HIGH SCHOOL PUPILS THROWN INTO UPROAR

Hold Indignation Parade on Action of the Waynesboro School Board

Special to The Telegraph
Waynesboro, Pa., Oct. 16.—Professor J. C. McCullough, principal of the Waynesboro High School, threw the entire army of pupils into an uproar yesterday evening at the closing of school, when he announced that the board of directors had countermanded the order to suspend school to-day in order to allow the pupils to attend the Hagerstown fair. The reason for the action of the board is stated to be a complaint on the part of patrons at the interruption of school and the bad weather conditions promised for to-day.

To say that the hopes and spirits of the student mind were laid under a heavy cloud of disappointment very feebly expressed the situation. The boy pupils of the schools held an indignation parade last night and carried signs bearing the words: "We are going to the Fair" and many of those in the parade did. There was a big drop in attendance to-day.

It has been the custom for several years for the Hagerstown school to close on Friday during the Hagerstown fair each year, and the pupils were allowed to enjoy an outing in the Maryland City, or spend the day as they liked.

The early part of this week it was announced that the pupils would get a holiday to-day and could go to the fair. Just before closing school yesterday Professor McCullough told the pupils that the members of the school board had changed their minds in the matter and that they could not have the holiday in order to attend the fair. There were about 250 children in the parade.

Commission of Soldier of Pennsylvania Militia Found at McVeytown

Special to The Telegraph
Lewistown, Pa., Oct. 16.—There has been resurrected from the dusty archives of a servant at McVeytown, the commission of William Bratton, of Bratton township, Mifflin county, as "Lieutenant-Colonel of the Seventy-fourth Regiment of Militia of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, in the First Brigade of the Tenth Division, composed of the Militia of Mifflin, Huntingdon and Centre counties, to have and to hold this commission for the term of seven years from date hereof, if you shall so long behave yourself." The paper is dated at Lancaster, on the second day of August, 1800. Lancaster at that time was the capital of the State. It bore the seal of State and the signature of Thomas McKean, Governor, in a clear and legible handwriting. William Bratton, who received the commission, was a son of Andrew Bratton, who settled in Bratton township in 1775, and built a log house on the farm owned of late years by Joseph W. Kyle. Rain Causes Big Financial Loss at Hagerstown Fair

Special to The Telegraph
Hagerstown, Md., Oct. 16.—Rain falling yesterday and Wednesday, the two biggest days of the Hagerstown fair, will mean a financial loss to the association, which is now heavily in debt owing to the costly improvements made at the fair grounds during the past summer, including the construction of a large concrete subway and a new pavilion at an expense of about $15,000. The receipts of the fair fell off over $5,000 on Wednesday and nearly that amount yesterday, yet the attendance for the latter day was much larger than was expected owing to the dismal weather.

In order to recoup the finances the directors of the fair association held a meeting yesterday afternoon and decided to continue to fair another day, to include Saturday and Sunday night.

In a racing at the fair was pulled off in a sea of mud, only running races being scheduled, or attempted, owing to the condition of the track. Three horses fell and another runner had a leg broken.

THINK HARD It Pays to Think About Food

The unthinking life some people lead often causes trouble and sickness, illustrated in the experience of this lady.

"About four years ago I suffered dreadfully from indigestion always having eaten whatever I liked, not thinking of the digestible qualities. This indigestion caused palpitation of the heart so badly I could scarcely walk up a flight of stairs without stopping to regain breath and strength.

"I became alarmed and tried dieting, wore my clothes very loose, and used other remedies, but found no relief.

"Hearing of the virtues of Grape-Nuts and Postum, I commenced using them in place of my usual breakfast of coffee, cakes or hot biscuit, and in one week's time I was relieved of sour stomach and other ills attending indigestion. In a month's time my heart was performing its functions naturally and I could climb stairs and hills and walk long distances.

"I gained ten pounds in this short time, and my skin became clear and completely regained my health and strength. I continue to use Grape-Nuts and Postum for I feel that I owe my good health entirely to their use.

"I like the delicious flavor of Grape-Nuts and Postum according to directions, it tastes similar to mild high grade coffee." Name given by Postum Co., Battle Creek, Mich.

The most perfect food in the world. Trial of Grape-Nuts and cream 10 days proves a Reason.

HONEYMOON EXPRESS

Pennsylvania Young Folks Travel to Hagerstown For Wedding Ceremonies and Fair

Special to The Telegraph
Hagerstown, Md., Oct. 16.—The little god of love laughed at the weather that caused the hearts of the managers of the Hagerstown fair to nearly break and sent his victims here yesterday by the score from many sections of Pennsylvania and other adjoining states to the altar and happiness. The "honeymoon express" on the Cumberland Valley railroad dining couples since the fair began and two clerks in the office of Clerk of the Court Edward Oswald were kept busy issuing licenses during the run. At times there were three and four couples waiting in the office to make application for licenses. From forty to sixty licenses are usually issued on Thursday of the fair, and yesterday's record was almost up to the average despite the inclement weather.

The Rev. Dr. J. L. Grimm, of Waynesboro, performed his first ceremony in a courthouse here when he united in marriage Miss Edna F. Lohman, of Rouserville, Pa., and William F. Poper, of Waynesboro, son of Charles Poper. The groom, who is 16, had the consent of his parents to marry, the bride being 20. The Rev. Dr. Grimm accompanied the bride and groom to Hagerstown and tied the knot in a room adjoining the clerk's office in the presence of Mr. and Mrs. Poper.

Miss Edith Hornbaker, of Harrisburg, and Chalmers S. Gordon, of Greencastle, were married at the parsonage of the First Baptist Church by the Rev. K. Thomas. The marriage record shows that the bride and groom had both been divorced, the latter recently being separated from his second wife by a decree from the court here. The bride was recently divorced in Harrisburg.

The following Pennsylvania couples were married by the Rev. Mr. Thomas, who has earned the title of "marrying parson" by reason of the number of weddings he gets: Miss Margie E. Kimmel, of York, and William H. Pomeroy, of Dillenburg; Miss Olive Hollinger and Park M. Prosser, both of Dillenburg; Miss Florence A. Minnich and Winfred A. Barnhart, both of Welsh Run; Miss Carrie E. Spidell and Bernard J. Miller, both of Mechanicsburg; Miss Martha Gift and Royce Shupp, both of Waynesboro; Miss Florence Duff and Wilmer Earl Coy, both of Dillenburg; Miss Lydia R. Schaeffer, of Shippensburg, and Leonard J. Myers, of Steelton; Miss Clara Ott and Charles E. Lynch, of Shippensburg.

Miss Mary C. Stover, of Waynesboro, and Leonard H. Dettow, of this city, were married at the parsonage of St. John's Lutheran Church by the Rev. Dr. N. Owen. The bride is prominent in social and musical circles in Waynesboro.

Other couples from the Keystone State who were married here and attended the fair were:

Miss Kathryn D. Foreman, of Millnor, and Jacob S. Bittner, of Greencastle; Miss Marie L. Burrell and Denton W. Cross, both of York; Miss Elsie Russell and Blaine Stine, both of Cleversville; Miss Minnie Dunbar, of Bloersville, and Norris Loy, Newville; Miss Laura G. Bear, of Kearsyville, and John Miller, of Waynesboro; Miss Mary E. Fickel, of York Springs, and Charles E. Kime, of Goodyear; Miss Pauline M. Shammoo and Isaac M. Cline, of Harrisburg; Miss Carrie Kassen and Victor J. Shoop, both of Harrisburg.
