EVA TANGUAY IN NEW FARCE COMEDY

"Miss Tobasco," a Light Plot Built Around Tanguay's Capabilities; Good Dancing

Before a moderately sized house, Eva Tanguay last night presented her new farce comedy, with songs, "Miss Tobasco." But the show, when all was said and done, was only Eva Tanguay in another form—a little different from the twenty-minute vaudeville language of a few years ago. Regardless of what talent Eva Tanguay might possess, there is one thing which must be said for her; she can do most personal advertising from back of the footlights, and "get away with it," that any other actress of the present-day stage.

(and some old ones), rush madly from wing to wing, and laugh. Care-free, happy, laughing Tanguay. But even stage happiness, too much of it; palls. The dancing of John Ford gave the audience more real pleasure than did anyone else in the cast. Two opportunities were afforded him and in both instances he acquitted himself more than creditably. The remainder of the cast supported the plot in an able manner.

MAX ROBERTSON.
MAJESTIC
This evening and to-morrow afternoon and evening—"The Movie Girl," Thursday, with special matinee, at 3 o'clock—To-day.
Friday afternoon and evening—Fay Foster (Burlesque).
Saturday, afternoon and evening—"My Best Girl."
Monday, matinee and night, October 12—"Everywoman."
Tuesday and Wednesday and Wednesday matinee, October 13 and 14—"The Traffic."
ORPHEUM
Every afternoon and evening—High-Class Vaudeville.
COLONIAL
"THE MOVIE GIRL"
"The Movie Girl," which plays the Majestic this evening and to-morrow, day, the way that fashionable women fall to ruin by trying to keep up appearances—this is the theme of the sensational drama, "To-day," by George Broadhurst and Abraham Schomer, which will appear here at the Majestic Theater, Thursday afternoon and night. The matinee will be given at 3 o'clock. The husband in this play has worked himself up to affluence, from poverty, in five years, but his money all goes to the adornment and gratification of his spoiled wife. Then comes the crash. He falls and everything goes by the board. They must start again at the bottom rung of the ladder. The wife can't get used to plain clothes, and hence the temptation that serves as a basis of the play.—Advertisement.

"MY BEST GIRL"
Victor Morley, who is featured in the Channing Pollock-Renold Wolf-Clifton Crawford musical comedy, "My Best Girl," which comes to the Majestic Saturday afternoon and evening, has enjoyed the plaudits of American audiences in many of the greatest musical productions seen in Broadway at the present time. The chief funmaker is Billy Carlton, a German comedian, who takes advantage of every opportunity the author has given him to secure laughs.—Advertisement.

COLONIAL
"East Lynne," one of the most popular and most beautiful romances ever written, is being presented at the Colonial Theater for the first half of the week. Moving pictures, the production being one of the finest productions of the Busy Corner have seen. The fact that this romance has received so many inferior presentations, recently, is all the more reason why lovers of the book should see the exquisite production it is given in the feature film that the Colonial is presenting. The vaudeville bill throughout is clever and diverting.—Advertisement.

"AMERICA" AT THE PALACE
The great Hippodrome spectacle of the year 1912-13, shown only in New York as a stage production, will be seen here on Wednesday and Thursday complete on motion pictures. That such a performance can be staged as a picture is in itself stupendous, and that all of the scenes may be reproduced gives to those not fortunate enough to see the play in the original a chance to see the scenic production, which is the only one of its kind on the stage. "America" is well-known for several of its big features; the opening festivities of the Panama Canal and the passing through of the first ship, The Woodchopper's contest, too, is of great interest for its novelty. The daring automobile plunge over a cliff into a stream of water supplies the element of thrill, as does also the tenement fire on the East Side of New York. The close of the film will be as the original production and will be the Court of Honor, which brings into play the famous Hippodrome tank "America" comes to this theater for two days, Wednesday and Thursday.—Advertisement.

AT THE PHOTOPLAY
The great fire production which has been secured for showing to-day, "When London Burned," is one well worth seeing. "Marah, the Pythoness," a two-act feature, and "Toys of Fate," Lubin two-act drama, complete a splendid program.—Advertisement.
