REVOLT AT PRINCETON ON COACHING SYSTEM

Students Demand a Permanent and Independent Official; Fitzpatrick Is a Favorite

Special to The Telegraph
Princeton, N. J., Nov. 18.—The popular insurrection against the Princeton football coaching system which has spluttered for a few days and then died annually at the close of each unsuccessful season since 1911 has made its appearance again and is assuming commanding proportions.

The demand is for a permanent and independent football coach for the Tigers to replace the committee supervision that has proved so ineffectual for the last few years.

The season of 1914 has ended in disappointment for Princeton, but its failure may even prove to be a benefit to the Tigers by forcing an early settlement of the problem of coaching. There is no personal resentment in the anti-committee agitation. Many believe that Penfield, unencumbered by an overruling committee, would have been more successful than he was as a mere foreman in execution of plans that did not always meet with his whole-souled approval. The year was one continuous experiment and a costly one as it resulted.

Princeton would not have to look far for a man to fill the position as permanent coach. Keene Fitzpatrick, physical trainer of Princeton athletes for several years, has been suggested and agitation favors him with Tom Wilson, guard on the 1911 championship team, as his first assistant.

Coach By Dickson Wins; Penn Goes Out on Field

Special to The Telegraph

A light signal drill will be held this afternoon at the usual time.

Coach Brooke had ordered the team to take a prolonged rest.

CAPTAIN TALBOT RESTING AND DISCUSSING TACTICS BETWEEN QUARTERS

This photograph shows Captain Talbot of the Yale football team resting and discussing tactics on the field between quarters in the game. Since the period of rest is so short under the present rules, there is no time to talk over new tactics in the dressing rooms. The Yale men wrapped themselves in blankets and lay down in view of the spectators. Then the coaches had a talk with the captain about the methods to be used in the latter part of the game.

CENTRAL HIGH TEAM TO GIVE TECH A FIGHT

Saturday Schedule Includes a Number of Final Scrimmages in College Circles

Evidence of real school spirit came yesterday when a hundred or more Central high students watched the varsity eleven at practice, and cheered the players at intervals. In the opinion of the Central students, the annual local championship game is not going to be a cinch. The poor showing by Central this season has to some extent been discouraging, but strong hope is pinned on Central coming back strong on Thanksgiving day.

Central expects to win at Wilkes-Barre on Saturday and the champion high school team of the coal region will not find the Central eleven an easy proposition. New tactics will be employed Saturday at Wilkes-Barre, and the change promises to be a factor in the big game on November 26.

Tech is working hard for the game with Steelton at Island Park on Saturday. Coach D. Forrest Dunkle had two hard scrimmages yesterday, switching his players at intervals, and introducing a number of new formations.

Tech expects to go against a much stronger Steelton team than has been in evidence since the season opened. After this week the maroon and gray will change their practice grounds, and all training will be in secret.

In college circles a sensational wind-up of the season is looked for. The Yale-Harvard game next Saturday is the important battle of the year. Most of the college schedules will end Saturday. While there will be important battles on Thanksgiving day between college teams, they are annual battles and do not figure in championship honors.

Bucknell: On account of the frozen condition of the Bucknell campus the coaches gave the few regulars on the field and the substitutes a light signal practice and then sent them to the gymnasium, where a number devoted a lot of time to basketball practice. Coach Cockill will give a number of the regulars work on the basketball floor instead of sending them out on the football field for scrimmage work.

Gettysburg: The crippled Gettysburg squad yesterday resumed work for the remaining games of the season. The hard play of the Bucknell game completely used up the men and Coach O'Brien excused them from practice yesterday. McCullough suffered a badly lacerated hand and will not return to the line-up until the latter part of the week. Attention was centered upon interference by the backs and upon tackling, both of which were poor in the Bucknell game.

Lebanon Valley: Coach Guyer has notified all of the varsity men at Lebanon Valley College that they will not be required to come out for football practice any more this season on account of the schedule being played. As the second team men have two games to be played this season, most of the varsity players have signified their intention of helping the scrubs get into good condition for the coming contests.

Dickinson: As most of the Dickinson College football team is in good shape physically, Coach Harrington put the squad through an extremely hard and long practice. The line, although showing improvement, does not yet satisfy Harrington, and received several special drills in blocking and charging.

Indians: Since the Carlisle Indians and Dickinson College resumed athletic relations by placing a football game on their schedules, which event will be played here on Saturday, considerable local interest has developed in the prospective battle. As the Indians and the collegians have frequently practiced together both are pretty well aware of the other's tricks.

Penn State: For the first time in three weeks, Penn State's varsity was able to work with its regular line-up this afternoon. With the rounding up of the crippled Hollenback tried out a new backfield combination that so well satisfied him that he said he would stick to it for the Pitt game on Thanksgiving day. Higgins played fullback; Clark, left half; Yergler, right half, and Captain Tobin, quarterback. This arrangement puts Welty and James to the bench.

Six-day Grinders Show Both Class and Speed

New York, Nov. 18.—Rapid-fire sprints that almost overlapped held cyclists in the six-day race at top speed for more than an hour during the night and carried the new record nearly fifteen miles in advance of the old. To-day fifteen of the eighteen teams that started whirled over the big bowl at Madison Square Garden.

The record for the fifty-sixth hour was 1,150 miles and 8 laps made by Thomas and Ryan in 1912.

ACADEMY SEASON ENDS

Losing five men this year put a crimp in the success of the Harrisburg Academy football eleven. The Academy won two games. In total scores the Academy scored 25 points and their opponents 99. Coach Tatem is pleased with the work of the team. Few players on the team will graduate this year and next year's squad will open strong.

GUS WELSH IS IMPROVING

Chicago, Ill., Nov. 1.—Improvement was noted today in the condition of Gustave Welsh, the Carlisle Indian quarterback who was injured in the Notre Dame game here last Saturday. It will be three or four weeks, however, before he will be able to join his teammates at Carlisle.

Operations on Eastern Front Show Improvement Say Belgian Dispatches

By Associated Press
Berlin, via The Hague and London, Nov. 18, 10.25 A. M.—An official war bulletin given out in Berlin to-day sets forth that the operations on the eastern front are progressing favorably. The Germans apparently are using their victory at Wloclawek to the greatest advantage. The Russian armies defeated near Lappo yesterday, probably in the vicinity of Plock, and the forces defeated near Wloclawek are now at Kutno and Lescheyta.

WILSON PREDICTS BRIGHT BUSINESS FUTURE FOR U. S.

Special to The Telegraph
Washington, D. C., Nov. 18.—In a letter written to Secretary McAdoo congratulating him on the opening of the new federal reserve banks, President Wilson takes an optimistic view of the business future of the United States.

The President's letter of hope and confidence in the business situation was written in response to a note from Secretary McAdoo announcing that the new national banking and currency system had been inaugurated.

Perhaps the most significant portion of the President's letter is that which refers to the railroads. There is a suggestion that he sympathizes with them in their effort to obtain permission to advance their freight rates in his statement that they are affected not so much because their business is curtailed as because their credit is called in question by doubt of their earning capacity. "No doubt, in the light of the new day, with its new understandings," says the President, "the problems of the railroads will also be met and dealt with in a spirit of candor and justice."

MEDILL MCCORMICK WINS

Special to The Telegraph
Chicago, Ill., Nov. 18.—The official canvass of the Twenty-ninth senatorial district, completed to-day, showed that Medill McCormick, the only Progressive candidate elected to the State Legislature from Cook county, would retain his seat, defeating Charles T. Funke, Republican candidate, by 286 votes. A contest before the Legislature is threatened.

WHAT'S IN A NAME?

In business it may mean a fortune. Reputation makes reputation. Therefore it is essential that the name of your establishment stands out prominently with the merchandise you have for sale. An attractive name plate not only serves to embellish your advertisement but it makes the name stand out in decided contrast from the sameness of type in the group of advertisements around yours. ## SOLDIERS' BONES FOUND

Special to The Telegraph
Gettysburg, Pa., Nov. 18.—Bones of two soldiers were found by William Johns on his property at the southern end of town while engaged in laying a pipe line. They were about fifteen inches below the surface and with the bones were found part of an old army hat, a number of teeth and a brass button, indicating that one of the men belonged to a Union command. In 1862 there were fifteen Confederate bodies found about 200 yards from this spot and they were taken to Richmond, Va., for burial.

AUTO RUNS INTO CATCH BASIN

Gettysburg, Pa., Nov. 18.—Crashing into a catch basin in West Confederate avenue near the Lee memorial when the driver's attention was momentarily diverted from the steering, the automobile of the Rev. L. D. Hafer, of Taneytown, was damaged and two of the occupants thrown out, sustaining slight injuries. The Rev. Mr. Hafer's wife was rendered unconscious for a short time.
