WASHINGTON MEN SHOWING DISGUST

Fusion Dicker Has Not Strengthened Democrats and Has Wrecked Bull Moosers

Robert Gunter, one of the most observant of the Pennsylvania newspaper men in Washington and especially conversant with political conditions, has this to say in a signed article to the Pittsburgh Gazette-Times about the formation of the mule ticket:

"The disposition of Democratic and Progressive members of the House from Pennsylvania is to criticize the withdrawal of William Draper Lewis from the Washington party ticket for governor in favor of Vance C. McCormick, Democratic reorganization candidate. 'Progressives, while not talking for publication, privately expressed the fear that the retirement of Dr. Lewis meant the collapse of the Progressive movement in Pennsylvania. Two or three Progressive members said McCormick could not control their party vote and they were of the opinion that at least 50 per cent of the Progressives would go to Dr. Martin G. Brumbaugh, Republican candidate. 'Democrats such as Warren Worth Bailey of Johnstown believed it would strengthen McCormick, but refused to indicate what effect it would have on the balance of the ticket of the Washington party headed by Gifford Pinchot. They are now hopeful that Pinchot can be induced to withdraw from the senatorial race in favor of A. Mitchell Palmer. 'There seems no chance for fusion on the senatorial ticket, however. At Palmer's office his campaign manager made the announcement that Palmer would not think of retiring and if there is to be fusion all along the line he knew nothing of it. 'Pennsylvania Republicans who have been keeping in touch with the Pennsylvania situation say they have information that Dr. Lewis decided to withdraw after his talk with Colonel Roosevelt in New York last week. They claim the Colonel advised Dr. Lewis he would be unable to speak for him and Pinchot this fall and that the best thing for the candidate was to get out of the contest. 'The financial situation, in so far as it affects the Progressive campaign, is also said to have had a bearing. If rumor is to be credited the Progressives will not lean entirely upon William Flinn for this fall's supply of ammunition. McCormick is expected to help finance the anti-Republican campaign, both Democratic and Progressive in return for his endorsement for governor. 'There is still talk of a Washington party gubernatorial candidate in the person of Judge Charles N. Brumm, whom Lewis defeated for the nomination in the May primary. This proposition, it is understood, will be broached when the Washington party State committee meets next week to substitute McCormick for Lewis."

True Toasted Corn

Is as different from commonplace corn flakes, as succulent green sweet corn is different from the hard, flinty, yellow grain of the farmer's corn crib.

In spite of the numerous "corn flakes" marketed few persons really know the rich sweetness of choice corn when skilfully cooked, flavoured and toasted. This true toasted corn—distinctive in its rich, rare flavour—is called.

Post Toasties

A call for "corn flakes" often brings some one of the many brands of ordinary flakes. To avoid disappointment ask for, and insist upon Post Toasties. This food can be distinguished by the original yellow package; by the rich, true corn flavour imprisoned in the making; and by the size and tender crispness of the golden brown flakes.

Toasties are ready to serve hot or cold, with cream or good milk—also with fresh fruit in season. A further delicate flavour may be released by heating a few minutes in oven before serving. And it's a flavour worth knowing!

No Advance in Price of Post Toasties
