FUNK TELLS REASONS WHY GIRLS TAKE WAY OF "THE OPEN DOOR"

Former White Slave Agent Blames Dance Hall, Obscene Literature and the Saloon

WHITE SLAVERY IS UNCOMMON

Declares Women Who Take the "Easiest Way" Do So With Their Eyes Open

"The Open Door" by J. Clarence Funk, attorney of this city, with offices in the Telegraph building, is the title of a remarkable treatise on the questions of "white slavery" and commercialized vice.

Mr. Funk's observations are based upon personal investigations made as a white slave agent of the United States Department of Justice in Harrisburg. The conclusions reached are the more valuable and forceful because they come not from a Prohibitionist or a professional reformer, but from a lawyer.

Mr. Funk declares that most girls are not forced into a life of shame as is commonly supposed but that most women enter disorderly houses of their own volition because it is the "easiest way." He states that "white slavery" even in the large cities is comparatively rare.

Among other influences which Mr. Funk declares leads women through the "open door" are:

- 1.—The public dance hall. 2.—Obscene literature. 3.—Cigaret smoking on part of women. 4.—The saloon. 5.—Liquor.

Results of Preventive Methods

Mr. Funk says that no really suitable plan has been worked out despite the efforts of vice commissions to prevent prostitution. He points out that "quarantine" only spreads the plague to respectable neighborhoods, that segregation—vice centralized—means

Worst in History

The traffic congestion that followed the collision in the subway was the worst in the history of the city. At several stations more than 5,000 persons crowded on the platform and those nearest the rails were forced on their feet and in some cases walked along the tracks between stations in perilous proximity to the deadly third rail. Surface cars were crowded, milk wagons, trucks and delivery cars of all descriptions were hired by the thousands to get downtown and a steady stream of these vehicles, laden to overflowing with men and women rolled south through the chief thoroughfares during the early forenoon.

Six persons were the victims of a collision between surface cars in the center of the One Hundred and Forty-fifth street bridge over the Harlem river. One car that had been struck, deserted by crew and passengers, and not held by its brake, shot down the incline of the bridge and crashed into another trolley car at the end of the bridge.

Eight more persons were taken to hospitals as the result of this accident. The day's chapter of transportation mishaps also included the elevated service. The last car of a Second street train caught fire. There was a panic among the passengers, three women were injured and traffic was blocked for nearly an hour.

Lutheran Synod Learns $31,000 a Month Is Needed or Foreign Work Must Cease

Rev. Stanley Billheimer, Norwood Man, Who Will Address Synod To-night.

The feat of riding two horses in this campaign is becoming more and more difficult for the Democratic candidate for Governor. It was bad enough to place him on a Washington party ticket—a party which is strong for a protective tariff while he is for Wilson and free trade—but it is even worse when he strives to represent himself as the only temperance man in the State when representatives of his personal machine are appealing to hotelkeepers and others to contribute to the campaign fund. This, however, is only a small part of the rank inconsistency that has characterized the Palmer-McCormick movement.

Perhaps nothing has caused such a sensation as the printing in the Telegraph yesterday of a fac simile reproduction of a letter sent from the State Democratic finance committee to a hotelman of this city appealing for cash to help elect McCormick.

The letter was signed by T. Kittera Van Dyke, who explains that he was recently chosen by State Chairman Morris to help collect money. He explains in the letter that he "is not stuck on the job," manifestly realizing that it is not an easy task to collect money for a multi-millionaire candidate who confesses to having spent

Pretty Girl Shot to Death During Quarrel in Her Country Home

Doylstown, Pa., Sept. 29.—Florence Cope, 18 years old, a pretty girl of Buckingham Valley, near here, was killed by her uncle, John Cope, at her home last night while she was trying to save her mother from being shot by the uncle. Cope, who wore neither hat nor shoes when the killing occurred, escaped to the woods and a large party was out to-day searching for him. The girl's father, Clinton Cope, a farmer, was cutting corn by moonlight while the tragedy was being enacted in the house nearby.

The uncle had been visiting at his brother's home and last night he and the girl's mother quarreled over his alleged drinking habits. The girl had gone to bed and when she heard the quarrel she rushed down stairs in her night clothes and stepped between her mother and the uncle, who had a shotgun in his hands. Whether the girl was deliberately shot by the uncle or received her death wound accidentally has not been determined. She died two hours afterward.

Battle of the Aisne Rages Without Result; All Attacks Repulsed

Germans Hurling Their Masses Against Allies Often, but Each Time They Were Forced to Retire; Heavy Cannonading Continues Between Argonne Forest and River Meuse; Germans Prepare For Siege of Antwerp; Galicia Cleared of Austrians

London, Sept. 29, 4:07 P. M.—The official news bureau announced to-day that the cruiser Emden has sunk four British steamships and a collier. The Emden has been operating in the gulf of Bengal. She was reported recently at Madras, where she continued a brief bombardment of that port and later at Pondicherry.

Wei Hsien, China, Sept. 29.—Chinese troops to-day blew up and destroyed the railroad bridge at Tayu-Ho, six miles west of here. The sound of the explosion could be heard in this city.

The terrific battle now in its eighteenth day in the Aisne district to the north of Paris continues to rage but its violence is generally held to portend a decisive result in the near future. Furious hand to hand fighting is going on and the losses to both the allied and German armies are enormous.

Several times the Germans hurled their masses of troops against the French left wing but in every case they were repulsed, according to official statement issued by the French War Department this afternoon. It is asserted a heavy cannonading is going on between the Argonne forest and the river Meuse the allies have made some progress.

The German general staff, Berlin advises say, claims that the situation on French soil has not changed and it is emphatically denied that the battle at any point of the line is going in favor of the allies.

Galicia has been almost cleared of Austrians according to announcement at Petrograd and the Russians, crossing the Carpathian mountains have entered Hungary and are driving back the Austrian reinforcements sent against them. The invaders swept across the mountains into the Ung and Var district which is about 180 miles northeast of Budapest, the Hungarian capital.

RUSSIA BUYS 100,000 BARRELS IN PITTSBURGH

Sharon, Pa., Sept. 29.—The Russian government, through its American representative, has closed a contract with the Pressed Steel Car Company, a subsidiary of the Petroleum Iron Works Company, of this city, for 100,000 steel barrels. These barrels are somewhat similar in construction to the steel barrels used by crude oil companies in this country and it is understood that the Russian government will make use of them in their petroleum trade. Germany used to make all these barrels.
