

The Way to Secure Help Is to Read Telegraph Want Ads Every Day

A School For "Grown-Ups"

Of course you have outgrown the days when you received instruction in geography and arithmetic from the blackboard; but still none of us have grown too old to add to our knowledge.

You can do this each evening by a few minutes' reading of the Telegraph Want Page. It is chock full of valuable information, especially in the way of investing money to good advantage.

Join the Telegraph Evening Want Ad School. You will find it both interesting and profitable.

Public Sale

Of Acclimated and Western Horses and Colts

Friday, September 25, 1914, 1 O'clock P. M.

At The Farmers' Hotel, M. Snyder, Prop.

MIDDLETOWN, PA.

WE WILL SELL THE FOLLOWING LIVE STOCK

1 Carload of Extra Good, Big, Rugged and all-purpose Western

Horses and Colts

raising in age from 2 to 5 years and will have them weighing from 11 to 14 hundred pounds each. They are the kind with plenty of size, shape, bone, muscle, color and weight that belongs to a good bred draft colt, and among this lot of colts you will find some that will make all-purpose horses, wagon horses, carriage horses, farm chunks and heavy drafters, also a few good bred driving colts.

Will have a few closely mated teams in bays, browns and grays. Mr. Grove advises us that he is shipping an extra good load of all-around horses and colts, and you all know the kind he ships. (The best that grow.)

If in need of a horse or colt for your spring sales or to get ready for the city shippers, there is no other colt sold that develops faster and matures into a real good horse as quick and makes as much money as a real W. M. Grove colt.

50 HEAD OF ACCLIMATED HORSES

Bought in and around the surrounding counties, consisting of finished draft horses, all-purpose horses, farm chunks, single line leaders, general business, carriage and fancy driving horses and some of the 57 variety kind, from a good work slave to a bang up good using horse. These horses range in age from 4 to 12 years, and will have them weighing up to 14 hundred pounds each.

Notes for 30, 60 or 90 days will be taken with good security and paying the discount. M. E. Schaeffer, auctioneer.

D. B. KIEFFER & CO. Sale Friday, September 25, 1914, at 1 o'clock P. M. at Middletown, Pa.

Commonwealth Band to Play at Hope Firehouse

Under the direction of the Hope Juniors, of the Hope Fire Company, the Commonwealth Band to-morrow night will hold an ice cream festival and bean bake in the firehouse, Second and North streets.

WANT LETTERS REVOKED

At a hearing to-day before Register of Wills Danner the question of whether the letters of administration issued to William C. Chronister, husband of Margaret Chronister, were legal and valid because the husband and wife had been separated was raised by Mrs. Chronister's heirs. The hearing may last all day to-morrow. Mrs. Chronister died in Chicago and the husband took out the letters and endeavored to administer the estate. The heirs wanted these letters revoked.

TO HEAR ENHAUT BOYS

Three Enhaut boys will be given a hearing before Alderman Charles E. Murray, 32 North Court street, on charge of entering and robbing the summer home of Nevin Warner. The boys are Clair August, George Derber and William Straub.
