WAS MISERABLE COULDN'T STAND

Testifies She Was Restored to Health by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Lackawanna, N. Y.—"After my first child was born I felt very miserable and could not stand on my feet. My sister-in-law wished me to try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and my nerves became firm, appetite good, step elastic, and I lost that weak, tired feeling. That was six years ago and I have had three fine healthy children since. For female troubles I always take Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and it works like a charm. I do all my own work."—Mrs. A. F. KREAMER, 1574 Electric Avenue, Lackawanna, N. Y.

ST. ANDREW'S MEN HEAR OF THE WAR

Rev. O. H. Bridgman Tells of Conditions as He Saw Them in Europe

Two score members of the Alricks Association met last evening in St. Andrew's Episcopal parish house, Nineteenth and Market streets, for the first meeting since permanent organization of this men's club was affected. An enjoyable social evening was spent, the feature being an address by the Rev. O. H. Bridgman, of this city, regarding experiences through which he and Mrs. Bridgman passed in returning from England immediately after the outbreak of the European war. Mr. Bridgman traced the causes of the war briefly and created enthusiasm by declaring the United States to have been founded providentially so that at this crisis and in the future this nation may be the one toward which the world may turn for sympathy and help.

A Victrola concert was rendered during the evening and refreshments served which had been prepared by women of St. Andrew's parish. The Alricks Association, which is under national auspices, has a membership of more than fifty.

FORTY HOURS' DEVOTION AT ST. FRANCIS CHURCH

Forty hours' devotion will be started at St. Francis Catholic Church to-morrow morning at 8 o'clock, with high mass by a Redemptorist father of Annapolis, assisted by the pastor, the Rev. D. Carey. The devotion will break into the store of John J. Miller, and carry off $200 worth of goods, but other places were visited. The thieves went to the Pen-Dee Distilling Company's warehouse, and with an augur bored a hole in a barrel of whisky and filled up four bushels. One fruit thief also broke into the automobile shed of Welly Brother, about a mile from here, and attempted to run off the auto truck. They, however, could not start the engine, and after pushing it down the road for over a hundred yards abandoned the machine. Farmers in the county were not overjoyed as the chicken houses were visited and dozens of fowls were stolen. One farmer got in rather close touch to the chicken thieves and emptied the contents of his gun at one making a hasty retreat across the field.

COMMUNION SERVICE

Holy communion will be celebrated at both services at the Reformed Church, Penbrook. Communion services will also be observed at the First Street Methodist Episcopal Church, this city, to-morrow morning. Baptismal services for infants will also be held here.

Thieves Steal Whisky by Boring Hole in Barrel

Special to The Telegraph. Waynesboro, Pa., Oct. 24.—Thieves seem to be more numerous at this time than for many years. A party of three was set apart for them to be especially active. Not only did they break into the store of John J. Miller, and carry off $200 worth of goods, but other places were visited. The thieves went to the Pen-Dee Distilling Company's warehouse, and with an augur bored a hole in a barrel of whisky and filled up four bushels. One fruit thief also broke into the automobile shed of Welly Brother, about a mile from here, and attempted to run off the auto truck. They, however, could not start the engine, and after pushing it down the road for over a hundred yards abandoned the machine. Farmers in the county were not overjoyed as the chicken houses were visited and dozens of fowls were stolen. One farmer got in rather close touch to the chicken thieves and emptied the contents of his gun at one making a hasty retreat across the field. Fruit growers have been greatly annoyed by thieves who have been visiting their orchards that border on the mountain, at night, and they carry off the fruit by the bushel. One fruit grower, Charles Boechtel, near Edgemont, said the fruit thieves cleaned up almost his entire crop of white cling peaches.

After Six Days of Business

There is no more fitting start for the new week than that you attend church services. And nothing should keep you away. If you have any church relations, it is but natural that you should attend that church. That you have never established any church relations is no excuse for your not being in God's house on Sunday.

Your Maker asks but little of your time. One-seventh of the week—and of that time only a few hours are you asked to spend in actual worship. Surely you can grant that much time to the glorification of your maker.

Your Maker Set The Example

God created the world in six days and rested on the seventh. Thus we have a Divine example dating from the birth of the world.

The fact that our daily lives are so interwoven with our business and social duties is no excuse for our failure to properly observe God's Day. The twentieth century will have improved vastly when more people realize this.

Take a little time now to think upon the Divine example and of your duty to God your Maker. And to-morrow
