Homelike Rooms

There are rooms to be had in Harrisburg possessing all the comforts which a young man may have been accustomed to in his own home. Those who place these rooms in their houses at the disposal of young men realize that after a man has done a hard day's work downtown his home surroundings must be conducive to rest.

Those who place these rooms in their houses at the disposal of young men realize that after a man has done a hard day's work downtown his home surroundings must be conducive to rest.

If you are looking for a room with all the comforts of home and do not find it listed in to-night's Telegraph, run an ad of your own to-morrow, telling what you want in a room and in what section of the city you prefer to live.

You will get answers, plenty of them. Have them addressed in care of the Telegraph, if you prefer.

WILL HONOR MILEAGE BOOKS

Washington, Nov. 24. - Notice given by the New York Central Lines that mileage books sold before October 1, 1914, at the rate of $1.00 per mile, will not be honored for passage, has been withdrawn. Although the railroad proposed to redeem the unused portions of such books, the Interstate Commerce Commission suspended its regulation holding it was a violation of the contract of purchase. The railroad, however, has agreed to the regulation and the commission vacated its order of suspension.
