ARMY-NAVY GAME IS ON ONCE MORE

Believed at Washington That the Agreement Will Hold For Twenty-four Hours

Special to The Telegraph
Washington, D. C., Oct. 21.—Contradicting his "final" announcement of Monday, that all negotiations for staging the Army-Navy football game were off, Lieutenant-Commander Needham L. Jones, aid to Secretary of the Navy Daniels, announced last night that the game would be played this year on Franklin Field in Philadelphia, Saturday, October 28. It is believed here that this statement will hold good for at least twenty-four hours.

As agreed upon, the plan stipulates that the two schools will choose the site for the games alternately for five years, the Navy having the preference this year. The place is not to be north of New York, or south of Washington. It also provides that when it is the Navy's turn to choose the site in 1916 everything possible shall be done to provide more commodious facilities than are now afforded at Franklin Field.

Secretary Daniels, when informed of the very latest intentions of the two academies, said:

"It's a regular case of 'on again; off again; gone again, Finnegan.' Yesterday I was given to understand that the five-year agreement had been accepted by West Point and Annapolis. But last night I was told that the mid-shipment would not agree to this plan. It seems to me that if I wanted to play a game of football very much I would not quarrel over the place for the game."

According to Secretary Daniels' aid, the misinterpretation of a telegram

Secretary of War Garrison, in confirming the statement made by Commander Jones, nevertheless seemed very much amused over the controversy which has aroused so much interest.

"If the Navy does not want the game," he said, "I am willing to play Secretary Daniels at golf or tennis any time or at any place he wants. I regret to say that my football days are past."

CROSS-EYED PITCHER HAS PLAYERS GUESSING

Special to The Telegraph
Reno, Nev., Oct. 21.—The Oakland Club of the Pacific Coast League has signed Harry Sampson, a full-blooded Pitte Indian and a graduate of the Stewart Indian school at Carson City, as a pitcher. Sampson is 19 years old, weighs 190 pounds, throws and bats right-handed, and is cross-eyed. Although he has terrific speed, it is said his infirmity is his greatest asset. The base runner is at his mercy, for he never can tell whether the Indian is looking at first base or the home plate. The umpires also have been having their troubles.

New Star at Yale

SCOVILLE
New Haven, Conn., Oct. 20.—A new football star has brightened the hopes of the Yale coaches this year. He is Scoville, a former Dartmouth man, and he is looked upon as the best ground-gainer the Blue has had since the days of Coy.

Pat Moran to Lead Philadelphia Nationals

A new pilot, Pat Moran, will steer the Phillies next season. Charles S. Doolin, who guided the craft during five stormy years under the administration of Presidents Fogel, Locke and Baker, will give place to the veteran catcher.

The choice was announced by President Baker yesterday.

Although he has been with the team for five years, Moran has done very little catching. His greatest value to the club has been in coaching the pitchers. He is given the credit for having discovered and brought along Alexander on the trip north during the season that the great twirler joined the club.

Moran has had a long baseball experience. He is 38 years old, and was born in Fitchburg, Mass. He broke in at Lyons, in the New York State League, and then went to Montreal. He has been in the big show without interruption since 1901, when he joined the Boston Nationals. He was with Boston till 1905, and went to the Chicago Nationals in 1906, joining the Phillies in 1910. He has been with the local club ever since.

CHEER CHORUS IN CENTRAL HIGH GAME

School Spirit Is Strong in Student Body; Steelton Is Working Hard For the Battle

Daily sessions of the student body at the Central high school are being held in preparation for Saturday's game, when Central meets Steelton High at Island Park. School spirit at Central high is stronger than ever this year.

New things are being taught the Central players by Coach Paul Smith. With many green men in the game Central has been putting up a remarkable game and Steelton will have to work to win.

Down at Steelton Coach Edward C. Taggart and the Steelton squad are hard at it. Smiles come from Coach Taggart when told that he will get a bump on Saturday.

Tech High, in charge of Athletic Director Percy L. Grubb, and accompanied by Coach D. Forrest Dunkle, members of Tech faculty and about a dozen rooters, will leave Friday night for Greensburg, where Tech will meet the high school team of that town on Saturday.

NEW PLAYS FOR INDIANS

Carlisle, Pa., Oct. 21.—The Carlisle Indians yesterday were presented with about every variety of football practice work that coaches could devise. Every effort is directed toward the University of Pennsylvania game at Philadelphia on Saturday, and although the Redskins will not hit the trail with overweening confidence, they will carry a box of tricks that will give them a look-in. Coach Wagner, knowing that Pennsylvania has prepared for the simple plays he has used this season, started on entirely new formations yesterday.

HAYES GRIER WILL NOT STAND FOR IT

Columbia Democrat Tells His People to Vote For Grier Instead of a Bull Moose

People living in Lancaster county and in lower Dauphin are sitting up and taking notice the way William Hayes Grier, Democratic war horse of Lancaster county and a fighter for Democracy when some of the present leaders were babes, is lambasting the lowering of Democratic colors to the Bull Moose. Mr. Grier's wrath appears to have been especially aroused by the "abdication" of Dr. S. S. Mann, his fellow Columbian, from the Democratic congressional nomination in favor of the Washington party candidate. The stalwart editor denounces the whole business and tells his readers to vote for Congressman W. W. Grier.

The attitude of the Grier newspaper which has been a Democratic power for years has attracted wide attention. "This is the way he discusses things."

"At the Spring primary, the Democratic party had two contestants for the Congressional nomination—Dr. S. S. Mann of this place and George B. Wilson of Lancaster. The former won by a handsome majority and owed it to the party to carry the standard, and not fall by the wayside. Had it been supposed that he was in the field, only to retire at the last moment in the interest of a Republican nominated by the Bull Moosers, he would have been buried in an avalanche. Had George B. Wilson been nominated no power existing could have induced him to do as Dr. Mann has done—write a letter withdrawing in favor of the Bull Moose candidate. The doctor gives as the reason for his action that he wants to 'help the Democratic State ticket to success, and Penrose and his State ticket put to defeat.' That is Democratic all right, but to what extent will his withdrawal cut any figure? It looks to us as if McCormick was playing a lone hand and put one over on Palmer. McCormick had already been given the Bull Moose ticket, and how this withdrawal is going to benefit

Federal Officials to Fight Until Recognition Comes

Winter War Is Promised; First Battle to Take Place in New York Friday and Saturday

Special to The Telegraph
Chicago, Ill., Oct. 21.—Officials of the Federal League expect to devote the winter season in fighting for recognition.

Interest in the baseball peace talk between organized baseball and the Federal League was increased by the arrival of E. E. Gates, of Indianapolis, who is counsel for the Federal League and also interested by the ownership of the Indianapolis Feds, which team won the pennant.

Attorney Gates when asked how he stood on the question of peace between the warring factions said that he was heartily in favor of an agreement for the good of the sport. He said it appeared to be the only logical course to pursue on the part of organized baseball, which would be the only salvation of the minor leagues.

Palmer we cannot conceive. The Bull Moose will, to a man, vote for Pinchot, and they would have done so in any event, and it is a fact that many Democrats are so disgusted with the situation that they will remain away from the polls, or cut their ticket to death, and we can see nothing but a loss of votes for Palmer.

"While this paper has not the remotest idea that he can be defeated by the trade that has been effected, it would, nevertheless, advise all Democrats in this vicinity, not to mark their ticket in the Democratic square but to place an X after the name of each man for whom they desire to vote on the Democratic ballot, then go over to the Republican ballot, and place an X after the name of W. W. Grier, and by this action give due and timely notice that they cannot be dragged to the polls to vote against their convictions, and against the man who deserves the best that his constituents, without regard to party, can give him."
