

LADIES' BAZAAR

Ladies' Smart Apparel For Fall and Winter at Enticing Prices

Our cases are fairly bursting with pretty new garments for women's and misses' Fall and Winter outerwear. Suits, Coats and Dresses in fashionable models, and made up in the fabrics that will be most in demand are to be seen here now by the hundreds. The "quick sales" policy of the store is again responsible for the small-profit pricing, and that means a distinct advantage at a time like this when dollars are being called upon to do extra duty. It costs nothing to investigate—do so!

WILL WELCOME MEN AT NEW CAFETERIA

Y. W. C. A. Board of Managers Votes That Men Come in For Noon Lunch

Now there will be rejoicing among the business men of the city, at the prospect of having the best of home cooking at their noon lunches for—yesterday at a regular meeting of the board of managers of the Y. W. C. A. it was unanimously voted to welcome men to lunch at the new cafeteria, when it opens in October. Mrs. Sarah Erlenmeyer, who has so successfully conducted the cafeteria for several years, will still remain in charge, and there will be quick service in the beautiful, large dining room on the first floor, comfortably seating a hundred people at a time. Girls and women will have the advantages of the reading and rest rooms during their leisure noon time, and the gymnasium will also be open at that hour.

Miss Miller Entertains at the Colonial Club

One of the pleasantest social events of the week was the card party given at the Colonial Country Club by Miss Margaret Miller, of 1207 North Second street. The guests played bridge during the afternoon, with a course dinner following. The table appointments were of pink and white with asters prevailing in the flowers. Among those present were Mrs. Joseph F. Miller, Mrs. C. M. Dunn, Mrs. George H. Hill, Miss Helen Hill and Miss Goldthwaite, of Saco, Me.; Miss Ella Yost, Miss Georgiana Weigle, Miss Elizabeth Ellenberger, Miss Katharine Coover, Miss Mildred Buttorff, Miss Anna Margaret Miller, Miss Florence Carroll, Miss Sara Mosser, Mrs. Earl Richards, Miss Caroline Patterson, Miss Marguerite Robinson, Mrs. William Hicks, Miss Clara Segelbaum, Miss Martha White, Miss Anna Foerster, Miss Grace Rhoades, Miss Lorene Shelley.

TWO WEEKS' OUTING

Miss Louise Sponser of Chestnut street, and Miss Matilda Hiestor, of North Front street, left Wednesday for Buena Vista Springs, Md., to remain for two weeks.

BALMACAANS

LADIES!—The Balmacaan Coat has come to stay—its wonderful popularity has surprised even the most prophetic of fashion's wiseacres.

Those comfortable, loose-fitting coats that slip on and off in a jiffy—adapted for every service—can be termed a "kick-about."

Balmacaans possess the snap and style not to be had in any other.

Those new Scotch Tweeds in the beautiful plaid effects are a great hit and are way under price at

PERRY-WEED WEDDING IN NORTH ROSE, N. Y.

Young Couple Will Reside in This City After First of October

Special to The Telegraph
Buffalo, N. Y., Sept. 25.—The marriage of Miss Ruth Sarissa Weed, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Addison Weed, of North Rose, N. Y., and Leslie Donald Perry, of Harrisburg, took place Wednesday afternoon, September 22, at 2:30 o'clock at the bride's home, the Rev. John C. Luffard, pastor of the First Presbyterian Church, officiating, in the presence of a hundred guests. Mrs. Oscar S. Weed played the wedding marches and the ceremony was performed beneath an arch of asparagus fern and asters. The bride wore a toilette of white crepe de chine entraîne with garnitures of pearls and lace. Her veil of duchesse applique was fastened with orange blossoms and she carried a shower bouquet of roses, valley lilies and orchids. Her only ornament was the bridegroom's gift, a lavalliere of diamonds. Mrs. Trety Stebbens was matron of honor for her sister, wearing a gown of pink crepe de chine with lace tunic and carrying a sheaf of Killarney roses. Her pearl and diamond lavalliere was fastened with a bride. Lucius H. Hurlburd, of Seneca Falls, N. Y., was best man. The ring bearer, Miss Isabelle G. Weed, the bride's niece, carried the wedding rings in an American beauty rose. A buffet luncheon was served by the Sigma Eta Society of which the bride is a member. After a wedding journey Mr. and Mrs. Perry will reside at 132 State street, Harrisburg. Mr. Perry, who has made his home at 9 North Front street for a time, is a native of Shrewsbury, Mass., and holds a fine position with the Pennsylvania Steel Company.

Ladies' Aid Society Social at Coxestown

The Ladies' Aid Society of the Coxestown Methodist Episcopal Church held a very successful chicken corn dinner and supper at the hall Thursday noon and evening. A large attendance and a goodly sum of money as the result was their reward. The hall was tastefully decorated for the occasion with bunting, banners, Japanese lanterns, etc. A large banner with glaring letters "Welcome," outlined with stars, stretched across the front part of the building and a portrait of Lincoln was decorated with the national colors, streamers of red, white and blue lending an artistic finish to the whole. One and all were in good spirits and the day in every way was a very pleasant one to all concerned. In the evening the pastor, the Rev. A. Harris, called on all to join in the national anthem and then delivered a brief address, concluding with several mirth-provoking extemporaneous verses of poetry and also read a poem, entitled "An Ode to the Ladies' Aid."

Party Last Evening With Three Hostesses

Mrs. G. M. Hoffman, Mrs. Bonsall and Mrs. Santoe were joint hostesses last evening at an informal party given in Hazel Altoon's parlour of Philadelphia, who is spending part of her vacation here. The event was held at Mrs. Hoffman's home, 922 Green street, where decorations of autumn flowers and foliage adorned the rooms. Jonas Bless acted as manager of games and contests, with cards, music and dancing. A buffet supper was served to the following people: Miss Springfield, Miss Huber, Miss Beck, Miss Farmer, Miss Welsh, Miss Miller, Miss Lingle, Miss Kaufman, Miss Fry, Miss Justice, Miss Darling and Miss Morris. Messrs. Hunter, Conrad, Sible, Hipple, Corish, McGrath, Hoover, Wagner, Garland, Detweiler, Tait and Peters.

Mrs. Charles Lawrence Receives Wedding Gifts

Mrs. Harry Watson entertained last evening at her residence in South Fourth street, Steelton, in honor of Mrs. Charles Lawrence, a recent bride, who was formerly Miss Florence Miller of Nineteenth and Market streets. Games, music and a buffet supper were enjoyed by Mr. and Mrs. Harry Watson, Mr. and Mrs. C. R. Lawrence, Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Lawrence, Sr., Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Lawrence, Jr., of Harrisburg, Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Wells of Oberlin; Mrs. Thomas, the Misses Ruth and Marian Thomas, Miss Katharine Barnett, Miss Hilda Snyder, Miss Leonard Hocker, Miss Frances Hocker, Miss Anna Vogt, Miss Ellis Paxton, Harry Pink, Homer Grove, Miss Martha Stonesifer, Miss Mildred Miller.

MRS. ZONES' BIRTHDAY PARTY

A birthday surprise party was given in honor of Mrs. Emma Zones at her home, 1825 North Seventh street with the following guests in attendance: Mr. and Mrs. Lewis DeHart, Miss Bessie DeHart, John DeHart, Mrs. Hamilton, Miss Ella Long, Miss Anna Long, Miss Margaret DeHart, Mrs. Emma DeHart and B. F. Brady. Refreshments were enjoyed by the guests.

Miss Ida Notestine, of 1623 Chestnut street, leaves to-morrow for Lewistown to visit at the home of her uncle, Edward Notestine. Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Wallower, of 1741 North Sixth street, are visiting in New York and Washington for a week or so.

Mrs. John R. Rote, of 1705 North Second street, returned home last evening after a ten days' visit with her son, Stuart B. Rote, at Williamsburg, Pa.

Mrs. Henry C. Orth, of State street, is home after a short visit in Lebanon. Mr. and Mrs. Hiestor Byler and daughters, of Reading street, are home after a trip to Kings Creek and Urbana, Ohio.

Mr. and Mrs. Norman Walters have gone home to Jersey City after visiting their relatives, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Walters, of State street.

CARDS TODAY WITH MRS. HILL

Mrs. George Hill, of 71 North Seventeenth street, entertained at cards this afternoon at her residence in compliment to her house guests, Miss Goldthwaite and Miss Helen Hill, of Saco, Maine. A dozen guests enjoyed the games and supper following.
