PRIZES ARE AWARDED FOR ODD COSTUMES

Twenty-first Birthday of Silas Keefer Celebrated With a Masquerade

A birthday masquerade party was held Saturday evening at the home of Silas Keefer, in celebration of his twenty-first birthday. His boy friends presented him with a bunch of twenty-one carnations, and dancing and games were features amid Halloween decorations. The supper table was adorned with ferns and prizes for costumes were awarded to Kate Ramsey as Queen of Ireland, first prize; Ray Smith, an Indian, second prize; George Mans, devil, first prize; Josephine Turns, wizard, second prize.

Elaborate Appointments and Clever Costumes

A masquerade party with Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Coover, Miss Anna Dewhurst and William E. Connelly, as hosts, was held at 225 Boas street. Autumn foliage, cornstalks and pumpkin lanterns formed the decorative scheme, and the supper table was overhung with lattice work, to form a real bowery. A pumpkin basket filled with fruit.

Auguille Club Appears in Most Fantastic Garb

The members of the Auguille Club held a Halloween masquerade party at the home of Miss Ruth Lappley, 1800 North Fourth street. The house was elaborately decorated with witches, cats, bats, pumpkins, cornucopias, and a color scheme of black and yellow was carried out in the diningroom and the favors were miniature pumpkins. Music and games were the entertainment of the evening, the prize going to Dr. C. W. Batdorf.

Fun For Little Folks With Games and Supper

Mr. and Mrs. Russel Cless, 1925 North Third street, entertained a party for their two little daughters, Mildred and Helen Cless. The children were met by a ghost who escorted them through the spacious room, which was decorated in Halloween style. The little guests spent a jolly evening playing games, and at 8 o'clock were served with refreshments.

MERRY LITTLE ELVES FROLIC AT NIGHT

All Sorts of Halloween Festivities Are Held in Weir Surroundings

Halloween celebrations both in and out of the city seemed more numerous and elaborate this year, than ever before. Organizations, clubs and private parties held masquerades, dances and old-fashioned fetes and the shops were sold out of quaint favors and decorations. Children and grownups in fancy dress paraded the streets and only ghosts, goblins and ghouls were fantastics everywhere. Among the parties were the following:

With Witches' Cauldron

Among the decorations at the home of Miss Amelia Palmer, 416 Foster street for her party Saturday evening, was a witches' cauldron suspended over a smiting fire. The cauldron was green glow, which showed the autumn leaves and Jack-o-lanterns in ghostly light.

Guests of Miss Mauk

Several of the rooms on the fifth and sixth floors have been already rented.

FIRE IN TIN SHOP

A small fire was discovered early yesterday morning in the tin shop of H. W. Ritter, Wallace and Maclay streets. Several companies responded to the alarm sent in from Box 45, Seventh and Maclay streets. The damage amounted to about $75.

Does McCormick Also Favor More Direct Taxation of People?

In a speech at Chambersburg the Democratic candidate for Governor, Charles H. Smith, said: "The unit of the levy and expenditure of money should remain in the township within its borders, and next to it in the county within its borders, and next to it in the State department for main lines of traffic."

Evidently McCormick is in harmony with the administration at Washington which has just placed the enormous burden of the 105,000,000 in direct taxes upon the people. He would do more and levy a direct tax, such as Pennsylvania has not had for years, for road purposes.

TO HOLD INQUEST INTO BOY'S DEATH

Funeral of West End Youngster Killed by Auto Tomorrow Afternoon

Coroner Jacob Eckinger will investigate at 2 o'clock at the death of 6-year-old John McCormick, 334 Harris street. The boy died within a half hour after having been knocked down by an automobile at Third and Harris streets Saturday afternoon.

An inquest will be held at the office of District Attorney M. E. Stroup Wednesday night at 7:30 o'clock. An examination of the body of young McCormick will be made after his death, it is said, showed a fracture of the skull, but no internal or body injuries.

The automobile which struck the boy is owned and was driven by Mrs. Alma Keane, who keeps a grocery store at 524 Maclay street. Mrs. Keane, it is said, was driving down Third street. Young McCormick, who had left his home a short time before the accident occurred, according to eye-witnesses, stepped from the curb directly in front of the automobile. The boy fell backward, striking his head on the asphalt. The injured lad was carried to a nearby house and later taken to the Polyclinic Hospital, where he died soon after.

Funeral services will be held tomorrow afternoon at 2 o'clock at the home of the parents, 334 Harris street, and will be conducted by the Rev. J. T. Spangler, pastor of First United Brethren Church. Also will be private funeral and will be made in the Harrisburg Cemetery.

TO PLAN TECH BANQUET

The Technical High School Alumni Association will meet to-night in the Tech library at 7 o'clock. Plans for the annual Thanksgiving banquet will be completed. The meeting will be at 7, as many of the alumni are members of the Wharton School, whose classes begin at 8 o'clock.

WHAT THE SHOPS ARE SHOWING

The approach of the Christmas season brings many delights, and not the least of these is the pleasure of selecting gifts in shops abounding with holiday suggestions. The Gorgas Drug Store is showing some delightful novelties in French ivory for the dressing table. A dainty timepiece, a frame for a favorite photograph, a set of marcelle requires, or one of the ever-necessary sets of comb, brush and mirror, in this exquisitely dainty material would make a most satisfying gift, and the assortment shown at Gorgas' is of unusual variety and exceptional merit. A gift in this material may be purchased for as little as 25c, yet it rivals in beauty and popularity any of the more expensive wares.

His Highness—the Baby

His Highness—or perhaps Her Highness—next claims our attention, and what a delightful array of baby things are shown at the Woman's Exchange, Third street, at Her! Everything from tiny mittens, to most attractive knitted sweaters with dainty touches of pink or blue are included in this assortment of dainty apparel to keep the wee tots warm and cozy for wintry weather. Belted affects, tiny pocket-size sweaters with dainty touches that simple touch of distinctiveness, which good taste demands as much for the baby as for the grown-up. The little caps for infants are especially fascinating—the handmade caps with the sweetest of ribbon bows in baby colors, or with soft, warm angora turn-backs are charming, while even those not handmade, have dainty touches which make them very desirable, and the prices average as low as 50c.

The Growing Child

After planning for the welfare of the baby we naturally turn to the wants of the older child, and aside from his material wants, the question of proper environment for the growing child forms one of the chief interests of intelligent parents. The beautifying of the home in order to

PACKING OF MEATS IN CHICAGO HALTED BY U. S. AUTHORITIES

State of Illinois Is Quarantined Against Shipment of Cattle, Hogs and Sheep

Chicago, Ill., Nov. 2.—The Union Stock Yards, largest in the world, and the State of Illinois as well were quarantined against the shipment of cattle, hogs and sheep on orders from Washington to-day, according to a statement made by Dr. S. E. Bennett, chief of the local branch of the United States Bureau of Animal Industry at the yards.

"This means the practical cessation of the meat packing business at the yards for the time being," said Dr. Bennett.

IF BILIOUS, SICK OR CONSTIPATED TAKE CASCARETS

No headache, bad cold, sour stomach or costive bowels by morning. Get a 10-cent box now. You're bilious! You have a throbbing sensation in your head, a bad taste in your mouth, your eyes burn, your skin is full of bile not properly passed off, your skin is yellow, with dark rings under your eyes; your lips are parched. No wonder you feel ugly, mean and ill-tempered. Your system is full of bile not properly passed off, and what you need is a cleaning up, inside. Don't continue being a bilious nuisance to yourself and those who love you. Buy Cascarets—gentle, thorough Cascarets—they work while you sleep. A 10-cent box from your druggist will keep your liver and bowels clean, stomach sweet, and your head clear for months. Children love to take Cascarets because they taste good and never gripe or sicken.—Advertisement.

RESINOL SOAP FOR THE SKIN AND COMPLEXION

Is your skin tender? Try Resinol Soap

Any soap will clean your skin—a bar of laundry soap will do if you do not care what becomes of your complexion. But you know that laundry soap contains harsh, drying alkali that would ruin your skin and hair, so you never think of using it for your toilet.

Many toilet soaps contain this same caustic alkali. Resinol Soap contains absolutely no free alkali, and to it are added the Resinol balsams. These give it soothing, healing properties which clear the complexion, comfort tender skins and keep the hair rich and lustrous.
