Keep this perfect stomach doctor in your home—keep it handy—get a large fifty-cent case from any drug store, and then if anyone should eat something which doesn't agree with them; if what they eat lays like lead, ferments and sours and forms gas; causes headache, dizziness and nausea; eruptions of acid and undigested food—remember as soon as Pape's Diapepsin comes in contact with the stomach, all such distress vanishes. Its promptness, certainty and ease in overcoming the worst stomach disorders is a revelation to those who try it.—Advertisement.

Character Assassins

In Chambersburg last night the big educator spoke to a crowd of 1,500 people, whose enthusiasm made the Democratic meetings appear like wakes.

The meeting in the Franklin place closed the day and was marked by a very snappy address by Dr. Brumbaugh. He sharply replied to "character assassins and robbers of good men's names" who have attacked his primary platform as a meaningless thing not to be credited by the voters of the State. His platform, he said, was written by his own hand, undictated, unseen and unknown by anybody but himself.

"What is in that platform I stand for to-night just as I stood for it in the May primaries." He also denounced "the foolish and fatuous policies" of the Democratic administration in Washington, which, he declared, was causing suffering among the workers of America which could not be cured until a Republican government was put in power.

Dr. Brumbaugh's trip took him through the beautiful Cumberland Valley, into Cumberland, Fulton and Franklin counties, where his friends are legion and his relations are many. Everywhere he went his reception was a friendly one, most of those shaking his hand being familiar enough to call him by his first name, and his visit, according to the county chairman, brought many back to the Republican ranks and not a few Democrats will also vote for him.

Mr. Stewart Presides

After speaking to the poor directors at Carlisle Dr. Brumbaugh was introduced to the students of the Cumberland Valley Normal School by the president of the institution, George H. Stewart, who later performed a like service at a meeting of the citizens of Shippensburg. Mr. Stewart, who one of the largest land owners in this section, has been an ardent admirer and supporter of Colonel Roosevelt. In the past Colonel Stewart, who is a

WHARTON EXTENSION SCHOOL OPENS

University of Pennsylvania has made the State and was an important factor in the founding of the United States. He said it is older than either, that ten sons of the university signed the first Pennsylvania articles and seven others affixed their signatures to the Constitution of the United States.

Five Girls Enroll

The total enrollment for the school has increased to 190, of which five are young women. The class sessions will begin Monday night at 7.45 o'clock. There will be a fifteen-minute recess at 8.45 and school will dismiss at 10 o'clock. The registration headquarters in the Chamber of Commerce will be open daily until 9 o'clock in the evening and Monday until 7.45 o'clock.

Many out-of-town students will attend the school and many requests for information have been received from nearby towns and cities. In intimate touch with conditions, has been manifest on all sides and the school is sure of success.

This association was formed just before the session of 1913 and worked out a number of bills and it is the idea to have it meet and discuss suggestions for agricultural advancement and to put the meritorious ones into shape as bills. Numerous suggestions will probably be made.

Among the measures which may be discussed will be appropriations for State College, increase of the farm ad-

Lykens Pastor Given Royal Reception on Return Home

Special to The Telegraph

Lykens, Pa., Oct. 7.—What was probably the greatest reception given to any pastor in the history of Lykens was accorded the Rev. and Mrs. H. S. Kiefer, who returned from the United Brethren conference at Philadelphia this week to their fifth year's service of the Lykens pastorate. Mrs. Kiefer had gone to Halifax, Pa., and accompanied the Rev. Mr. Kiefer to Lykens. As they alighted from the train they found an automobile in waiting and almost the entire congregation and Sunday school, headed by the Sunday school band, of his church. George Parfet, of the United Brethren men's organization, gave the welcome and in the parade, which marched on Main street to Pine, north on Pine to North Second street, and then to the lawn of the parsonage. The reception address was delivered by W. R. Zimmerman, of Lykens. Prayer by William Harmon was followed by a hymn by the congregation and Sunday school. The pastor then delivered a feeling response.

HE WAS HAWKING AND SPITTING HIS LIFE AWAY

Strange Case and Remarkable Cure of John T. Strumpf

Nothing is so disagreeable and annoying and dangerous as a constant hawking and spitting caused by catarrh. No person was in a condition to certify this fact more forcibly than Mr. John T. Strumpf, of Mechanicsburg. He is now 57 years old and for the past six years he suffered from a bad case of catarrh. When he awoke in the morning he would spit up chunks of offensive matter. His ears would roar and buzz and he had a constant headache above his eyes. His stomach was also afflicted and his breath was very offensive. He had used atomizers, vaporizers, douches, powders, salves and ointments, but from all he received no benefit. He finally resolved to try Quaker Extract and Oil of Balm. What was the result? After using three bottles of each he is cured, and if you do not believe it, ask him.

The wonderful Quaker Remedies are on sale at W. H. Kennedy's, 30 South Third street.—Advertisement.
