A SIGHT WITH ERUPTION ON HEAD

Broke Out With Pimples. Hair Came Out in Spots. Itching and Burning. No Rest. Used Cuticura Soap and Ointment. Got Well.

R. F. D. No. 2, West Alexander, Pa.—My daughter's head broke out all over with pimples of a yellowish color. Then her head became almost a solid sore. Her hair came out in spots and she was an awful sight. Her head was itching and burning and smarting all the time and she had no rest day or night. It lasted about two weeks and then subsided. She scratched and it spread very fast.

"All the medicines we used failed till we got the Cuticura Soap and Ointment. We washed her head with the Soap and then applied the Ointment all over the eruptions twice a day, morning and evening, and she got well. Her hair came in nicely and she never was bothered after that." (Signed) Wiley Earnest, Apr. 22, 1914.

ST. JAMES' RECEIVES PAPAL BLESSING

Church Crowded to the Doors as Father Bolton Celebrates High Mass

From the one-time altar boy of St. James' Catholic Church, a congregation that crowded the church to the doors yesterday morning received the papal blessing of Pope Pius X. The Rev. Father James B. Bolton, a Steelton boy of a few years ago, conferred the blessing; the privilege had been conferred upon him by the Pontiff of just a few weeks ago.

Father Bolton was recently ordained by Cardinal Pamplie, vicar of Rome, following the conclusion of his five years of study in Augustine College, the Vatican, and yesterday's ceremonies marked his return to Steelton.

St. James' Church could scarcely have held another man, woman or child, and it is safe to say that most of the older folks recalled vividly the celebrant's last appearance on the altar, something more than five years ago, when Monsignor Benton was rector of St. James'.

Father Bolton celebrated solemn high mass and was assisted by the Rev. Father W. G. Rafter, Villanova College, as deacon; the Rev. Father J. C. Thompson, rector of St. James', subdeacon. Father Rafter, who was college mate of Father Bolton at Villanova and in Augustine College, delivered the sermon. The music was a splendid feature and was sung by the choir led by M. P. Lades, assisted by Miss Mary Lynch, organist, and Frank Wiegler, violinist.

STEELTON BOY IN EUROPEAN CONFLICT

Archy B. Muirhead Wears Lieutenant's Straps in Scotch Regiment

Lieutenant Muirhead is the son of F. H. Muirhead, of New York city, formerly of Steelton, and a nephew of Sam W. Bradshaw, 356 Spruce street, Steelton, and a grandson of Mrs. J. G. Bradshaw, also of Steelton. Prior to the outbreak of the present war he was studying a course in civil engineering at the University of Glasgow, Scotland. He was a member of the cadet corps and a leader in university activities.

When the king called for volunteers young Muirhead and 500 of his fellow students offered their services. Muirhead was fortunate enough to be selected on the twenty-six men from the university to go to the famous Argye Southerland Highlanders regiment. He was commissioned a lieutenant.

Argyle Southerland Highlanders is one of the favorite regiments in the English army. The men will wear kilts and the officers still carry the claymore or broad swords of the Highlanders instead of the regulation officers' swords.

Lieutenant Muirhead was born in Steelton and was a student in the Steelton schools. He is still remembered by a large circle of friends here.
