STOUGH NOW GETTING DOWN TO BED ROCK

week services, the tabernacle was filled to the doors last night with an audience that closely followed the most serious sermon yet preached by Dr. Stough. The heavy applause given on previous nights was missing because there were fewer remarks that called for applause.

At the opening of his sermon he spoke of unjust criticism that is being circulated in many quarters about him. He said he is willing to stand for anything he says but that he will not stand for everything "you say I say."

"The biggest bang of knockers is the gang that never hears me preach," he declared.

What Is a Christian?

The subject last night was, "What Is a Christian?" and the evangelist defined the direct and forcible language, the qualities and lack of qualities in Christians, hypocrites and reprobates. He showed that to be a true Christian requires ability to mingle with the world and yet to keep unspotted from the world.

"We must make a radical distinction between Christians and church members," he said, "for, although almost every Christian is a church member, every church member is not a Christian. Many of them are just veneered, they are whitewashed but not washed white within. There is a difference between Christianity and Churchianity."

The Greatest Sinner

"The greatest sin is the breaking of the first commandment, and the greatest sinner is not the drunkard or the harlot or the thief, it is the man who refuses to put God foremost in his life. The true Christian is he who worships the Lord with all his heart, and soul and strength. "No one except the idiot or the innocent who has not reached age of accountability, is without one of two Gods; every man is worshipping either the true and living God or he is bowing down to the god of the eye, or the lusts of the flesh, or the eye, or the vain glory of life. The man with the last named god has the altar of his shrine in his selfish desire for money, pleasure, power, passion, appetite or dress."

Discusses True Character

"I am talking to-night not of church membership, but of the things of character, of the things that you are in reality. A man cannot be righteous inside and unholly outside; and a man who says he is Christian on Sunday and skins his neighbor on Monday is not a Christian—he's a liar. Every thought and act of a Christian must be brought into captivity to the spirit of Christ."

"Reading the Bible is no indication of Christianity, neither is confirmation nor baptism, nor the taking of the Holy Sacrament. There are lots of people who have been baptized, confirmed, and no doubt there are churches of all denominations in hell. If some of you people have no more to show for your Christianity than the things I have mentioned, you are going straight there I fear. There are all too many in Harrisburg who can show only these qualifications."

Why Some Won't Kiss Their Husbands

He showed that there is little difference between many church members and nonchurch members. Some of you old church members smoke tobacco like a chimney and some smell like a garbage can. I know this is the reason why so few wives will kiss their husbands. Then there are some church members who can cut a blue streak; they are cussers from Cussersville. There are church members who serve liquor in their homes, in fact they keep a private saloon; there are those who play cards, attend the theater and the dance, read trashy novels, and associate with unbelievers without any reserve.

"There are lots of hard-headed business men I know who would join church as a matter of common sense if they could see any difference between church members and outsiders. The Christianity of many is like a case of changeable silk whose color depends on the angle of light. They can use it for Sunday school or for a Wednesday card party."

Need Antiseptic Christians

"Just give me time; I can't preach all my sermons in one night; but I'll promise you that I'm going to get some of you till there isn't any hide on your old carcasses."

"What we need are antiseptic Christians, who first will not be contaminated by the world and second who will not contaminate the world."

As a test of a true Christian he laid down the following catechism: "Am I less selfish, less censorious, less critical, all-tempered, jealous, and more free, grasping and avaricious than I used to be before I professed Christianity? Am I more forgiving, gentle, loving, kind, humble, spiritual and Christ-like than I was? Has my life been less confirmed to the world in any home, in business and in the world at large?"

Are You Sure?

"If on bended knee you can answer to these personal questions positively, then you can be reasonably assured you are a real Christian. The reality of being in Christ consists in a vital, personal relation and fellowship with Christ."

"Christians do not follow a crucifix, but they follow the living Christ who said, 'Wherever two or three are gathered together in my name, there am I.'"

At the afternoon service Dr. Stough preached on the "Lives of the Holy of Ezekiel." He said in part: "No man can look out on the world as it is today without becoming discouraged. This war seems to show that civilization is a thorough failure. The fact that Germany and other nations that have been considered the most cultured and engaged in a struggle employing the highest products of civilization for the destruction of life is most discouraging unless it is viewed through the eyes of God."

"The church should have a vision not only of the needs of the city in its physical life, but more still, it should have the vision of the needs of the heart and the spiritual life. The church should have a vision of lost souls."

He showed that improvement in material surroundings is not enough, but that the church should lead with a change in the heart. "When you clean the heart, you clean up the surroundings."

"The church is primarily responsible for evil conditions and has failed to hold the people in its grasp. Two-thirds of the Sunday school attendees never join the church, because it has not attracted them. Practically every prostitute has attended Sunday school at one time or another. "The reason the saloon forces hate me as the devil hates Holy Water is that my preaching is going to hurt their business. In Hazleton where over 5,000 persons hit the trail—more than 2,000 of them being men—75 per cent. of these converts were users of alcohol and entirely stopped it. And of course this materially reduced the sale of liquor."

MISS OLIVE M. ROGERS

Miss Rogers is secretary and recorder of the Stough evangelistic party, and, as can be readily imagined, she is a mighty busy woman from the moment she arrives in a town until the party goes to another in its campaign work. It is Miss Rogers who keeps a record of the trail-hitters, turns their names over to the various co-operating churches and in general looks after the details of keeping the church both on the "trail" of the new "men of God" after the Stough campaign is over and gone. She keeps the records of all the business transactions and is in complete charge of the party's secretarial work.

What We Say It Is, IT IS You Buy Service

When you buy a watch you buy service—valuable service—for time is money in the business world and the man who has no watch handicaps himself unjustly.

The service a good watch renders you gains for you in actual dollars and cents many times the cost of the watch. If that were not a fact, watches would still be luxuries and only the wealthy would buy them.

A watch is necessary to men and women who make the most of their time. If you are not an idler, you need a good watch. Here are two Diener Specials in good watches:

A 16-size, 7-jewel Elgin movement in an open face gold filled case, guaranteed for 20 years, $8.00
A 17-jewel Hamilton movement, cased as above, $17.00

CAN'T IDENTIFY MAN KILLED

Neatly Dressed Pedestrian Struck By Engine at Enola
An unidentified man died at the Harrisburg hospital yesterday afternoon. He was brought to the hospital from the Enola yards where it is thought that he was struck by an engine. Coroner Eckinger up to a late hour today has heard nothing from any one about the man. He was of slender build, neatly dressed, gold filled teeth and had only a small sum of money on him.

AN EPITAPH.

Here lies a man of honest worth, Beneath this simple stone; Full sixty years he dwelt on earth And oft would telephone. Nor called "Miss Central" down; So earned, though poor and tempest-tossed, A just claim to renown.—Ex. To be trusted is a greater compliment than to be loved.—George MacDonald.

MISS DAISY EGGLESTON
All you need to do to see that Miss Eggleston, head of the children's work department, is admirably fitted for her work is to take a look at her kindly eyes and her good-natured face. The children love her dearly wherever she goes, and when she leaves a town many a little heart just can't help but cry at the loss of one it knew to be a true friend. Her duties are many, but her chief job is to see that the youngsters are brought under Christian influences in the Sunday school, church and the home.

God Understands It is sweet to know, When we are tired, and when the lies on our hearts, and when we look in vain For human comfort, that the Heart Divine Still understands these cares of yours and mine.

Not only understands, but day by day Lives with us while we tread the earth; Bears with us all weariness, and feels The shadow of the faintest cloud that steals Across our sunshine, ever learns again The depth and bitterness of human pain.

There is no sorrow that he will not share, No cross, no burden, for our hearts to bear Without his help, no care of ours too small To cast on Jesus; let us tell him all— Lay at his feet the story of our woes, And in his sympathy find sweet repose. —In the Church Advocate.
