

SCALES COVERED TOP OF BABY'S HEAD

Turned to Crust. Spread to Back. Hair Fell Out. Itched and Burned. Fretful and Cross. Cuticura Soap and Ointment Healed.

Vernon, Pa.—"When my baby was about two months old the top of his head was covered with brown scales which turned into thick crusty scabs and began to spread to the back of his head. His hair fell out and he was very fretful and cross. He was so bad that he could not sleep and the sore began to spread. We tried several remedies but could not cure him. Finally a friend told us about Cuticura Soap and Ointment and I immediately sent for a sample. They healed him so much that I bought the full-sized Cuticura Soap and Ointment. After using them according to directions his head was healed completely in two weeks. His hair is coming in real thick now." (Signed) Mrs. Emily Wright, Jan. 28, 1914.

The minister in charge, the Rev. William E. Cooke, returned last month from a journey which completed the circuit of the globe. For over three years he was the minister of the First Presbyterian Church in Manila, Philippine Islands, and so had many favorable opportunities to observe conditions in the far East. He will on the way back see the western United States and on the way home he visited India, Egypt, Palestine, and Europe. The service to-morrow night at 8 o'clock will be devoted to the subject, "The Great West" next Sunday night, "Hawaii and Japan."

"BLOOD WILL TELL" The Heroes of the War

"Blood will tell," is an axiom that in all the ages has never been gained. Every man who does a brave, heroic act carries within his veins quality of blood that urges and sustains him. No matter whether he inherits it from a long line of famous ancestors or from the sound and healthy constitution of his immediate parents, whose only distinction is honorable toil and a simple, virtuous life. It matters little where or how you obtain it, but it matters all the world that by some means you possess good blood. Good blood is first, last and always the making of many men and womanly women. It is the source of all courage, virtue and happiness. A new man can be made out of one that's "used-up," bilious and dyspeptic. It's done by Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. It starts the torpid liver into healthful action, purifies and enriches the blood, cleanses, repairs, and strengthens the system, and restores health and vigor. As an appetizing, restorative tonic it sets at work all the processes of digestion and nutrition, and builds up flesh and strength. It's the only Blood and Liver Remedy that's guaranteed, in every case, to benefit or cure. If it doesn't do all that's claimed for it, the money is promptly refunded. But it keeps its promises—that's the reason it can be sold in this way.

It is not a secret remedy for its ingredients are printed on wrapper. You only pay for the good you get. "Discovery" strengthens the lungs, relieves Shortness of Breath, Bronchitis, Severe Coughs, and kindred affections. FREE. Dr. Pierce's Common Sense Medical Adviser, bound in cloth, is sent free on receipt of 31 one-cent stamps to pay expense of wrapping and mailing only. Address: Doctor Pierce, Invalids' Hotel, Buffalo, N. Y.

DEFENDERS HELD ON LONG ENOUGH TO GET AWAY WITH SUPPLIES

At midday of Friday the advance force of the Germans entered Antwerp and the full surrender of the city evidently occurred at 2.30 o'clock in the afternoon. Beaten back from their last defenses, the Belgians blew up their heavy batteries and withdrew to rejoin their comrades who previously had evacuated their positions.

The forts around Contich, six miles southeast of Antwerp, are said to be still intact and the duel between them and the German artillery is reported as still proceeding this Saturday morning. The outcome cannot be in doubt, it having been conclusively proved in the past two months that permanent forts in an exposed situation stand no chance against modern siege howitzers.

Cathedral Damaged. The real extent of the destruction within the walls of Antwerp will be slow in reaching the outside world from unpartisan sources, for the reason that communication with the city is either cut or entirely in the hands of military authorities. From The Hague it is asserted that the cathedral of Notre Dame has not been damaged. The museums and other public buildings also may have escaped. It is to be noted that the reports of destruction have almost invariably been obtained from excited refugees and telegraphed from points more or less distant from Antwerp.

The strategic importance of Antwerp to the Germans arose largely from the fact of its menace to their lines of communication. With the Belgian army withdrawn to a position half-way between Antwerp and Ostend, the pressure on these lines will be removed, at least temporarily. But at the same time there would appear to be little obstacle to the Belgians effecting a junction with the allies working to the northward in West Flanders.

It is assumed in London that if Germany considers it convenient to her plan of campaign she will not hesitate to utilize the neutral waters of the Scheldt, but, except as an air-base, and possibly a submarine base, it is contended that she can derive no advantage from this waterway.

Antwerp Has Suffered. Of one thing there is no doubt—Antwerp has suffered terribly from the bombardment, and the losses among the civilian population have been heavy. The city was crowded not only with its normal population of over 200,000 persons, but with other thousands who had sought refuge there on account of the German invasion. All stories coincide in relating the terrible suffering and mental torture of their unfortunates during the siege, except as an air-base, and possibly a submarine base, it is contended that she can derive no advantage from this waterway.

Battle Line of Allies Is Maintained Despite Violence of Attacks

Paris, Oct. 10, 3.11 P. M.—The following official announcement was given out in Paris this afternoon: "The fighting continues under satisfactory conditions. Our entire battle front has been maintained in spite of violent attacks of the enemy at several points. "On our left wing in the region, included between Labasse, Armentieres and Cassel, the fighting between the opposing forces of cavalry has been confused. To the north of the Oise our troops have attained real advantages at several places in their zone of action. In the region of St. Mihiel we have made material progress. "As to Belgium it is announced that Antwerp was taken yesterday. The conditions under which this place was occupied by the enemy are, however, not yet known. "In Russia very spirited fighting continues on the frontier of East Prussia, where Russian troops have had partial successes. They have occupied the town of Lyck (in East Prussia). Shupp, Jr., who was elected vice-president of the State Firemen's Association, and other local firemen welcomed them.

RAILROAD NEWS

SNAPPER CREWS TO HELP ON LOW GRADE. Will Take Charge of the Heavy Trains Sent East From the Enola Yards. Four snapper crews had been added to the Pennsylvania Railroad low grade forces. These crews will be stationed at Columbia and will assist in handling heavy trains to and from Morrisville and Greenwich.

Members of the "snapper" crews will reside in Columbia and will mean the return of a number of Columbia trainmen to their former homes. It is expected the number of "snapper" crews will be increased on November 1.

Heretofore the Pennsylvania Railroad classified low grade trains at Enola and only sixty-nine cars were hauled from Enola to Thorndale, where a "snapper" crew was attached to take the train to its destination. By the new arrangement the company will classify its trains in the Altoona yard, after which trains of 100 cars will be brought to Enola, where crews will be changed. The train will then be brought to Columbia, where a "snapper" crew will be attached and the train of 100 cars will be hauled to take the train to its destination.
