BIBLE 170 YEARS OLD

Special to The Telegraph Lewistown, Pa., Sept. 18. — Hugo Gottschalk, the Burnham baker and inventor, has got the old relic fever and is keeping his eyes open for genuine relics of other centuries. A few days ago, while visiting in the Cumberland Valley, he ran across an old German Bible which proved to be at least 170 years old. It is far different in shape from the present day publication of the kind. Mr. Gottschalk also purchased an old clock, with wooden works over a century old. A. C. Garver is also looking up old relics and he has a number over a century old.
