing the German entrenchments and of drawing Germans from the line at Mechlin and Brussels, so as to relieve the pressure on the French positions. Four Belgian divisions from Namur stopped the southward advance of the German fourth division by obliging it to retreat in steps. Two Belgian troops then retreated on the French line. The forts at Namur are still holding out.

Only Two Forts Said to Have Surrendered

By Associated Press

London, Aug. 27, 12.17 P. M.—A dispatch to the Exchange Telegraph Company from Ostend credits a Belgian officer with the statement that the forts there are still holding out with the exception of Marchevotte and Cognie, which were destroyed by the bombardment.

Lille in the next captured for two days, this officer says and there is still a large force of Germans before Namur.

Refugee Tells of German Attack on City of Namur

By Associated Press

French guns on the heights opened fire soon after the battle was started and their shells decimated the Germans. The French infantry retired from the bridge to permit their artillery to sweep its approaches.

Although they lost heavily, a certain number of Prussians succeeded in entering the village and threw into the houses some inflammable preparation which set them on fire.

LOOKS WIFE'S TEETH OUT WITH FLATIRON

Used Same Weapon on Boarding Mistress When She Interfered

When Marie Proctor attempted to mix in a little family affair between Charles Robbette and his wife, who boarded with Marie, she got the worst of the little set-to that followed, according to the story she told Squire Gardener to-day evening.

Robbette, according to the testimony, dropped his year-old son on the floor rather than to suit his wife. She complained and according to her story, lost several teeth. Charles used a flatiron that was handy, she says.

This sort of angered Marie and she got into action but so again did the flatiron—and Marie came to the hearing with her head swathed in bandages. Robbette was arrested by Officers Gore and Bombgardner and held in default of bail for court on charges of aggravated assault and plain assault and battery, by Squire Gardener. Marie will recover but Mrs. Robbette will need a new set of teeth.

PALMER TALKING ABOUT FUSION NOW

Says There Are Negotiations on and Then Declares That He Is a Candidate to End

Washington, D. C., Aug. 27.—Representative A. Mitchell Palmer, Democratic senatorial candidate in Pennsylvania, has made known that fusion with the Washington party in Pennsylvania would be welcomed by the Democrats. Realizing there is no hope of victory with the opposition to the Republican party divided, Palmer, Vance C. McCormick, gubernatorial candidate, and others are exchanging ideas with William Flinn and his lieutenants.

Palmer said: "I do not care to give names, but fusion proposals came from men who I have every reason to believe are competent to speak for their party. No negotiations are now going on as far as I know, but there is plenty of time for such a movement to be carried out. Fusion can be effected up to thirty days before the election."

Palmer denied that he would retire from the fight for senator in favor of Gifford Pinchot, the Washington party candidate. "I am a candidate and intend to remain a candidate until the election," said he.

The one hope of the Democratic reorganizers, it is understood, is to induce William Draper Lewis to withdraw from the Democratic party and run for Governor and have the Flinn followers endorse McCormick. In return for this concession W. T. Creasy will be a Washington party candidate. Fusion on congressmen-at-large is not feasible, Democrats say.

LETTER WRITING OF FOREIGNERS STOPS; MAILS ARE TIED UP

Steelton Postmaster Says Letters From "Home" Are Now Few and Far Between

"Any mail from Austria this morning?" From the spokesman of an anxious, hopeful little group of Austrians, who line up in front of the delivery window in the Steelton Post Office every morning, comes this question. And daily for more than three weeks the clerk has shook his head, a silent "No." "The mails aren't running yet," he answers.

Then the little group shuffles away to discuss the latest developments in the faraway homeland.

"This war brings out the fact that the Austrians are the greatest home letter writers in the world," said Postmaster M. M. Cusack, this morning. "Why, do you know that the number of letters to Austria handled through this office would allow every resident in the borough more than one letter a week?" continued the Postmaster.

"We handle an average of over 1,000 outgoing letters a week to Austria, in normal times. Now we can scarcely get enough letters to make a separate 'tie' of ten letters, so great are the inroads the war has made on the business here. Few of the foreigners are writing home because they fear their letters will never reach their destination. The incoming foreign mail amounts to practically nothing."

One of the greatest hardships to the foreigners is the cessation of the money order business. Every month in normal times on an average of $15,000 was sent through the local post office to Austria to support wives and families of local Austrians. Now the business will not amount to $5,000 a month.

INSANE MAN TRIES TO KILL MOTHER

supper he and his mother were conversing in the dining room when he suddenly jumped from his chair and pulled a revolver from his hip pocket. Mrs. Aurand ran from the house to the front street, followed by her son who pulled the revolver out of his pocket and reached the pavement in five or six shots in quick succession. The first one struck a corset steel and was deflected, causing two abrasions of the skin on the left side about six inches apart between the shoulder and hip. The other shot grazed her head just under the left ear. She fell to the ground, but was quickly picked up and carried to the home of Roy Burns on the opposite side of the street, and Dr. A. H. Hill summoned.

Aurand then ran into the house and barricaded the doors, while the next crowd gathered outside. Officer James Miller, Harry Campbell and H. E. Baker appeared on the scene quickly and took charge of the situation. The mother was taken to the hospital where she attended Peabody Institute.

Bombs Dropped From Cage Attached to Dirigibles

London, Aug. 27, 12.38 A. M.—The method used by Zeppelin airships in dropping bombs has been described as follows by an English refugee who has just arrived here from Belgium:

"The dirigible hovers over its objective at a sufficient altitude to keep clear of the enemy's guns. At the same time it lowers a steel cage attached to a steel wire support 2,000 or 3,000 feet long. This cage is like a box of sixteen or twenty men carries one man whose duty it is to throw down the bombs. The cage is sufficiently strong to make rifle fire against it ineffective, and because of its small size and the fact that it kept constantly in motion it is very difficult for heavy guns to hit it."

"When Japan captures Kiao-Chow and hostilities in the China and Japan seas are over, Japan will stand aside and become an onlooker if the war in Europe still is in progress."

LETTER WRITING OF FOREIGNERS STOPS; MAILS ARE TIED UP

Steelton Postmaster Says Letters From "Home" Are Now Few and Far Between

"Any mail from Austria this morning?" From the spokesman of an anxious, hopeful little group of Austrians, who line up in front of the delivery window in the Steelton Post Office every morning, comes this question. And daily for more than three weeks the clerk has shook his head, a silent "No." "The mails aren't running yet," he answers.

Then the little group shuffles away to discuss the latest developments in the faraway homeland.

"This war brings out the fact that the Austrians are the greatest home letter writers in the world," said Postmaster M. M. Cusack, this morning. "Why, do you know that the number of letters to Austria handled through this office would allow every resident in the borough more than one letter a week?" continued the Postmaster.

"We handle an average of over 1,000 outgoing letters a week to Austria, in normal times. Now we can scarcely get enough letters to make a separate 'tie' of ten letters, so great are the inroads the war has made on the business here. Few of the foreigners are writing home because they fear their letters will never reach their destination. The incoming foreign mail amounts to practically nothing."

One of the greatest hardships to the foreigners is the cessation of the money order business. Every month in normal times on an average of $15,000 was sent through the local post office to Austria to support wives and families of local Austrians. Now the business will not amount to $5,000 a month.

supper he and his mother were conversing in the dining room when he suddenly jumped from his chair and pulled a revolver from his hip pocket. Mrs. Aurand ran from the house to the front street, followed by her son who pulled the revolver out of his pocket and reached the pavement in five or six shots in quick succession. The first one struck a corset steel and was deflected, causing two abrasions of the skin on the left side about six inches apart between the shoulder and hip. The other shot grazed her head just under the left ear. She fell to the ground, but was quickly picked up and carried to the home of Roy Burns on the opposite side of the street, and Dr. A. H. Hill summoned.

Aurand then ran into the house and barricaded the doors, while the next crowd gathered outside. Officer James Miller, Harry Campbell and H. E. Baker appeared on the scene quickly and took charge of the situation. The mother was taken to the hospital where she attended Peabody Institute.

Bombs Dropped From Cage Attached to Dirigibles

London, Aug. 27, 12.38 A. M.—The method used by Zeppelin airships in dropping bombs has been described as follows by an English refugee who has just arrived here from Belgium:

"The dirigible hovers over its objective at a sufficient altitude to keep clear of the enemy's guns. At the same time it lowers a steel cage attached to a steel wire support 2,000 or 3,000 feet long. This cage is like a box of sixteen or twenty men carries one man whose duty it is to throw down the bombs. The cage is sufficiently strong to make rifle fire against it ineffective, and because of its small size and the fact that it kept constantly in motion it is very difficult for heavy guns to hit it."

Japan May Assist in Driving Out Germans

Patriotic lantern processions are being held in the various cities and such is the interest in the war that the people are crowding moving picture shows where battle scenes are produced.

The official Gazette publishes a decree announcing that the service of officers of the mobilized division has been extended indefinitely.

The Japanese minister of justice, in speaking of the distinterestedness of Japan in the war other than in the conditions of Kiao-Chow and the Chinese sea, said:

"When Japan captures Kiao-Chow and hostilities in the China and Japan seas are over, Japan will stand aside and become an onlooker if the war in Europe still is in progress."
