Great Interest Centers About the Newly Arrived Toys

And there are as many novelties as we have ever had heretofore in spite of the difficulty of getting shipments here from Germany. It will be impossible to duplicate about 75 per cent. of the toys now in the display, so if you want to choose prudently it will pay you to buy early.

RUSSIANS AT CRACOW FORTS

Rotterdam, via London, Nov. 30, 10.08 A. M.—The newspaper Maas-hede learns that Queen Elizabeth of Belgium is confined to bed, her illness being due to overwork in the Red Cross service.

CANADIAN CITIES RELIEVED
Seattle, Wash., Nov. 30.—With all five of the German cruisers in the Pacific accounted for in Southern waters, the British cities of Victoria, Vancouver and Prince Rupert have recovered from the feeling of uneasiness which prevailed when the Scharnhorst, Gneisenau, Leipzig, Dresden and Nürnberg were reported at several places in North American waters.

CENSOR BEATS REPORTERS
Boston, Nov. 30.—The British steamship Kabinga, captured by the German cruiser Emden and saved from being sunk by the presence aboard of the captain's wife and son arrived last night from Calcutta, several days overdue as a result of storms. Newspaper reporters on a chartered tug went down to the Kabinga to learn from the captain's wife details concerning the gallantry of Captain Von Mueller of the Emden in taking the ship over to her. The British censor apparently accorded a beat over the reporters. When the newspaper tug came alongside interviews were refused.

BRITISH WARSHIPS ACTIVE
Interfere With Wireless Operators on American Ships
New York, Nov. 30.—At least twelve British warships are now patrolling the Atlantic between New York and the Panama Canal, sweeping the seas with their wireless, crowding ordinary commercial radior from the air, and keeping close check on all forms of shipping, according to wireless operators on the steamship Ancon that arrived here today from Cristobal. The wireless activity of these war vessels, the operators said, is causing great inconvenience to the commercial work of American vessels. "These warships" the apparently operator said, "pay no attention to the rules governing wireless operations."

LITTLE DOING IN FRANCE
Only Minor Engagements Between Allies and the Germans
Paris, Nov. 30, 2.50 P. M.—The French official communication given out in Paris this afternoon is as follows: "The Belgium the enemy is remaining on the defensive, heavy fire has been feeble, and we have made progress at certain points. In the vicinity of Y we hold securely the positions we occupied November 28. "In the region of Soissons there has been an intermittent artillery fire directed against the town. In the Argonne several attacks in the town of Dagelle were repulsed by our troops. There has been a heavy fog on the heights on the Meuse. In the Woivre district the enemy bombarded the forest of Apremont, but without result. There is nothing to report in the Vosges."

Eleven Hunters Dead and 12 Hurt, Result of Minnesota Deer Hunts
Duluth, Minn., Nov. 30.—Eleven hunters dead and twelve wounded is the toll of this year's hunting season in Minnesota. The period is twenty days and this is the last day. The number of deer and moose killed is the largest in the records of the game warden's department. Game has been abundant in far-away localities, but scarce where it abounded in former years. Members of the Northwestern Gun Club are considering a number of recommendations for shortening the season of game to ten days.

WISCONSIN IS OPPOSED TO INVESTIGATION OF ARMY
Washington, Nov. 30.—Representative Gardner, of Massachusetts, will call at the White House to-morrow to ask for an engagement with President Wilson to discuss his resolution for an investigation into the military preparedness of the country. President Wilson is expected to grant the engagement but is understood to be opposed to the investigation.

DOZEN "HARDSCRABLE" OWNERS FILE CLAIMS
Nearly a dozen "Hardscrable" property owners have already notified City Solicitor D. S. Seltz, of the amounts of damages they will expect from the city for the condemnation of their homes on the western side of Front street, incident to the opening of the highway between Herr and Calder. There are some fifty properties affected and the owners have until December 10 to file their claims.

Here's a Chance For City to Get a Diver at No Expense

Captain Sorcho Offers Services Gratuitously to Board of Public Works For River Dam Job

Captain Louis Sorcho, the celebrated deep sea diver who went down to explore the sunken Maine as an employee of the government, and who is in Harrisburg this week as a feature of the Orpheum Theater, this afternoon offered his services to the local Board of Public Works for service in diving in the Susquehanna for any underwater work needed in connection with the building of the river dam.

Not long ago the Board of Public Works was compelled to import a diver, suit and all, to help out at the dam. Captain Sorcho to-day made it plain to the board that anything that needed to be done in that line during the campaign just closed at the Capitol to-day, showing that $47,679.95 had been contributed and $47,067.72 expended, leaving a balance of $612.23 on hand.

STATEMENTS ARE FILED AT CAPITOL
Richard Campion, treasurer of the Pennsylvania Protective Union, to-day filed the statement of the receipts and expenditures of that organization in the campaign just closed at the Capitol to-day, showing that $47,679.95 had been contributed and $47,067.72 expended, leaving a balance of $612.23 on hand.

GENERAL CABALLERO JOINS VILLA'S ARMY
Reported That Carranza Commander Has Declared Himself Provisional President
Washington, Nov. 30.—Official dispatches to-day confirmed earlier reports that General Luis Caballero, governor of Tamaulipas, has joined the forces of Villa. As he is in control of Tampico, the peaceful entry of the troops which have been marching eastward from San Luis Potosi is now expected. Caballero has been claimed by both the Carranza and Villa factions. Caballero has telegraphed to Gutierrez his allegiance to the Aguascalientes convention.

CASTORIA For Infants and Children, The Kind You Have Always Bought

"THE DUMMY" AT MAJESTIC TOMORROW EVENING, A DETECTIVE COMEDY

This young sleuth Barney, of "The Dummy," has completely captured the affections of his public and the real secret of the tremendous success of the play is the unexpected and lovable quality of the fun in it. The players who constitute the famous New York cast that has been at the Hudson theater during the long run of "The Dummy," are Ernest Trues, who plays the "boy detective," Edward Ellis, whose "sister" is a feature of the play; beautiful Jane Oaker, who plays Rose; Joseph Brennan, the Babbling; Edith Shayne, Gus Forbes, H. A. LaMotte, Jos. R. Caffry, John Winthrop, Nicholas Judels and little Joyce Fair. The crisp and quick-fire performances the New York company has been giving all season are a guarantee of the balance and perfection of the entertainment to be offered here by "The Dummy," which comes to the Majestic to-morrow evening.—Advertisement.
