

$30,000 PENBROOK FIRE BELIEVED TO BE FIREBUG'S WORK

Biggest Blaze in History of Suburb; Bakery and Apartment Building Gutted

HAVE TO SEEK AID HERE

Dozens Spend Night on House-tops; Starts in Stable; 30 Men Thrown Out of Work

Fire, believed to be of incendiary origin, started shortly before 2 o'clock this morning in the stables of W. H. Wolf, Penbrook, in Canby street near Main street, and caused a total loss to the W. H. Wolf bakery and apartment building. The loss will exceed $30,000, part of this being covered by insurance.

The first indication of the fire was discovered by a passerby, who saw smoke pouring out of the doors of the Wolf stable. A few minutes later flames broke out on the second floor walls and the alarm was hurriedly given.

The occupants of the apartments hurried out and found the entire second floor and extended into the main building, and ten horses, nine owned by Wolf, were taken from the stable. The entire remaining contents, including wagons, tons of feed and general stores, were burned. An attempt was made to remove the wagons, but the first one collided with a post in the burning stable and blocked up the door.

Flames Spread Rapidly

The fire spread rapidly through the building, and before the arrival of the Penbrook fire department had entered the Wolf bakery and extended into the apartment building. The bakery was a mass of flames by the time the first stream was turned on and the fire was soon past control.

The residents of the apartments, seeing that their homes were in danger, removed most of their furniture to the other side of Main street, and firemen then turned their efforts to blocking up the door.

ANOTHER OF THOSE ENTHUSIASTIC RECEPTIONS

KIPLING WRITES WAR POEM

A PROFOUND impression has been made by Kipling's call to the country, just published.

By RUDYARD KIPLING For All We Have and Are

FOR all we have and are— For all our children's fate— Stand up and meet the war; The Hun is at the gate. Our world has passed away In wantonness o'erthrown; There's nothing left to-day But steel and fire and stone. Though all we knew depart The old commandments stand; In courage keep your heart, In strength lift up your hand. Once more we heard the word That sickened earth of old: No law except the sword, Unsheathed and uncontrolled. Once more it knits mankind, Once more the nations go To meet and break and bind A crazed and driven foe. (Copyright, 1914, by Rudyard Kipling. All rights reserved.)

NEW Y. W. C. A. TO BE READY BY LATTER PART OF THE MONTH

Individuals Are Invited to Furnish Rooms in the Dormitories by Committee

Officers of the Young Women's Christian Association this morning issued a statement with regard to the opening and dedication of the association's new building, Fourth and Walnut streets. The statement is as follows:

"The new Y. W. C. A. building is expected to be ready for occupancy the latter part of this month. The formal opening and inspection by the public will follow early in October. The date for the dedication of the new building will be announced later.

"The equipment, appointment and decoration, simple though effective, in keeping with the requirements of the institution, are beautiful and pleasing. The assembly room, gymnasium and locker rooms, dormitories and class rooms are finished and the building will doubtless be a source of gratification to the patrons of the campaign fund when opened for their inspection. The architects, Zantinger, Borie & Medary, of Philadelphia, have made admirable use of every part of the building. It will also be a satisfaction to know that the cost of the building has been kept within the amount of

French and British Troops Are Putting Up Stubborn Resistance in Front of French Capital; Turkey Is Reported to Have Declared War on Russia; Loss of Two Army Corps and Three Generals Admitted by Russia; Absence of Official News Indicates That Important Engagement Is in Progress

New York, Sept. 2.—Sir Courtenay Bennett, British consul general in this city announced this afternoon that he had been informed by a trustworthy friend that the North German Lloyd steamer Kronprinz Wilhelm had been captured in nearby waters by the British flotilla of cruisers and taken a war prize, to Bermuda. His information, he said, had not been confirmed, but he thought it true.

London, Sept. 2, 4:42 P. M.—The steam drifter Eyric, engaged in mine sweeping operations in the North Sea, struck a mine this morning and went to the bottom in three minutes. Six members of her crew are missing; five were saved.

London, Sept. 2, 1:35 P. M.—A dispatch to the Reuter Telegram Company from Antwerp says that a Zeppelin airship passing over that city this morning, dropped several bombs. One struck the railway, doing no damage, but others seriously damaged ten houses. In addition to these striking the houses five bombs tore great holes in a field at the rear of the buildings. The forts fired upon the airship and it is believed that she was hit. The Zeppelin retired in a southerly direction and dropped eight or nine bombs at one time seemingly to facilitate her own escape.

Peking, China, Sept. 2.—Japan has landed between 10,000 and 15,000 troops from 18 transports at Lung Kow, a newly opened port about 100 miles north of Tsing-Tau. This is declared here to have been done in violation of China's neutrality.

Paris, via London, Sept. 2, 12:20 P. M.—The Petit Parisien to-day says that 14 German staff officers have been captured and sent to Nimes in the Department of Gard.

The fourth day of the second general battle between the Germans and the allies finds Emperor William's forces pressing with unprecedented strength their advance on Paris. Their right is reported to be within fifty miles of the French capital. In the absence of official announcements news dispatches indicate the French and British troops continue a stubborn resistance, giving way slowly, however, whenever their strategy is necessary to keep their lines intact and prevent an enveloping movement by the German right.

In the east the fighting progresses with unabated fury. Both the Russians and the Austro-German armies have met successes and reverses. It is admitted in Petrograd (St. Petersburg) that two army corps were defeated in East Prussia and that three Russian generals were lost.

On the other hand the Austrians appear to have been defeated in Galicia where overwhelming successes are claimed for the Russian forces. This claim finds support in a dispatch from Vienna which states that the Austrians had decided to evacuate Lemberg, the capital of Galicia.

Official dispatches from Petrograd by way of London show evidence of having been closely censored in London. The attitudes of Turkey and Italy are anxiously awaited by all the belligerents. A semi official dispatch from Petrograd says that Turkish troops have landed on the shores of Asia Minor at Smyrna. Further pressure is reported to have been brought on Italy by Germany and Austria to have her support the Triple Alliance.

The Japanese Foreign Office has issued a statement complaining of the alleged unfair treatment of Japanese noncombatants in Germany.

The location is between Filbert and Cowden and North and State streets, where most of the buildings have been torn down and more are to be taken away shortly.

GERMANS BELIEVED TO BE AGAIN MOVING IN DIRECTION OF OSTEND

By Associated Press London, Sept. 2, 1:30 p. m.—The Ostend correspondent of the Reuter Telegram Company reports that an extensive movement of German troops toward the north has been seen from Brussels. It is believed the Germans are going to Antwerp, where an investment and bombardment are expected.

AUSTRIANS ADMIT DEFEAT IN GALICIA FOR FIRST TIME

By Associated Press London, Sept. 2, 1:30 p. m.—The announcement from Vienna that preparations have been made for the evacuation of Lemberg, the capital of Galicia, in view of the "inevitability" of an approaching Russian occupation, is the first official admission that the Austrians have been worsted in the prolonged fighting in Galicia.

Moreover Russian accounts from this field of operations have been continuously cheerful. Even the defeat of Russians by the Germans in East Prussia has unabated the optimism of Petrograd. The Russian chief of the general staff calls the affair merely a reverse due to the unexpected appearance of heavy German reinforcements accompanied by siege guns apparently from the fortresses of Thorn and Graudenz.

Nothing so complete as the present censorship of the news from the battle line in France has been known since the beginning of the war.
