

Build Up the Merchant Marine, Says Senator Stone

SENATOR WILLIAM STONE

Washington, D. C., Nov. 23.—Advocates of the development of our merchant marine are circulating copies of a recent interview given by Senator William Stone, in which he said, in part: "After the war it will take any one of the countries involved many years to restore its industrial capacity to normal conditions. Meanwhile Europe must come to the United States for supplies and the means of rehabilitation. In this environment one thing looms up of pre-eminent importance—a merchant marine. One of the very greatest of our national needs at this time is a commercial fleet. I think that is the next great problem of Congress, and I believe that it will be so regarded."

FUR FARMING

A manager of a fur farm must have a liking for animals and must be able to make them like him. He must be patient, painstaking, diligent, methodical. Otherwise his efforts will result in failure.

All enclosures should be well built, of good material. Where wire netting is used, it should be the best, that made of drawn steel, galvanized. Carry it far enough below the surface so no animal can dig it out. To set it in concrete two feet or more deep is expensive, but almost an absolute safeguard against escape by burrowing. Protect the top with overhanging board or wire so nothing can climb over; or better yet, floor for the pen entirely with netting.

Be sure the mesh is so small that none of the stock can crawl through, and remember a prisoner striving for liberty is able to twist out of a surprisingly small hole. If in doubt always err on the safe side. Better do a bit extra work and spend a little more money than lose one's furbearers by practicing a false economy. Cleanliness is indispensable. Pure water for drinking and, with milk, for bathing, is very necessary.—Outing.

So Hungry He Could Have Eaten Shoes He Stole, Tells Judge

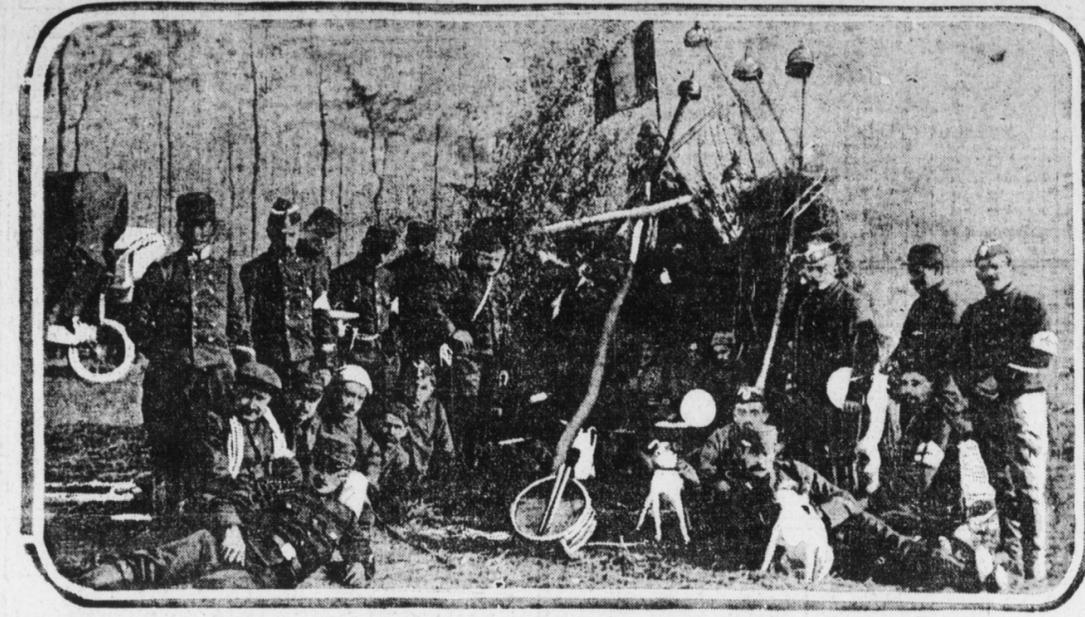

Peter Razian stole a pair of shoes, he told Judge Kunkel to-day, because he was so hungry he could have eaten them.

"Why did you steal?" the court wanted to know. "Well, your honor, I was hungry." "But you couldn't have eaten shoes, could you?" "I'm, well, sir—I was hungry enough."

Razian got a month in jail. TWO GO TO PEN Two penitentiary terms were doled out by President Judge Kunkel this morning, each for from one to three years. Charles E. Danner, who stole four bicycles, and Martin Simmons, who stole a suitcase from a local hotel, were the defendants. Danner has jail and reformatory record. Simmons is the man who told the police that he robbed because he didn't propose to starve.

The separation suit was followed by several other actions in which Mr. Wheeler endeavored to have his wife's alimony of $10,000 reduced.

Free Theater Tickets For Six-foot-two Giants

How tall are you? If, in some unexplainable manner, you have slipped past the conventional six-foot mark and become a young giant of six-foot-two proportions, you can count this your lucky week, for a standing invitation swings from the doors of the Colonial Theater inviting anyone who measures six feet two to enter without buying a ticket. If you happen to be only six feet one, don't try to "pull anything" on the door tender, for there's a stick stands eight feet tall, and your head must come right up to it to prove your height. What's the occasion? Why, Captain George Augur, the eight-footer, who plays "Jack, the Giant Killer" at the Colonial, is to be the host of all the "giants" in town. But don't try to "pull" anything on the captain. If he stands eight feet tall, you can imagine what kind of a fist he is able to double up, and the captain stands right by the yardstick all the time to see that those who go under the measure as candidates for free admission are not standing on their toes or resorting to some other diabolical trick like wearing double thick insoles. But if you are really six-foot-two, it's a walk-in for you at the Colonial the early half of the week.

Plan to Abandon Mexico City Is Frustrated by General Lucio Blanco

Washington, Nov. 23.—Plans for an eleventh hour abandonment of Mexico City to the Zapata forces were frustrated by General Lucio Blanco, according to reports received to-day at the State Department from its agents. General Carranza ordered the capital evacuated last Friday, so that Zapata forces could enter, at the same time tearing up the railroad tracks north of Mexico City to delay the Villa troops. One of the official reports speak of "three mediated atrocities" and an intention to leave the capital to be sacked. General Obregon, according to the official reports ordered General Blanco to accompany him from the city, but the latter declined to obey his superior officers, saying he would not be a party to the plan. Obregon left after a serious argument with Blanco who then took full command and began to police the city and appoint municipal officers who arranged for protection against disorders.

UNITED STATES TO LEARN IF NEUTRALITY IS BEING VIOLATED

New York, Nov. 23.—United States secret service agents endeavored to-day to learn if the neutrality of the United States in the European war had been violated by sending wireless messages from a station under surveillance in Bar Harbor, Me., to German or German war vessels in the Atlantic. The station under surveillance is said to be the private plant of Ernesto G. Alessandro Fabbri, brothers, prominent in New York society.

OUTCOME OF FIGHTING IN RUSSIAN POLAND NOT KNOWN

London, Nov. 23, 11:55 a. m.—Desperate fighting in Russian Poland, but without details as to the outcome, and a resumption of similar activity in West Flanders are the outstanding features to-day in the areas of military operations. The flurry caused by the attack of British aviators on the Zeppelin headquarters at Friedrichshafen has not yet subsided and the amount of comment on this incident appearing in both the German and the English press seems to be out of all proportion to the real damage inflicted.

GERMANS LOST 1,175,000 MEN

Special to The Telegraph London, Nov. 23.—Hilaire Belloc, the writer on military affairs, calculates that up to the middle of October the Germans suffered a loss of 1,175,000 men from "wastage." This includes men killed, wounded, captured and incapacitated. He states that the figure seems startlingly large, but that the estimate has been worked out on a basis of irreducible minimums and from the best military experience.

SENTENCES A DOZEN

More than a dozen defendants, who pleaded guilty to larceny, assault and battery, failure to support their wives, etc., were sentenced by President Judge Kunkel this morning.

Zoline, New Motor Car Fuel, Will Be Placed on Markets at Once

Special to The Telegraph Indianapolis, Ind., Nov. 23.—Zoline, the new motorcar fuel that has been under a 1,000-mile test at the Indianapolis motor speedway, proved to be a complete success, and it will be manufactured and put on the market with the expectation that it will take the place of gasoline throughout the country. The disassembling of the Marmon car, which was used in making the test showed that there were no ill effects from the chemicals that enter into the manufacture of the new fuel, and as the car averaged 50 miles an hour for 20 hours and could have made even a greater mileage, the test is regarded as perfect in every particular. Zoline can be made for less than two cents per gallon.

Prisoners in Alien Camp Make Desperate Effort to Escape; Five Killed

London, Nov. 23, 9:50 A. M.—The Manchester Guardian, referring to the rioting last Thursday in the alien detention camp on the Isle of Man in which five prisoners were killed and twelve wounded, says this outbreak was due not merely to discontent with the food and treatment given them, but was part of a desperate plan of the prisoners to escape from the camp with the ultimate hope of seizing a vessel in the harbor and making their way to some neutral country. The prisoners desired the moment a volley was fired into their midst.

MONEY POURING IN FOR BELGIAN FOLK

The $1,900 Mark Was Passed To-day and It Is Expected More Will Come in Tomorrow

Money for the purchase of food to be sent to the starving Belgians by the Thakenship ship, which will sail from Philadelphia within a few days, is pouring in at the office of the Telegraph. At an early hour to-day the $1,900 mark was passed and it is expected that the $2,000 mark will be passed to-morrow.

A special appeal was made to-day from Philadelphia in behalf of the babies in Belgium. The appeal is made in this language:

"It is for the babies of Belgium—the suffering little innocent victims of the great war—that the last appeal to Philadelphia to fill the Thakenship ship is made. Men, women and children—in fact, everybody over five years of age—can eat the bread, the cereals and the canned goods which are being sent by the charitable people of this Philadelphia. The babies must have just one thing—milk."

The German armies, tramping through the fields and pastures of Belgium, have seized all the cattle and there is no milk. Men and women are suffering there, but they can at least get some little bread and some fruit to keep them going until the American help comes. But the babies can get nothing.

"Fresh milk cannot be sent on a 17-day voyage, but the newer processes of condensing make the modern condensed milk almost as good as the fresh product. Therefore it is imperative that condensed milk and plenty of it be sent."

One of the gifts of cash was $24 from the attaches of the Pennsylvania Railroad at Union Station. It was for the quick purchase of food and the money is on the way to the committee headquarters in Philadelphia.

Two letters of special interest containing contributions came, as follows: Duncannon, Pa., Nov. 21, 1914. German Singer Says Irish Would Fight For Kaiser

Copyright 1914 by MME. SCHUMANN-HEINK

New York, Nov. 23.—"There are in New York alone 100,000 Irishmen ready to go over to Germany at the first opportunity and fight against the allies." This statement was made by Mme. Schumann-Heink, the famous prima donna, in admitting that she had written a pro-German letter published over her signature in the Berlin Tageblatt. "I've been here for sixteen years," she said, "and am a loyal American. But blood is thicker than water. Half my family has already been wiped out in this war, and you cannot criticize me if my sympathies lean strongly toward the Fatherland."

NAVAL FIGHTING GROUND BETWEEN THE TURKS AND THE ALLIES

The Dardanelles, the Sea of Marmora, and the Bosphorus will be the scene of mighty naval battles between the fortifications of the Turks and the fleets of the allies. For some time the British and French fleets have bombarded the fortifications at the Dardanelles, but so far there has been no result. It is not known if battleships with heavy guns have been brought to the scene. The walls of Constantinople and the forts to protect that city from the Russian fleet in the Black Sea are not sufficient, it is believed, to withstand a heavy attack. If the allied fleets go through the Dardanelles and the Sea of Marmora it is believed Constantinople will fall.
