

ONLY QUESTION OF MAJORITY FOR WHOLE REPUBLICAN TICKET

No Doubt of Result, Says Writer After a Tour of the State

DRAGGING IN NAME OF T. R.

Last Desperate Effort of Fusionists Is Doomed to Failure

Special to The Telegraph Wilkes-Barre, Oct. 20.—After a thorough canvass of a large part of the State and talking with men of all parties I am persuaded that the campaign from now to the end simply means an increase of the majority for the Republican ticket. There can be no doubt about the result after an investigation of the conditions in all sections of Pennsylvania.

American Shoes March Forward

When it was reported that one of the European armies was equipped with American shoes, it was remarked that "these shoes would only march forward."

In an industrial sense American shoes are going ahead this fall to a greater extent than ever.

Demand is heavy and factories busy. Just now the stores are showing the Fall styles—all of them creditable to our American shoe makers.

But for your individual need some shoes are better than others.

It would be well to post yourself as to the merits of the different brands and the stores selling them, by reading the advertising in the Telegraph.

Rev. J. T. Spangler Tells of Effects in Other Cities as Found by Personal Investigation

About two carloads of sawdust will be used next week when the "sawdust trail" is laid in the Stough tabernacle, which is now well on the way to completion.

W. S. Roebuck, chairman of the building committee, said to-day that the big building will probably be entirely completed by the early part of next week. The sawdust will be put down after all the other work is finished. It will cover the entire floor space, 240 by 172 feet, and will be six inches deep.

More than 230,000 feet of lumber is being used in the erection of the tabernacle and about a ton of nails and a ton of bolts have been used already. By this evening the roof will be finished and the waterproofing completed. To-morrow work will be started on the sides.

Executive Committee Meets Last night a meeting of the entertainment committee was held at the Stough headquarters and to-night a meeting of the executive committee will be held there. To-morrow night the shop and factory committee will

PLANS FOR RESERVOIR PARK ENTRANCE ARE APPROVED BY EXPERT

Bids For Construction Will Be Asked; Manning Inspects Extension

Bids for the construction of the proposed new formal entrance to Reservoir Park at Market and Twenty-first streets will likely be advertised for by City Commissioner M. Harvey Taylor, superintendent of parks, before the end of this week and opened ten days later.

Not only is it the park officials' intention to begin the work on the new roadway this fall, but it is expected to complete the work before the cold weather sets in. The plans as prepared by Assistant Superintendent J. R. Hofert were approved to-day by Park Expert Warren H. Manning following a visit to the site.

The Parkway Extension

In addition to approving the new Reservoir entrance Mr. Manning and the park officials visited the proposed extension of the parkway along the river front south of the Iron alloy terminus in such a way as to join the Cameron parkway. Engineers of the State Water Supply Commission and

COUNTRY DISTRICTS STRONGLY IN FAVOR OF REPUBLICANS

Majorities For Ticket Are Predicted by Workers Reporting to County Chairman

Districts in the eastern part of Dauphin county that were strongly Progressive two years ago will give handsome majorities for the Republican ticket this fall.

This was made evident last evening at Republican rallies in the lower end of the county, where Republican committeemen from the surrounding county reported to County Chairman Horner.

That district is feeling very keenly the hard times due to the Democratic mistakes at Washington, and the voters are demanding a change. For instance, the quarries at Hockerville are almost at a standstill, due to the business depression throughout the land, and many men are out of work or employed only part of the time. Whereas, under the Taft Administration the quarries there turned out and shipped daily twenty-six cars of lime a week, now only ten cars are being shipped. Under Republican rule eighteen cars of crushed stone a day

COUNCIL APPOINTS SEYMOUR POLICEMAN AND DROPS MURPHY

Retention of Dismissed Officer Prejudicial to Discipline, Say Commissioners

Council this afternoon settled another grave police problem—the question of the appointment of a policeman—by naming George W. Seymour, 1070 South Cameron street, to succeed Andrew E. Murphy, resigned. Jacob Kinley had been suggested by Mayor John K. Royal as Murphy's successor when he recommended the latter's dismissal because of insubordination, failure to report, etc. In substituting Seymour's name Commissioner M. Harvey Taylor pointed out that in view of the fact that the relations between Murphy and the head of the police department had become so

Harrisburg Folks Take Look at the Comet's 10-Million-Mile Tail

About 150 persons gathered in the park at Front and Foster streets at 6:30 last evening and with opera glasses, field glasses, binoculars and a three-inch telescope viewed the Delauna comet. It was visible to the unaided eye, though no longer so bright as it was two weeks or more ago, when nearest the earth.

The head of the comet is now about 250,000 miles in diameter. Thirty globes as big as the earth, placed side by side like beads on a string, would fall just a little short of spanning the width of the comet's head. The tail, which extended northward several degrees, is about 10,000,000 miles long.

SAYS STELTON IS "CLEANEST" TOWN HE'S EVER SEEN

Lew Dockstader Wants to Know Why Mill Town's Smokestacks Aren't Puffing as of Yore

Lew Dockstader, the black face minstrel man, who has been coming to Harrisburg off and on for the last twenty years, says Steilton is the "cleanest" town he ever saw. "Steilton is the cleanest town I ever saw," declared Lew this morning. "Why there isn't a bit of smoke contaminating the atmosphere. And I didn't see a dirty man about one of the mills as I came through on the train. Fact is, I didn't see anybody, clean or dirty. What's the matter with that burg anyway? Why, I remember the time when the smoke was coming out of those chimneys so fast that the sky over Steilton put the blackest face I could make up to shame."

It was explained to Mr. Dockstader that the Democratic tariff and the war has played havoc with the business of the lower end mill town. "If something isn't done pretty soon to make business better in this country, I'm going out of the show business and rent a peanut stand," said Lew. Dockstader is at the Orpheum this week.

JUDICIAL RECALL IS BURDEN TO FATHERS OF IT, SAYS TAFT

Rock on Which It Was Founded Becomes Rock on Which It Founders

Washington, Oct. 20.—The United States should draw from the European war a lesson regarding its own conduct, said ex-President William H. Taft in an address here to-day before the American Bar Association. In discussing the charges of violation of treaties by European nations, Mr. Taft said that this country should put itself in such a position that it could fulfill to the letter the obligations imposed by its treaties, and he recommended legislation to that end. In his address, delivered as president of the American Bar Association, Mr. Taft also said that the Progressive party was departing from "the preposterous nostrum" of the recall of judicial decisions because it apparently had become a burden to the party.

In speaking of the European war, Mr. Taft said that President Wilson should have the warmest approval and sincerest co-operation in his efforts to maintain the strict neutrality of this country.

HUNTINGDON COUNTY WILL GIVE KUNKEL IMMENSE MAJORITY

Well-known Citizens Declare in Favor of Dauphin County Nominee

Special to The Telegraph Huntingdon, Pa., Oct. 20.—Huntingdon county will give Judge George Kunkel a handsome majority for State Supreme Court Judge. The sentiment is strongly in his favor. Many prominent men are out openly in his behalf. Thomas F. Bailey, a well-known member of the Huntingdon county bar and a director of the First National Bank of Huntingdon, says: "Judge Kunkel has always stood very high in the opinion of the bar of Pennsylvania. The judgment of the people both in him and in the courts was put in severe test at the time of the trial of the Capitol graft cases, where it was thought by many lawyers that the courts would show subservience to political influence. Judge Kunkel's reputation came through that ordeal unscathed and was brighter at the end of the trial than at the beginning."

DEAN LEWIS' NAME WILL BE ON BALLOT FOR NOVEMBER 3

Dean Withdrew as Washington Party Man, but Forgot He Was on Another Ticket

The name of William Draper Lewis will go on the official ballot as a candidate for Governor at the November election. This was discovered to-day when the official certification of names for the ballot was made at the State Department at the Capitol, and is because the dean forgot to withdraw as a candidate of the Roosevelt Progressive party when he withdrew as candidate of the Washington party. Judges from the primary election returns the Roosevelt Progressive party does not mean much numerically, but the fact that the name of Lewis will appear on the ballot when there was loud objection among Washington

Germans' Plan to Find New Route to Paris Is Frustrated by Allies

British Naval Forces Are Supporting Left Wing of Army Which Extends to English Channel; Japan Occupies More German Islands For Military Purposes; Huge Conflict in Progress Along Vistula River

That the allies are frustrating the attempt of the reinforced extreme right wing of the German army to skirt the English Channel ports with the supposed object of finding a new route to Paris, is indicated by the French official statement given out this afternoon which asserts that the Belgian army is maintaining its position on the river Yres.

Further actions, the statement adds, are being fought between the allies and the Germans in the region Yres, Belgium. From Yres the allied left wing extends to the English channel where it is being supported by British naval forces.

Along the remainder of the 360-mile battle front stretching from the North Sea to Switzerland, where the defenders and the invaders have been deeply entrenched for thirty-seven days, the only activity noted is that in the region of the Meuse river where heavy fighting goes on incessantly principally in the vicinity of Camp Des Romains.

French batteries at St. Mihiel, south of Verdun, are reported to have destroyed an entire battery of German artillery which had been particularly active in sweeping the French positions.

There is a dearth of news from German sources concerning the operations of Emperor William's forces either in France or in Russia.

A huge conflict is in progress along the Vistula river, in Russian Poland. Dispatches from Petrograd declare that after fierce fighting to the west of Warsaw the Germans have been driven back towards their main positions on a line from Skiernewice, near Lodz, to Sandomir, on the Galician border.

GERMAN ISLANDS OCCUPIED

Russian official reports say that large forces of Austrians crossed the river San have been repulsed.

In the Pacific ocean Japan has occupied "for military purposes" the German islands in the Archipelagos of Marshall, Marianne and Caroline. The groups lie from 1,000 to 1,700 miles east of the Philippines, and include the American island of Guam. The occupation of Yap, one of the Caroline islands, gives Japan control for the German cable station which connects China with the Malay Archipelago.

Tokio officially announces that the German torpedo boat S-90, after escaping under cover of darkness from Tsing Tau, ran ashore at a point south of Kiao Chow bay and was destroyed by the Japanese blockading squadron. It was the S-90, according to a message from Tsing Tau, which sunk the Japanese cruiser Takachiho.

Advices from Bucharest, Rumania, by way of Berlin, reiterate earlier reports that a big Russo-Turkish naval engagement has been fought in the Black Sea.

James W. Gerard, the American ambassador at Berlin has succeeded in arranging for the release and departure of all Englishmen in Germany over 55 years of age. Similar exchanges have been arranged for the nationals of France and Austria.

King George and Queen Mary returned to London to-day from Sandringham.

Berlin announces that the German warships sunk a British submarine in the North Sea, last Sunday.

Commission Recognizes Depressed Conditions Cross Examine Willard in Freight Rate Case

Washington, D. C., Oct. 20.—The Interstate Commerce Commission to-day officially recognized "depressed market conditions" in deciding a case involving grain rates from Montana to eastern destinations begun by the Railroad Commission of that state against various northwestern roads.

The commission held "that the reasonableness or unreasonableness of freight rates cannot be gauged solely by the ability or inability of shippers under depressed market conditions to market their products with profit under existing rates."

It further was held that the rates assailed were not unreasonable.
