Two Cars at Price of One

Two things are responsible for the ready, steady sales of Hupmobiles at this season.

One, according to E. C. Ensminger, who represents the Hupmobile in this territory, is the increased size and five-passenger room of the new model.

The other is the detachable sedan top for the touring car, and a similar coupe top for the roadster.

E. C. Ensminger says this gives every Hup buyer the chance of getting two cars at very little more than the price of one.

The prospect of driving all winter in cozy comfort is most alluring to the majority of buyers; and the new tops are receiving hearty approval.

The new tops are very reasonable in price; easily attached; look better by far than any other of the sort we have ever seen; are well built and beautifully finished inside.

We advise you to see them.

EIGHTH STANDS IN GARRO'S LEADERS

Inspector's Report of the Summer Encampment Contains Some Sharp Criticisms

Reports of inspecting officers on the organizations of the National Guard as they appeared in encampments and on practice marches during last summer were made public to-day by Adjutant General Stewart, but the figures are given only for personal appearance, condition of arms and clothing and books and papers. No general averages or figures of efficiency are given. It was stated at the Capitol that the reports had shown that the Fourth Infantry had attained the highest figure, the Tenth, Eighth and Eighteenth having also received high figures. Figures are given for the four new troops of cavalry and the new battery D for the first time.

Major M. H. Taggart, who inspected the infantry, makes some sharp criticisms in the report, saying among other things: "Unwarranted neglect of arms was apparent with consequential result. Many try to justify themselves by saying that they are without proper materials, some, that they have just been on guard or some other duty. I cannot accept such excuses when I stop to consider the ideal weather conditions immediately preceding inspection and know that proper materials can be acquired by requisition for cleaning and preserving the arms."

"All organizations could have improved their appearance by more attention to hair cutting and shaving. Cleanliness and neatness were however for the most part normal. The greatest weakness was noticeable in the position of the soldier and this not alone in his standing position but in the manner of grasping the rifle at the order and in executing 'inspection arms.'"

The inspector criticizes the hats and says that they were worn in a uniform manner and "reflected the individuality of the wearer," while some companies paraded in old leggings when they could have obtained the new upon requisition for the order and in executing "inspection arms."

Col. H. S. Williams, who inspected artillery says that the use of smoke bombs proved instructive and that the men appreciated being able to encamp with State troops.

VIVID WAR PICTURES OF PERMANENT INTEREST

Superb Illustrations in the Book Which We Are Distributing

One of the many valuable features of "The Story of Europe and the Nations at War," which we are distributing to our readers, is comprised in the magnificent collection of historical pictures of current and permanent interest which the book contains. In this collection are photographs of the rulers, great statesmen and great military and naval leaders of all Europe, including both those who have made their names upon world events of the last century leading up to the present conflict, and those who are foremost in the public eye to-day. They show the scenes of great battles of history described in the book, and trace the wonderful developments of modern instruments of warfare from the comparatively crude implements with which the great Napoleon fought his battles and achieved his victories. No similar collection of vivid photographs has ever before been brought together in a single volume. These full-page half-tone engravings are printed on specially finished paper which brings out all the beauty of their execution and details. The illustrations also include a large map in colors.

Be sure to clip the coupon on another page and obtain your copy of this remarkable book containing the history of Europe and the causes and issues of the present war.

QUIT MEAT WHEN KIDNEYS BOTHER

Take a glass of salts if your Back hurts or Bladder troubles you

No man or woman who eats meat regularly can make a mistake by flushing the kidneys occasionally, says a well-known authority. Meat forms uric acid which excites the kidneys, they become overworked from the strain, get sluggish and fail to filter the waste and poison from the blood, then we get sick. Nearly all rheumatism, headaches, liver trouble, nervousness, dizziness, sleeplessness and urinary disorders come from sluggish kidneys.

The moment you feel a dull ache in the kidneys or your back hurts or if the urine is cloudy, offensive, full of sediment, irregular of passage or attended by a sensation of scalding, stop eating meat and get about four ounces of Jad Salts from any pharmacy; take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast and in a few days your kidneys will act fine. This famous salts is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and has been used for generations to flush and stimulate the kidneys, also to neutralize the acids in urine, so it no longer causes irritation, thus ending bladder weakness.

Jad Salts is inexpensive and cannot injure; makes a delightful effervescent lithia-water drink which everyone should take now and then to keep the kidneys clean and active and the blood pure, thereby avoiding serious kidney complications.—Advertisement

ROSE STAHL IN "A PERFECT LADY"
The Henry R. Harris Estate will present Rose Stahl in a new play entitled "A Perfect Lady," at the Majestic, Friday evening. The play is in four acts and was written by Channing Pollock and Renold Wolf. Miss Rose Stahl has long been distinguished as one of the most notable players of the American stage. As a comedienne, she is known and admired throughout the breadth of the land and those admirers are of every walk of life from the humble shop girl to the affluent society leader.

"THE SHEPHERD OF THE HILLS"
A wholesome play, whose author author seems to have equal love for nature and humanity and an intimate knowledge of both is "The Shepherd of the Hills," the dramatization of Harold Bell Wright's famous novel which has been made by Mr. Wright with the assistance of Elsbey W. Reynolds.

"OH, PAPA"
The Henry R. Harris Estate has surrounded Miss Stahl with an exceptional company of players, including Harry C. Browne, Beatrice Neuse, Charles Sturgis, Annie Adams, Agnes Mare, James Cody, Louis Mason and others.—Advertisement

"THE VIOLINIST" shows that a temperamental musician may have the heart and soul of any ordinary man—that he may love and sacrifice unselfishly—is one of the interesting facts pointed out in the development of the action. Incidentally, however, it was the boy's love for music which first brought unhappiness to him and, in the end, achieved his happiness. His sweetheart was separated from him through the villainy of her father, but in after time his own daughter was brought to him through the engaging notes of his instrument.—Advertisement

"THE STOLEN YACHT" LUBIN, AT THE PHOTOPLAY TODAY

"A DREAM OF THE ORIENT" by all odds the most beautiful production ever seen at the Colonial Theater, will bow for its closing performances to-day at that theater, from a star-point talent, beautiful scenery and "cute" girls, this act is a treat, indeed. In brief, the act deals with money, greed, the Red Sea, and a typical Harem, and yet the dances are pretty and clever. On all sides patrons of the Busy Corner are declaring the big headliner an artistic triumph and the best "big act" ever seen in that theater. A bill of entertaining value appears on the same bill, "The Property Man," a rattling comedy in two parts, will also be extended for the last times to-day.—Advertisement

"IN SELF-DEFENSE"
"In Self-Defense" is a detective drama taken out of the conventional setting of the city and planted up in the pines and fresh water of the beautiful atmosphere, the splendid acting of the Imp players combine with a tale of suspense and mystery to make a drama of surpassing interest. The conviction, that the Universal is giving the public superior, better plays than all others, will be conveyed to you when you have seen "In Self-Defense," with its great general including Herbert Brenon, William Welsh, Hobart Henley, Violet Mersereau and William Sherry.—Advertisement

Joyful Anticipation of Motherhood

There is apt to be a latent apprehension of distress to mar the complete joy of expectation. But this is quite overcome by the advice of so many women to use "Mother's Friend." This is an external application designed to soothe the muscles and to thus so relieve the pressure reacting on the nerves, that the natural strain upon the cords and ligaments is not accompanied by those severe pains said to cause nausea, morning sickness and many local distresses. This splendid embrocation is known to a multitude of mothers.

CROSS, FEVERISH, SICK CHILDREN NEED "CALIFORNIA SYRUP OF FIGS"

A coated tongue means sluggish liver and bowels—Listen mother
Your child isn't naturally cross and peevish. See if tongue is coated; this is a sure sign its little stomach, liver and bowels needs a cleansing at once. When listless, pale, feverish, full of cold, breath bad, throat sore, doesn't eat, sleep or act naturally, has sour stomach, diarrhoea, remember a gentle liver and bowel cleansing should always be the first treatment given. Nothing equals "California Syrup of Figs" for children's ills. Give a teaspoonful and in just a few hours all the foul waste, sour bile and fermenting food, clogged in the bowels, passes out of the system and you have a well and playful child again. All children love this harmless fruit laxative and it never fails to effect a good "inside" cleansing. Directions for babies, children of all ages and grown-ups are plainly on each bottle.

Mother, keep it handy in your home. A little given to-day saves a sick child to-morrow, but get the genuine. Ask your druggist for a 50-cent bottle of "California Syrup of Figs." Then look and see that it is made by the "California Fig Syrup Company." We make no cheaper size. Don't be fooled.—Advertisement

"A DREAM OF THE ORIENT" by all odds the most beautiful production ever seen at the Colonial Theater, will bow for its closing performances to-day at that theater, from a star-point talent, beautiful scenery and "cute" girls, this act is a treat, indeed. In brief, the act deals with money, greed, the Red Sea, and a typical Harem, and yet the dances are pretty and clever. On all sides patrons of the Busy Corner are declaring the big headliner an artistic triumph and the best "big act" ever seen in that theater. A bill of entertaining value appears on the same bill, "The Property Man," a rattling comedy in two parts, will also be extended for the last times to-day.—Advertisement

"In Self-Defense" is a detective drama taken out of the conventional setting of the city and planted up in the pines and fresh water of the beautiful atmosphere, the splendid acting of the Imp players combine with a tale of suspense and mystery to make a drama of surpassing interest. The conviction, that the Universal is giving the public superior, better plays than all others, will be conveyed to you when you have seen "In Self-Defense,"
