What We Say It Is, It Is

Your Diamond Opportunity

The war has stopped Diamond imports and regardless of its outcome conditions in the Diamond industry will not be on a normal footing for some time thereafter.

We were fortunate in having a well selected stock of Diamonds on hand. Prices were established before the war began and we have made a big price changes since, although importers have made two sharp advances.

You can buy a Diamond of the first water—a flawless stone perfectly cut—for $20. Larger stones are priced up to $450.

You can buy now at Diener's fine Diamonds for less than prevailing market prices. This is a rare Christmas present opportunity. Diamonds and other gifts selected now will be held until Christmas on payment of a small deposit.

PARTHEMORE-MOORE BRIDAL AT PARSONAGE

MRS HERBERT PARTHEMORE

MISS MARY MEYERS MAKES HER DEBUT

Handsome Appointed Tea to Be Followed by Dinner Dance Tonight

Festoons of southern smilax and a profusion of ferns and chrysanthemums prevailed in the decorations of the Meyers residence at 213 North Front street for the tea this afternoon from 4 to 6 o'clock given by Mr. and Mrs. William K. Meyers to introduce their daughter, Miss Mary Elizabeth Meyers, one of the most charming debutantes. Floral gifts from far and near sent to Miss Meyers by her friends added their beauty and fragrance to the festal scene. In the receiving line were Mr. and Mrs. Meyers, the latter charming in white satin with overdress of gold embroidered chiffon and pearl garland; Miss Meyers in a frock of white charmeuse with draperies of Mungot thread lace, with trimming of iridescent sequins, and carrying bouquets from her own gifts; Miss Dora Wickersham Co., Miss Eleanor Neale Clark, Miss Constance Ferriday, Miss Eleanor Etter and Miss Louise Carney.

In the tea room, where the appointments were of pink, the table centerpiece was of Killarney roses and pink-capped candelabra. Mrs. George Kunkel and Mrs. William B. McCaleb presided over the tea, while Miss Jennie Dull and Mrs. E. F. Africa poured chocolate. Assisting were Mrs. George Ross, of Philadelphia; Mrs. J. Austin Brandt, Mrs. Meade D. Detweiler, Mrs. Ellis L. Munna, of Alabama; Miss Mary Mitchell, Miss Caroline Weiss, Miss Minster, Miss Myrvynne Leason, Miss Eleanor Darling, Miss Margaret McLain, Miss Frances Morrison, Miss Helen Hammond, Miss Emily Bailey, Miss Francis Bailey, Miss Sarah Hastings, Miss Mary Elizabeth Detweiler, Miss Janet Sawyer, Miss Jennette Sheaffer, Miss Audrey Allen, Miss Edwina King, Miss Christine Hopkins, Miss Eleanor Smith, Miss Emmeline Schell, Miss Virginia Stair, of York.

PRETTY BRIDE OF THANKSGIVING EVE

Miss Jean E. Moore and Herbert Parthemore Married by the Rev. Dr. D. S. Shoop

Miss Jean E. Moore, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. I. N. Armstrong, of 1841 Fulton street, and Herbert S. Parthemore, of this city, were quietly married Wednesday evening, November 25, at 1704 Green street, the residence of the Rev. Dr. D. S. Shoop, a retired minister of the Church of God. The ceremony was performed at 8 o'clock and there were no attendants. The bride wore a tailored suit of blue cloth with velvet hat to harmonize and a corsage bouquet of California violets. Mr. and Mrs. Parthemore immediately went to their new home at 213 Harris street and started housekeeping. The bride has been connected with the dress goods department of the Dives, Pomeroy & Stewart stores in this city and Mr. Parthemore, a son of Mr. and Mrs. L. H. Parthemore, of 712 North Third street, is employed at the Walk Over shoe store.

New Complexion Cream Produces Amazing Results
Shiny Skin Disappears Instantly
Druggists everywhere are recommending a new liquid complexion cream made partly of pure, rich, heavy olive oil and they report that there is a tremendous demand for it because one or two applications completely clears up the skin and gives it that fresh, clear, youthful look that all women must have who desire to be fascinating and beautiful.
Ask for Cream Vee; it's a new, inexpensive cream that banishes crow's feet, removes wrinkles, makes red spots, blackheads and blemishes disappear and being a flesh builder fills out the hollow places and makes the face shapely and attractive.
It's the most delightful cream to use that can be obtained and for chapping and irritation it acts with marvelous quickness and best of all it will not produce hair growth. Golden Seal Drug Store can supply you.—Advertisement.

What the Shops Are Showing
Soft, low lights make cozy homes, and anyone who appreciates beauty will delight in the new Japanese wicker lamps shown in special holiday assortment at the Studebaker Grocery Store, State and Second streets. The newest effects in Circassian walnut colorings are among this collection and the shades of deep yellow silk cast a delightfully soft mellow light. Anything from the all desk or boudoir lamps to the large library lamps may be found at the Studebaker Store with shades to harmonize with any color scheme, and the prices range from $4.00 to $10.00.

"We Got a Victrola For Christmas"
You can picture with what delight the little ones would welcome such a gift. They know the pleasure that it brings. They know that the pleasure will last all year. And what could please them more?
If you have thought of giving the family a Victrola for Christmas, you better select the instrument at this time. The demand will be great. If you do not know what to give the family, better stop in and allow us to show you the various styles ranging from $15.00 to $200.00.
