

Central Pennsylvania News

FAST HORSE RACES AT CARLISLE FAIR

Great Exhibition of Horses, Cattle, Hogs and Poultry at Cumberland County Show

Special to The Telegraph
Carlisle, Pa., Sept. 22.—This week the great Carlisle fair is being held. The free attractions are the best available. The Flying Vanteenes, in which girls fly 100 feet in the air; the original hay wagon act; the sensational Smithson cycling the chasm; loop the loop; then comes Alferno, the champion high wire walker, 100 feet in the air.

New buildings and sheds for cattle, hogs and sheep have been erected. There is the greatest collection of farm products and fancy work ever seen at a fair.

Wednesday afternoon the association has arranged for a pony race to please the children. Former favors to the school children by sending the schools free tickets for Wednesday have been continued this year.

On Thursday, the great day for racing, Joe Boy, Mary Ellen, Ashline, Directneer and six other fast horses will start in the free-for-all. Friday, September 25, the businessmen's stake race will take place. There are eighteen entries for this race.

Race Entries For Wednesday

Entries for to-morrow's races are as follows:
2.30 pace, purse $400—Ashland Rose, b. s. George H. Ritter, Elliptsburg, Pa.; Miss Anna Draybill, b. m., H. W. Zug, East Petersburg, Va.; Moorehead Boy, b. g., H. E. Switzer, Carlisle, Pa.; Hugh Be Sure, b. g., Dan Leary, West Chester, Pa.; Wingo Hawking, b. st., Dan Leary, West Chester, Pa.; Hal, b. st., Dan Leary, West Chester, Pa.; Trent, b. g., Eberhard Vollmer, Trenton, N. J.; Bud D. b. h., Sylvia Barke, Trenton, N. J.; Marlin, b. g., D. Rankins, Fair Haven, N. J.; J. Dr. Bell, Jr. b. s., H. C. Corbin, Hamilton, Va.; June Patchen, b. m., H. C. Corbin, Hamilton, Va.; Mt. Brook, g. g., Thomas McFarland, Mt. Holly, N. J.; Sylvia Barke, g. m., Fred B. Shreve, Nazareth, Pa.; Kid Harvey, b. g., John Witmer, Carlisle, Pa.; Dr. L. b. g., W. H. Finkenbinder, Carlisle, Pa.; Carrie Hal, b. m., Elmer E. Lay, Carlisle, Pa.

WAR VETERAN DIES

Special to The Telegraph
Gettysburg, Pa., Sept. 22.—Marcus J. Hamilton, well-known citizen of Gettysburg and a prominent veteran of the Civil War, died at his home in Baltimore street Sunday evening. Mr. Hamilton was a member of Post 9, Grand Army of the Republic, and of the Union Veteran Legion. He was born on February 18, 1844.

BAKER'S LEG BROKEN

Special to The Telegraph
Gettysburg, Pa., Sept. 22.—Samuel Smith, a baker, of New Oxford, fell off the Leivelsberger mill bridge, along the York pike, recently at midnight and lay there with a broken leg, unable to move, all night, and until found morning between 5 and 6 o'clock the next morning.

PENNA. CAVALRY REUNION

Special to The Telegraph
Gettysburg, Pa., Sept. 22.—Survivors of the Seventeenth Pennsylvania Cavalry met in Gettysburg on Saturday and held their annual reunion. The business sessions of the organization were held at the Eagle Hotel and the meeting included a trip over the battlefield.

Former Dauphin Girl Is Married at Detroit, Mich.

Mrs. Thomas Crawford

MRS. THOMAS CRAWFORD

Special to The Telegraph

Dauphin, Pa., Sept. 22.—Word has been received by Mr. and Mrs. Thomas G. Switzer of the marriage of their granddaughter, Miss Ethel Mae Leaman, of Detroit, to Thomas Crawford, of Pittsburgh, on Monday, September 14. Miss Leaman, who spent a great deal of her childhood in Dauphin and is well known to the residents here, is just 17 and is very pretty and accomplished. She was until a year ago a student at the Indiana State Normal School, Indiana, Pa. The marriage took place at the home of the groom in Pittsburgh. It was a great surprise to Miss Leaman's friends here.

Lancaster County Couple Celebrate Golden Wedding

Special to The Telegraph
Marietta, Pa., Sept. 22.—At the home of Dr. E. F. French, Washington township, his parents, Captain and Mrs. E. French, celebrated their golden wedding a few days ago. Both are enjoying good health and were married at Prosperity in 1864. Just after the close of the war. All their children and grandchildren were present and they received a number of appropriate gifts. Captain French saw hard service in the Civil War.

SERIOUS WATER FAMINE IS FACING SHIPPENSBURG BOROUGH

Special to The Telegraph
Shippensburg, Pa., Sept. 22.—Shippensburg is facing the most serious water famine it ever has known in the history of the town. Three pumps are now at work forcing the water from Dykeman's spring and a run which flows close by, into the reservoir. The health officer placed a notice in public places, stating that the water should be boiled. Samples have been sent to Philadelphia to be examined. Wagons have been hauling water from the branch to the different manufacturing in town.

EVANGELIST SECURED

Special to The Telegraph
Shippensburg, Pa., Sept. 22.—The Rev. Mr. Miller of Sandusky conference of the United Brethren Church will hold evangelistic services in the Messiah United Brethren Church for about a month, beginning October 15. A large choir will furnish the music.

DEATH OF JOHN RUPLEY

Marysville, Pa., Sept. 22.—Funeral services of John Rupley, son of John and Leah Rupley, who died yesterday morning, will be held Thursday afternoon at 2 o'clock. Burial will be in the Chestnut Grove cemetery. The Rev. H. L. Gartsinger will conduct the services, assisted by the Rev. S. L. Rice. Mr. Rupley was ill for a number of years and his death was due to stomach trouble. He was born fifty-seven years ago at Enola, but has made Marysville his home for over fifty years. He is survived by his wife, two brothers, Frank and Hal Rupley, two sisters, Mrs. Mary Halabach and Mrs. John Geib.

MRS. ELIZABETH DEHUFF

Special to The Telegraph

Carlisle, Pa., Sept. 22.—With her mind filled with the recollections of the days when the first wagon trains began to creep over the mountains toward Pittsburgh and the expansion following war times had begun, Mrs. Elizabeth DeHuff, personal friend of Molly McCauley, more familiarly known as Molly Pitcher, the heroine of Monmouth, died at her home here yesterday, aged 96 years and seven months.

Irving College and Music Conservatory Will Open

Special to The Telegraph
Mechanicsburg, Pa., Sept. 22.—With the dormitories filled to their utmost capacity, Irving College and Music Conservatory will reopen to-morrow for the fifty-ninth term. Three informal receptions will be given this week. On Thursday evening the senior class will give a reception to the faculty and students to meet the new comers. The old students will be the hostesses on Friday evening at a reception to new students and faculty. On Saturday evening the college Young Women's Christian Association will tender a reception to faculty and students. There are two new members of the faculty this year, Miss Catharine Hemperly, of Harrisburg, who will teach mathematics and science; Miss Anna Heydt, of Lehigh, Latin and history, and Dr. Van Ormer, of Altoona, will continue as professor of religion, philosophy and education.

Last Week of Mount Union Evangelistic Campaign

Special to The Telegraph
Mount Union, Pa., Sept. 22.—This is the last week of the Johnson-Weaver evangelistic campaign at this place. Yesterday was the regularly appointed rest day, but owing to the brevity of the time and such a week ahead an extra service was run in last night for the foreign speaking people, principally Roumanian and Hungarian, who reside in the vicinity of Mount Union Station, was present and interpreted Mr. Johnson's message. The schedule for this week follows: Tuesday night, September 22, Odd Fellows' night, with local and visiting orders will parade and gather at tabernacle in a body. Wednesday night will be East Broad Top night, when special consideration will be given to the people who reside in the region traversed by the East Broad Top Railroad. Thursday night will likely be anti-booze night. Friday night will be Pauline Order Sons of America night, when camps will attend from Altoona, Tyrone, Huntingdon, Lewisburg, and other points.

Case of Max Morgenthau in Hands of Cumberland Court

Special to The Telegraph
Carlisle, Pa., Sept. 22.—Following one of the most unique sessions on record here, the hearing in the case of Max Morgenthau, of Harrisburg, who entered a plea of guilty to the charge of murdering John M. Rupp, a prominent dairyman and farmer, at his home near Mechanicsburg on May 12, last, came to a close in the region of Carlisle. Because of Morgenthau's plea, no jury sat on the case, and witnesses were only heard to determine the degree of the offense. Judge Sadler will render a decision in the case. Judgment being expected in about three months.

HAND BITTEN BY HORSE

Special to The Telegraph
Lewistown, Pa., Sept. 22.—A horse belonging to Wertz Brothers, grocers, while eating apples got one fast in its throat. The animal showed signs of choking and Clyde Wertz, junior member of the firm, ran his arm down the horse's throat to dislodge the apple. The animal shuts its mouth and the young man's local and one finger was caught and part of it severed from the hand.

DANGEROUS FIRE FIGHTING

Special to The Telegraph
Wrightsville, Pa., Sept. 22.—Fire destroyed the boilerhouse at the Crumbling quarry yesterday, and the local firemen bravely fought the flames, despite the fact that 250 pounds of high grade dynamite were in a building close by. It was also feared that the boiler would explode.

FOUND DEAD IN BED

Special to The Telegraph
Gettysburg, Pa., Sept. 22.—Register and Recorder of Adams county, Emanuel H. Berkheimer, was found dead in bed at his home in Baltimore street. Mr. Berkheimer was an invalid since he was 6 years old.

POST OFFICE BURNED

Special to The Telegraph
Gettysburg, Pa., Sept. 22.—Philadelphia and Reading station and freight house and the post office at Huntzberg were totally destroyed by fire, together with all their contents.

WEDDING DINNER FOR GUESTS

Special to The Telegraph
Annville, Pa., Sept. 22.—An enjoyable wedding dinner was served on Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Alvin Ketterling, of Annville, in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Earl Ketterling, of Clarksburg, W. Va., who are on their wedding trip. Among those present were congressman and Mrs. A. S. Kreider, Mrs. Lydia Glick and daughter Violet; Mr. and Mrs. George Smith, Mr. and Mrs. Tobias Bomberger, Mr. and Mrs. A. G. Longenecker, of Palmyra; Enos Famerl and family of Elizabethtown, and Mrs. W. A. Wheller, of Buffalo, N. Y.

REDEDICATION SERVICES

Special to The Telegraph
Annville, Pa., Sept. 22.—The rededication service of the Hill Reformed Church will be held on Sunday, October 4, when there will be a special program in the morning and evening. The sermons will be in charge of visiting clergymen. The Rev. W. F. DeLong is the pastor.

WEST SHORE NEWS

DEATH OF JOHN RUPLEY

Marysville, Pa., Sept. 22.—Funeral services of John Rupley, son of John and Leah Rupley, who died yesterday morning, will be held Thursday afternoon at 2 o'clock. Burial will be in the Chestnut Grove cemetery. The Rev. H. L. Gartsinger will conduct the services, assisted by the Rev. S. L. Rice. Mr. Rupley was ill for a number of years and his death was due to stomach trouble. He was born fifty-seven years ago at Enola, but has made Marysville his home for over fifty years. He is survived by his wife, two brothers, Frank and Hal Rupley, two sisters, Mrs. Mary Halabach and Mrs. John Geib.

SENIOR CLASS OFFICERS

Wormleysburg, Pa., Sept. 22.—Senior class of the Wormleysburg High School has elected the following officers: President, Mabel Shaffer; vice-president, Beatrice Bixler; secretary, Kathleen Buck; assistant secretary, Esther Jinks; treasurer, Hilda Famos; advisory committee, Josie Hoop.

RETURNED FROM FLORIDA

Lemoyne, Pa., Sept. 22.—Hazel V. Wise and brother, Frank Wise, of 445 Hummel avenue, Lemoyne, have returned from an extended trip through Southern Florida, including all East coast resorts, spending most of the time at Fort Pierce, Florida.

Irving College and Music Conservatory Will Open

Special to The Telegraph
Mechanicsburg, Pa., Sept. 22.—With the dormitories filled to their utmost capacity, Irving College and Music Conservatory will reopen to-morrow for the fifty-ninth term. Three informal receptions will be given this week. On Thursday evening the senior class will give a reception to the faculty and students to meet the new comers. The old students will be the hostesses on Friday evening at a reception to new students and faculty. On Saturday evening the college Young Women's Christian Association will tender a reception to faculty and students. There are two new members of the faculty this year, Miss Catharine Hemperly, of Harrisburg, who will teach mathematics and science; Miss Anna Heydt, of Lehigh, Latin and history, and Dr. Van Ormer, of Altoona, will continue as professor of religion, philosophy and education.

Last Week of Mount Union Evangelistic Campaign

Special to The Telegraph
Mount Union, Pa., Sept. 22.—This is the last week of the Johnson-Weaver evangelistic campaign at this place. Yesterday was the regularly appointed rest day, but owing to the brevity of the time and such a week ahead an extra service was run in last night for the foreign speaking people, principally Roumanian and Hungarian, who reside in the vicinity of Mount Union Station, was present and interpreted Mr. Johnson's message. The schedule for this week follows: Tuesday night, September 22, Odd Fellows' night, with local and visiting orders will parade and gather at tabernacle in a body. Wednesday night will be East Broad Top night, when special consideration will be given to the people who reside in the region traversed by the East Broad Top Railroad. Thursday night will likely be anti-booze night. Friday night will be Pauline Order Sons of America night, when camps will attend from Altoona, Tyrone, Huntingdon, Lewisburg, and other points.

Case of Max Morgenthau in Hands of Cumberland Court

Special to The Telegraph
Carlisle, Pa., Sept. 22.—Following one of the most unique sessions on record here, the hearing in the case of Max Morgenthau, of Harrisburg, who entered a plea of guilty to the charge of murdering John M. Rupp, a prominent dairyman and farmer, at his home near Mechanicsburg on May 12, last, came to a close in the region of Carlisle. Because of Morgenthau's plea, no jury sat on the case, and witnesses were only heard to determine the degree of the offense. Judge Sadler will render a decision in the case. Judgment being expected in about three months.

HAND BITTEN BY HORSE

Special to The Telegraph
Lewistown, Pa., Sept. 22.—A horse belonging to Wertz Brothers, grocers, while eating apples got one fast in its throat. The animal showed signs of choking and Clyde Wertz, junior member of the firm, ran his arm down the horse's throat to dislodge the apple. The animal shuts its mouth and the young man's local and one finger was caught and part of it severed from the hand.

DANGEROUS FIRE FIGHTING

Special to The Telegraph
Wrightsville, Pa., Sept. 22.—Fire destroyed the boilerhouse at the Crumbling quarry yesterday, and the local firemen bravely fought the flames, despite the fact that 250 pounds of high grade dynamite were in a building close by. It was also feared that the boiler would explode.

FOUND DEAD IN BED

Special to The Telegraph
Gettysburg, Pa., Sept. 22.—Register and Recorder of Adams county, Emanuel H. Berkheimer, was found dead in bed at his home in Baltimore street. Mr. Berkheimer was an invalid since he was 6 years old.

POST OFFICE BURNED

Special to The Telegraph
Gettysburg, Pa., Sept. 22.—Philadelphia and Reading station and freight house and the post office at Huntzberg were totally destroyed by fire, together with all their contents.

WEDDING DINNER FOR GUESTS

Special to The Telegraph
Annville, Pa., Sept. 22.—An enjoyable wedding dinner was served on Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Alvin Ketterling, of Annville, in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Earl Ketterling, of Clarksburg, W. Va., who are on their wedding trip. Among those present were congressman and Mrs. A. S. Kreider, Mrs. Lydia Glick and daughter Violet; Mr. and Mrs. George Smith, Mr. and Mrs. Tobias Bomberger, Mr. and Mrs. A. G. Longenecker, of Palmyra; Enos Famerl and family of Elizabethtown, and Mrs. W. A. Wheller, of Buffalo, N. Y.

REDEDICATION SERVICES

Special to The Telegraph
Annville, Pa., Sept. 22.—The rededication service of the Hill Reformed Church will be held on Sunday, October 4, when there will be a special program in the morning and evening. The sermons will be in charge of visiting clergymen. The Rev. W. F. DeLong is the pastor.

OLDEST CARLISLE NATIVE IS DEAD

Mrs. Elizabeth DeHuff, Friend of "Molly Pitcher," Nearly Century Old

MRS. ELIZABETH DEHUFF

Special to The Telegraph

Carlisle, Pa., Sept. 22.—With her mind filled with the recollections of the days when the first wagon trains began to creep over the mountains toward Pittsburgh and the expansion following war times had begun, Mrs. Elizabeth DeHuff, personal friend of Molly McCauley, more familiarly known as Molly Pitcher, the heroine of Monmouth, died at her home here yesterday, aged 96 years and seven months.

Irving College and Music Conservatory Will Open

Special to The Telegraph
Mechanicsburg, Pa., Sept. 22.—With the dormitories filled to their utmost capacity, Irving College and Music Conservatory will reopen to-morrow for the fifty-ninth term. Three informal receptions will be given this week. On Thursday evening the senior class will give a reception to the faculty and students to meet the new comers. The old students will be the hostesses on Friday evening at a reception to new students and faculty. On Saturday evening the college Young Women's Christian Association will tender a reception to faculty and students. There are two new members of the faculty this year, Miss Catharine Hemperly, of Harrisburg, who will teach mathematics and science; Miss Anna Heydt, of Lehigh, Latin and history, and Dr. Van Ormer, of Altoona, will continue as professor of religion, philosophy and education.

Last Week of Mount Union Evangelistic Campaign

Special to The Telegraph
Mount Union, Pa., Sept. 22.—This is the last week of the Johnson-Weaver evangelistic campaign at this place. Yesterday was the regularly appointed rest day, but owing to the brevity of the time and such a week ahead an extra service was run in last night for the foreign speaking people, principally Roumanian and Hungarian, who reside in the vicinity of Mount Union Station, was present and interpreted Mr. Johnson's message. The schedule for this week follows: Tuesday night, September 22, Odd Fellows' night, with local and visiting orders will parade and gather at tabernacle in a body. Wednesday night will be East Broad Top night, when special consideration will be given to the people who reside in the region traversed by the East Broad Top Railroad. Thursday night will likely be anti-booze night. Friday night will be Pauline Order Sons of America night, when camps will attend from Altoona, Tyrone, Huntingdon, Lewisburg, and other points.

Case of Max Morgenthau in Hands of Cumberland Court

Special to The Telegraph
Carlisle, Pa., Sept. 22.—Following one of the most unique sessions on record here, the hearing in the case of Max Morgenthau, of Harrisburg, who entered a plea of guilty to the charge of murdering John M. Rupp, a prominent dairyman and farmer, at his home near Mechanicsburg on May 12, last, came to a close in the region of Carlisle. Because of Morgenthau's plea, no jury sat on the case, and witnesses were only heard to determine the degree of the offense. Judge Sadler will render a decision in the case. Judgment being expected in about three months.

HAND BITTEN BY HORSE

Special to The Telegraph
Lewistown, Pa., Sept. 22.—A horse belonging to Wertz Brothers, grocers, while eating apples got one fast in its throat. The animal showed signs of choking and Clyde Wertz, junior member of the firm, ran his arm down the horse's throat to dislodge the apple. The animal shuts its mouth and the young man's local and one finger was caught and part of it severed from the hand.

DANGEROUS FIRE FIGHTING

Special to The Telegraph
Wrightsville, Pa., Sept. 22.—Fire destroyed the boilerhouse at the Crumbling quarry yesterday, and the local firemen bravely fought the flames, despite the fact that 250 pounds of high grade dynamite were in a building close by. It was also feared that the boiler would explode.

FOUND DEAD IN BED

Special to The Telegraph
Gettysburg, Pa., Sept. 22.—Register and Recorder of Adams county, Emanuel H. Berkheimer, was found dead in bed at his home in Baltimore street. Mr. Berkheimer was an invalid since he was 6 years old.

POST OFFICE BURNED

Special to The Telegraph
Gettysburg, Pa., Sept. 22.—Philadelphia and Reading station and freight house and the post office at Huntzberg were totally destroyed by fire, together with all their contents.

WEDDING DINNER FOR GUESTS

Special to The Telegraph
Annville, Pa., Sept. 22.—An enjoyable wedding dinner was served on Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Alvin Ketterling, of Annville, in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Earl Ketterling, of Clarksburg, W. Va., who are on their wedding trip. Among those present were congressman and Mrs. A. S. Kreider, Mrs. Lydia Glick and daughter Violet; Mr. and Mrs. George Smith, Mr. and Mrs. Tobias Bomberger, Mr. and Mrs. A. G. Longenecker, of Palmyra; Enos Famerl and family of Elizabethtown, and Mrs. W. A. Wheller, of Buffalo, N. Y.

REDEDICATION SERVICES

Special to The Telegraph
Annville, Pa., Sept. 22.—The rededication service of the Hill Reformed Church will be held on Sunday, October 4, when there will be a special program in the morning and evening. The sermons will be in charge of visiting clergymen. The Rev. W. F. DeLong is the pastor.

Don't ask for lubricating oil, ask for Polarine THE STANDARD OIL FOR ALL MOTORS and insist on getting it.

Years of experience in oil manufacture enable us to say—"It is the best motor car oil that science and experience has produced."

Its increasing sales are conclusive evidence of the satisfaction of its many users.

A gallon will convince you.

If your dealer cannot supply it, telephone or call.

THE ATLANTIC REFINING COMPANY

Agents wanted for Clouser's Quinine

THE NEW HOTEL ANOVER
CLAUDE M. MOHR, Mgr.
PHILADELPHIA
12th and Arch

Centrally located, up to date and newly furnished

Dollar a Day
$1.50 with bath
Table Cloth Dinner 50¢
Club Breakfast 20¢ and up
Music with Lunch, Dinner and Supper

WRITE OR WIRE YOUR RESERVATION

Why heads of hair are so different

MILLIONS

of men are fighting on the European battlefields for kings and other rulers. Here in Pennsylvania millions of King Oscar 5c Cigars are mobilized every year for the enjoyment of men engaged in the peaceful pursuits of life, but who are as loyal to their "King" as any subjects of the crown in the great conflict.

23 Years of Regular Quality

COUPON

LARNED'S HISTORY OF THE WORLD

COUPON

Five Beautiful Volumes De Luxe Style of Binding

How to get them Almost Free

Simply clip a Coupon and present together with our special price of $1.98 at the office of the

Harrisburg Telegraph

A Coupon and $1.98 Secure the 5 volumes of this great $12 Set

Beautifully bound in de luxe style; gold lettering; fleur-de-lis design; rich half-calf effect. Marbled sides in gold and colors. Full size of volumes 5 1/2 x 8". History of the World for 70 centuries. 150 wonderful illustrations in colors and half-tones.

Weight of Set, 9 pounds. Add for Postage:

Local	9 cents	Third Zone, up to 300 miles, 22 cts
First and Second Zones, up to 150 miles, .13		Fourth Zone, " 600 " 39 cts
		Fifth Zone, " 1000 " 86 cts

For greater distance see P. P. Tariff

Until further notice a big $1.50 War Map FREE with each set

The Wise Old Miller

knows there are as many grades and kinds of Corn Flakes as there are grades and kinds of flour.

To tell the best—the kind that affords the biggest money's worth and most satisfaction to the consumer—is easy for the old miller or food expert.

But the purchaser who doesn't know, must be protected. That is why the producers of the very finest Corn Flakes didn't call them "Jones' Corn Flakes" or "Smith's Corn Flakes."

These Superior Corn Flakes were given a name that is distinctive—

Post Toasties

The average housekeeper has, likely enough, tried some of the various "Corn Flakes" on the market. To realize the perfection of taste in toasted Indian corn—cooked, rolled and seasoned with sugar and salt just as it ought to be—one should order Post Toasties.

These famous Corn Flakes have been the favorite for years among chefs and food connoisseurs. They come ready to eat in sealed packages with an Inside Container that keeps this delicious food crisp, fresh and clean for the table. And the price is no higher than the cost of ordinary kinds.

Insist on your grocer supplying the Superior Corn Flakes—

Post Toasties