

HARRISBURG TELEGRAPH

Established 1831
PUBLISHED BY THE TELEGRAPH PRINTING CO.
E. J. STACKPOLE, Pres't and Treas'r.
F. R. OYSTER, Secretary.
GUS M. STEINMETZ, Managing Editor.

Published every evening (except Sunday) at the Telegraph Building, 216 Federal Square.

Eastern Office, Fifth Avenue Building, New York City, Hasbrouk, Story & Brooks.
Western Office, 123 West Madison Street, Chicago, Ill., Allen & Ward.

Delivered by carriers at six cents a week. Mailed to subscribers at $2.00 a year in advance.

Entered at the Post Office in Harrisburg as second class matter.

The Association of American Advertisers has examined and certified to the circulation of this publication. The figures of circulation contained in the Association's report only are guaranteed.

Sworn daily average for the month of September, 1914
23,252

Average for the year 1913-21,077
Average for the year 1912-21,175
Average for the year 1911-16,851
Average for the year 1910-17,495

TELEPHONES: Bell
Private Branch Exchange No. 3040.
United Business Office, 203.
Editorial Room 555. Job Dept. 202.

FRIDAY EVENING, OCTOBER 23

THE WAGE EARNER'S FIGHT

If the wage earner ever had a fight on his hands, he has one now. The argument he gets from Palmer and McCormick is that he does not need wages nearly so much as he needs a great many other things.

Mr. Palmer, the man who asks Pennsylvania to send him to the United States Senate as the guardian of its industrial interests, not only fails to explain the very distressing state into which business of all kinds has fallen, but he baldly says that the depression is "all talk."

It is "all talk" that men are out of jobs or on reduced time and, therefore, suffering the serious inconveniences of reduced pay envelopes! The voter's situation to-day is that of a man who has entrusted his business to a manager who will nigh ruin it. His great enterprise known as the United States of America has been woefully mismanaged under the present administration.

FULL CHRISTMAS STOCKINGS

In spite of the war Santa Claus' pack will be as full of toys as ever this year. This is the good news which has been given out by the great toy dealers and which is expected to comfort thousands of youngsters throughout the land.

NEPOTISM

Now comes a story from Washington to the effect that there has been flagrant abuse by the Democratic administration in the employment of members of the families of officials and likewise of the Senate and the House.

WORK FOR WATCHFUL WAITERS

It is a good thing that so many men who would otherwise be idle will be employed on the various public improvement undertakings of the city until late in the Fall and winter.

RIVER FRONT WORK

Whatever the differences between the contractors and the engineers on the River Front improvement work, there should be a strong effort made to adjust the points at issue and hurry along the operations which will soon be interrupted by the cold weather and a rising river.

A PECULIAR TRANSACTION

That title banking arrangement between Secretary of the Treasury McAdoo and his native State continues to be a thorn in the side of the Democratic Administration.

CHESNUTS

By Wing Diager
Gen. but the squirrels are happy. Cause chesnuts are plenty this year. No dangers of high cost of living. From tariffs removed do they fear.

WELL KNOWN PEOPLE

The Rev. Clayton Grinnel, of Altoona, has been elected president of the Baptist Ministers' Union at the Section meeting.

DO YOU KNOW?

That the first book typewriters and billing machines were perfected in Harrisburg and that they are now in use all over the world?

EDITORIAL COMMENT

Mr. Palmer is in a sorry plight. He is praised by the President, but in Pennsylvania as a candidate he wants to pose as a protectionist.

POLITICAL SIDELIGHTS

The man who tried to question Brumbaugh did well to run away before the answers came.

STORY OF A BOY

Worked on a farm—then in a saw-mill, and in his father's store. Swept a school for his tuition—rang the bell for his board.

HEADQUARTERS FOR SHIRTS

SIDES & SIDES

EVENING CHAT

People who are enjoying walks along the roads near the city last week or so, or who have gone into the country on the pleasant afternoons which late October is giving us, have been noticing the activities of little groups of men who have been going about by automobiles, wagons and carriages and in their hands bundles of things.

AC TO THE PERNICIOUS

Blaklee and Other Federal Officials Have Much Time For Politics in Pennsylvania
ROOSEVELT AND MCCORMICK
The Harrisburger's Platform and Statements Are Flat Against the Colonel's Ideas

Colonel Roosevelt's position that Vance C. McCormick's campaign is one in which only State issues are involved and his effort to make it appear that McCormick is a candidate who should be supported without regard to party are thoroughly disproved by the speeches of McCormick, the inscription on the medal given to dollar contributors to the Democratic slush fund and the activity of federal officeholders in behalf of McCormick.

McCormick goes around night after night proclaiming that he stands by Wilson and told the Washington party committee so, and the dollar souvenirs, so soon to be consigned to the junk pile, contain a bust of Wilson and an exhortation to uphold Wilson, who is being so savagely assailed by Roosevelt. However, the activity of the federal officeholders is the most significant thing.

James I. Blaklee, the Fourth Assistant Postmaster General, has been traveling up and down the State for weeks in the interest of the Democratic machine and reports are being heard around Pittsburgh that charges may be preferred against District Attorney E. Lowry Humes and Marshal Joe Howley for pernicious political activity.

If Republicans had shown a tithe of the pernicious political activity now being displayed by Blaklee and others the Patriot would have wept and wailed over the decadence of the republic. Now Blaklee is ranked with the men who are temporarily patriots.

PLAIN LETTERS BY A PLAIN MAN

Messrs. Vance C. McCormick and A. Mitchell Palmer:
Gentlemen—September 23, of this year, Gustav Rumpf, president of the Brown Knitting Company of Philadelphia, sent a letter to Senatorial Candidate Palmer, directing his attention to a communication just issued by the Richmond Soup Society, of 2652 Ann Street, Philadelphia.

NEWS DISPATCHES OF THE CIVIL WAR

From the Telegraph of Oct. 23, 1864.]
Washington, Oct. 23.—The enemy acknowledge the defeat of Longstreet, saying they lost twenty-three guns and 1,000 men.

WELL KNOWN PEOPLE

Direct charges that J. Elmer Evans, a York county rural mail carrier, had been dismissed through machinations of the private secretary of Congressman Brodbeck and J. M. Blaklee are made in a York dispatch received by the Philadelphia Inquirer.

DO YOU KNOW?

That the first book typewriters and billing machines were perfected in Harrisburg and that they are now in use all over the world?

EDITORIAL COMMENT

Mr. Palmer is in a sorry plight. He is praised by the President, but in Pennsylvania as a candidate he wants to pose as a protectionist.

POLITICAL SIDELIGHTS

The man who tried to question Brumbaugh did well to run away before the answers came.

STORY OF A BOY

Worked on a farm—then in a saw-mill, and in his father's store. Swept a school for his tuition—rang the bell for his board.

HEADQUARTERS FOR SHIRTS

SIDES & SIDES

EVENING CHAT

People who are enjoying walks along the roads near the city last week or so, or who have gone into the country on the pleasant afternoons which late October is giving us, have been noticing the activities of little groups of men who have been going about by automobiles, wagons and carriages and in their hands bundles of things.

AC TO THE PERNICIOUS

Blaklee and Other Federal Officials Have Much Time For Politics in Pennsylvania
ROOSEVELT AND MCCORMICK
The Harrisburger's Platform and Statements Are Flat Against the Colonel's Ideas

Colonel Roosevelt's position that Vance C. McCormick's campaign is one in which only State issues are involved and his effort to make it appear that McCormick is a candidate who should be supported without regard to party are thoroughly disproved by the speeches of McCormick, the inscription on the medal given to dollar contributors to the Democratic slush fund and the activity of federal officeholders in behalf of McCormick.

McCormick goes around night after night proclaiming that he stands by Wilson and told the Washington party committee so, and the dollar souvenirs, so soon to be consigned to the junk pile, contain a bust of Wilson and an exhortation to uphold Wilson, who is being so savagely assailed by Roosevelt. However, the activity of the federal officeholders is the most significant thing.

James I. Blaklee, the Fourth Assistant Postmaster General, has been traveling up and down the State for weeks in the interest of the Democratic machine and reports are being heard around Pittsburgh that charges may be preferred against District Attorney E. Lowry Humes and Marshal Joe Howley for pernicious political activity.

If Republicans had shown a tithe of the pernicious political activity now being displayed by Blaklee and others the Patriot would have wept and wailed over the decadence of the republic. Now Blaklee is ranked with the men who are temporarily patriots.

PLAIN LETTERS BY A PLAIN MAN

Messrs. Vance C. McCormick and A. Mitchell Palmer:
Gentlemen—September 23, of this year, Gustav Rumpf, president of the Brown Knitting Company of Philadelphia, sent a letter to Senatorial Candidate Palmer, directing his attention to a communication just issued by the Richmond Soup Society, of 2652 Ann Street, Philadelphia.

NEWS DISPATCHES OF THE CIVIL WAR

From the Telegraph of Oct. 23, 1864.]
Washington, Oct. 23.—The enemy acknowledge the defeat of Longstreet, saying they lost twenty-three guns and 1,000 men.

WELL KNOWN PEOPLE

Direct charges that J. Elmer Evans, a York county rural mail carrier, had been dismissed through machinations of the private secretary of Congressman Brodbeck and J. M. Blaklee are made in a York dispatch received by the Philadelphia Inquirer.

DO YOU KNOW?

That the first book typewriters and billing machines were perfected in Harrisburg and that they are now in use all over the world?

EDITORIAL COMMENT

Mr. Palmer is in a sorry plight. He is praised by the President, but in Pennsylvania as a candidate he wants to pose as a protectionist.

POLITICAL SIDELIGHTS

The man who tried to question Brumbaugh did well to run away before the answers came.

STORY OF A BOY

Worked on a farm—then in a saw-mill, and in his father's store. Swept a school for his tuition—rang the bell for his board.

HEADQUARTERS FOR SHIRTS

SIDES & SIDES

EVENING CHAT

People who are enjoying walks along the roads near the city last week or so, or who have gone into the country on the pleasant afternoons which late October is giving us, have been noticing the activities of little groups of men who have been going about by automobiles, wagons and carriages and in their hands bundles of things.

AC TO THE PERNICIOUS

Blaklee and Other Federal Officials Have Much Time For Politics in Pennsylvania
ROOSEVELT AND MCCORMICK
The Harrisburger's Platform and Statements Are Flat Against the Colonel's Ideas

Colonel Roosevelt's position that Vance C. McCormick's campaign is one in which only State issues are involved and his effort to make it appear that McCormick is a candidate who should be supported without regard to party are thoroughly disproved by the speeches of McCormick, the inscription on the medal given to dollar contributors to the Democratic slush fund and the activity of federal officeholders in behalf of McCormick.

McCormick goes around night after night proclaiming that he stands by Wilson and told the Washington party committee so, and the dollar souvenirs, so soon to be consigned to the junk pile, contain a bust of Wilson and an exhortation to uphold Wilson, who is being so savagely assailed by Roosevelt. However, the activity of the federal officeholders is the most significant thing.

James I. Blaklee, the Fourth Assistant Postmaster General, has been traveling up and down the State for weeks in the interest of the Democratic machine and reports are being heard around Pittsburgh that charges may be preferred against District Attorney E. Lowry Humes and Marshal Joe Howley for pernicious political activity.

If Republicans had shown a tithe of the pernicious political activity now being displayed by Blaklee and others the Patriot would have wept and wailed over the decadence of the republic. Now Blaklee is ranked with the men who are temporarily patriots.

PLAIN LETTERS BY A PLAIN MAN

Messrs. Vance C. McCormick and A. Mitchell Palmer:
Gentlemen—September 23, of this year, Gustav Rumpf, president of the Brown Knitting Company of Philadelphia, sent a letter to Senatorial Candidate Palmer, directing his attention to a communication just issued by the Richmond Soup Society, of 2652 Ann Street, Philadelphia.

NEWS DISPATCHES OF THE CIVIL WAR

From the Telegraph of Oct. 23, 1864.]
Washington, Oct. 23.—The enemy acknowledge the defeat of Longstreet, saying they lost twenty-three guns and 1,000 men.

WELL KNOWN PEOPLE

Direct charges that J. Elmer Evans, a York county rural mail carrier, had been dismissed through machinations of the private secretary of Congressman Brodbeck and J. M. Blaklee are made in a York dispatch received by the Philadelphia Inquirer.

DO YOU KNOW?

That the first book typewriters and billing machines were perfected in Harrisburg and that they are now in use all over the world?

EDITORIAL COMMENT

Mr. Palmer is in a sorry plight. He is praised by the President, but in Pennsylvania as a candidate he wants to pose as a protectionist.

POLITICAL SIDELIGHTS

The man who tried to question Brumbaugh did well to run away before the answers came.

STORY OF A BOY

Worked on a farm—then in a saw-mill, and in his father's store. Swept a school for his tuition—rang the bell for his board.

HEADQUARTERS FOR SHIRTS

SIDES & SIDES

Real Wool From Real Sheep

Unless you are an expert, you can hardly tell the difference between a suit made of wool and one made of cotton shoddy. Weaving of cloth is so cleverly done these days, that it is hard to detect the difference.

Therefore we selected Hart Schaffner & Marx Clothes

because they are Guaranteed to be all-wool. In fact, they are the best guaranteed all-wool line at $18 to $30.

So great is our confidence in Hart Schaffner & Marx Clothes that we stand back of the manufacturers, ready to make good. They make good because they are made good.

H. MARKS & SON

4th and Market Streets

Real Wool From Real Sheep

Unless you are an expert, you can hardly tell the difference between a suit made of wool and one made of cotton shoddy. Weaving of cloth is so cleverly done these days, that it is hard to detect the difference.

Therefore we selected Hart Schaffner & Marx Clothes

because they are Guaranteed to be all-wool. In fact, they are the best guaranteed all-wool line at $18 to $30.

So great is our confidence in Hart Schaffner & Marx Clothes that we stand back of the manufacturers, ready to make good. They make good because they are made good.

H. MARKS & SON

4th and Market Streets

Plain Letters by a Plain Man

Messrs. Vance C. McCormick and A. Mitchell Palmer:

Gentlemen—September 23, of this year, Gustav Rumpf, president of the Brown Knitting Company of Philadelphia, sent a letter to Senatorial Candidate Palmer, directing his attention to a communication just issued by the Richmond Soup Society, of 2652 Ann Street, Philadelphia.

NEWS DISPATCHES OF THE CIVIL WAR

From the Telegraph of Oct. 23, 1864.]
Washington, Oct. 23.—The enemy acknowledge the defeat of Longstreet, saying they lost twenty-three guns and 1,000 men.

WELL KNOWN PEOPLE

Direct charges that J. Elmer Evans, a York county rural mail carrier, had been dismissed through machinations of the private secretary of Congressman Brodbeck and J. M. Blaklee are made in a York dispatch received by the Philadelphia Inquirer.

DO YOU KNOW?

That the first book typewriters and billing machines were perfected in Harrisburg and that they are now in use all over the world?

EDITORIAL COMMENT

Mr. Palmer is in a sorry plight. He is praised by the President, but in Pennsylvania as a candidate he wants to pose as a protectionist.

POLITICAL SIDELIGHTS

The man who tried to question Brumbaugh did well to run away before the answers came.

STORY OF A BOY

Worked on a farm—then in a saw-mill, and in his father's store. Swept a school for his tuition—rang the bell for his board.

HEADQUARTERS FOR SHIRTS

SIDES & SIDES

Plain Letters by a Plain Man

Messrs. Vance C. McCormick and A. Mitchell Palmer:

Gentlemen—September 23, of this year, Gustav Rumpf, president of the Brown Knitting Company of Philadelphia, sent a letter to Senatorial Candidate Palmer, directing his attention to a communication just issued by the Richmond Soup Society, of 2652 Ann Street, Philadelphia.

NEWS DISPATCHES OF THE CIVIL WAR

From the Telegraph of Oct. 23, 1864.]
Washington, Oct. 23.—The enemy acknowledge the defeat of Longstreet, saying they lost twenty-three guns and 1,000 men.

WELL KNOWN PEOPLE

Direct charges that J. Elmer Evans, a York county rural mail carrier, had been dismissed through machinations of the private secretary of Congressman Brodbeck and J. M. Blaklee are made in a York dispatch received by the Philadelphia Inquirer.

DO YOU KNOW?

That the first book typewriters and billing machines were perfected in Harrisburg and that they are now in use all over the world?

EDITORIAL COMMENT

Mr. Palmer is in a sorry plight. He is praised by the President, but in Pennsylvania as a candidate he wants to pose as a protectionist.

POLITICAL SIDELIGHTS

The man who tried to question Brumbaugh did well to run away before the answers came.

STORY OF A BOY

Worked on a farm—then in a saw-mill, and in his father's store. Swept a school for his tuition—rang the bell for his board.

HEADQUARTERS FOR SHIRTS

SIDES & SIDES

No String Orchestra
is necessary at your "afternoon at home," if you have a piano and some one play for the pleasure of your guests.

Remember a piano purchased here, furnishes pleasure 365 days in the year, and this pleasure can be yours for a small sum monthly.

WINTER & CO.
23 North Fourth Street

There Is Valuable News For Men In Doutrich's Advertisement On Page 9--Read It