

Central Pennsylvania News

GROUND PREPARED FOR TABERNACLE

Thirty-five Volunteers Start Work For Campaign at Mechanicsburg

Special to The Telegraph
Mechanicsburg, Pa., Nov. 30.—On Saturday morning the ground was leveled preparatory to the erection of the tabernacle for the Miller evangelistic campaign on the corner of Arch and Keller streets. About thirty-five men volunteered their services when the Rev. Charles F. Raach stated the object of the gathering. The Rev. George Fulton led in prayer, following which the Rev. L. M. Dice put the first spade in the ground. Ministers and laymen worked alike and at noon the work was completed. A union prayer service will be held in the Methodist Episcopal Church on Wednesday night and cottage prayer meetings will begin on Friday night. Special trolley cars will convey a large delegation to the Stough meeting in Harrisburg to-morrow night.

The Rev. S. C. Swallow, D. D., preached to a crowded auditorium in the Church of God yesterday afternoon. He spoke on the subject "Evangelism—Old and New." Nearly all of the churches of the town are co-operating in the movement.

TWO WEDDINGS AT CLEONA

Special to The Telegraph
Anville, Pa., Nov. 30.—The Rev. Phares Gible, of College avenue, pastor of the United Brethren Church of Cleona, on Saturday performed two wedding ceremonies. Samuel B. Glick, living west of Anville, and Miss Elizabeth Shaeffer were married in the morning and Charles Walmer and Miss Nancy M. Long, both of Anville, in the evening.

CONTRIBUTIONS FOR BELGIANS

Special to The Telegraph
Anville, Pa., Nov. 30.—Last week the Sunshine Class of the United Brethren Sunday School of which Mrs. John Daugherty is the teacher, sent a large supply of absorbent cotton to the Belgian sufferers. A big number of donations has been contributed by the people of Anville this past week.

SHOT RED-TAILED HAWK

Special to The Telegraph
Anville, Pa., Nov. 30.—Albert J. Shenk, while driving the Shenk baker team of this place in the vicinity of Bindnaugles Church on Saturday, shot the largest red-tailed hawk that has ever been seen in this vicinity. The bird measured forty inches from tip to tip of wing.

COWS AND HOGS KILLED

Special to The Telegraph
Dillsburg, Pa., Nov. 30.—On Saturday members of the State and Federal Livestock Sanitary Board killed two cows and sixteen head of hogs belonging to Robert Potzman, of Carroll township, on account of having been infected with the foot and mouth disease.

Recent Deaths in Central Pennsylvania

Elizabethville.—Mrs. Sarah Shuman, a former resident of this place, died at the home of her son-in-law, William Forney, near Fisherville, on Saturday morning, of dropsy. For many years she resided in West Main street, where her husband died some years ago. She lived to be 84 years old and is survived by one daughter, Mrs. Forney. Funeral will be held to-morrow morning, with services and burial at Fetterhoff's Church west of Fisherville.

Falmouth.—Ira Dibeiler, 84 years old, the oldest resident, died Saturday night. He was for many years a lock-tender on the old canal and member of the United Brethren Church. His widow, six children, thirteen grandchildren and sixteen great-grandchildren survive.

Sat. Harbor.—Mrs. Adam Herr, 45 years old, died Saturday from the effects of a stroke. Besides her husband, two children, a brother and a sister survive.

Lancaster.—Miss Anna M. Hutchinson died at the home of her sister in Philadelphia, where she went on a visit. She was a member of the Sacred Heart Church and a fine singer. She is survived by a number of brothers and sisters.

Abbeyville.—Albert C. Constain, 50 years old, died Saturday. For many years he was a driver for the Adams Express Company. Three children survive.

Wedding Ceremonies in Central Pennsylvania

Special to The Telegraph
Columbia.—Harry Yabonovitz, a well-known shoemaker of this place, and Miss Etta Fritz, of New York, were married in the latter city by Rabbi Grammatel.

Columbia.—Frank D. Stauffer, operator and ticket agent of the Philadelphia and Reading Railway here, and Mrs. Lydia Metz Caldwell were united in marriage at the parsonage of St. John's Lutheran Church by the pastor, the Rev. George W. Gensler.

Maricetta.—At the parsonage of the First Methodist Episcopal Church, Saturday evening, the pastor, the Rev. H. H. Poticher, united in marriage Miss Kathryn McBride and Myers M. Sargent, both of this place.

McKnightstown.—At a pretty wedding at the home of the bride, Miss Alma K. Sowers and Paul G. Newman were married on Thanksgiving Day by the Rev. D. T. Koser, of Arendtsburg.

Sunbury.—William D. Bastian, of Lewisburg, and Miss Susannah Eden, of Sunbury, were married here by the Rev. Frank G. Yost, of the Second United Evangelical Church.

Sunbury.—Ross Lyons, of Easton, and Miss Gertrude Lyons, of Sunbury, were married here by the Rev. John M. Francis, of Zion Lutheran Church.

LITERARY SOCIETY MEETING

Special to The Telegraph
Blain, Pa., Nov. 30.—On Friday the Literary Society of the High School rendered a splendid program. Miss Josephine Shaeffer and Miss Ethel Phenicle gave recitations and James Neidich and Miss Ethel Will select readings. Miss Ruth Pryor and Miss Edith Bistline sang a duet. The affirmative side won the debate on the question, "Resolved, That You Gain More Information by Reading Than by Traveling." Speakers were Miss Belva Wentz and Miss Lourene Thomas, affirmative, and Miss Cleo Lehman and Warren Shumaker, negative. The judges were Miss Josephine Shaeffer, Miss Anna L. Fetro and Miss Myrtle Shuman.

NEW BAKING PLANT OPENED AT SUNBURY

15,000 People, Including Employees of West Shore Bakery Attend Ceremonies

Special to The Telegraph
Sunbury, Pa., Nov. 30.—More than 15,000 persons crowded and surged through the new building of the Sunbury Baking Company, a firm which also owns a plant at Lemoyne, Pa., on Saturday night, when the opening was held. Gaskin's band played a concert and a parade was held in the city. Delivery wagons, a truck, a big automobile and a fire engine, the firm gave as prizes, took part. At the big building, luncheon, consisting of ham, coffee, sandwiches and cakes were served.

This firm when it came to Sunbury bought a lot without asking anyone's help and put a $50,000 plant on it.

WEST SHORE EMPLOYEES PRESENT

Lemoyne, Pa., Nov. 30.—Employees of the West Shore Bakery enjoyed a long automobile ride to Sunbury Saturday afternoon and attended the opening of the Sunbury Baking Company's new plant. Those in the party were: Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Hoerner, Mr. and Mrs. Ben Brunner, Miss Catherine Kobler, Miss Anna Witmer, Messrs. John May, Wilbur Hartman, Harvey Miller, Harry Slothower, John Fowler, Harold Bushey, Charles Hammond, Miles Fencil, Charles Chapman and Earl Baker.

The plant which is the largest and most finely equipped bakery in the northern part of the State is controlled by L. M. Bricker, J. A. Fryer, W. E. Bushey and Bruce R. Lefever, all Lemoyne men.

BIBLE CLASS SOCIAL

Special to The Telegraph
Dauphin, Pa., Nov. 30.—On Saturday evening the Bible Class of the Lutheran Sunday School gave a social to the members of the church, Luther League and Sunday School. A program, which was rendered in the church, consisted of a piano solo by Miss Oneeda Fertig, recitation by Miss Christina Long, vocal duet by the Misses Ellen Feaser and Susan Jackson, recitation by Ellen Feaser, vocal solo by Prof. Miles C. Hummer and a recitation by Susan Jackson. Afterwards refreshments were served in the Sunday School room to about fifty people.

LEBANON CHRISTMAS TREE

Quittapahilla Forest, Tall Cedars of Lebanon, Take Charge
Special to The Telegraph
Lebanon, Pa., Nov. 30.—Children of the city were made glad on Monday by the announcement that there will be a public Christmas tree and a public Christmas festival despite the fact that the project appeared to have been dropped. Last year the public Christmas tree was inaugurated by Mayor Longenecker and pushed to a successful and happy conclusion. It was recently announced, however, that they will be unable to repeat the movement this year, but the members of Quittapahilla Forest, No. 25, Tall Cedars of Lebanon, have volunteered to take the matter in charge, and a committee will be appointed in a few days to make the necessary arrangements.

EVANGELIST AND BRIDE GIVEN GREAT RECEPTION AT COLUMBIA

Special to The Telegraph
Columbia, Pa., Nov. 30.—The Rev. James B. McHenry, assistant of the Nicholson-Hemmering evangelistic party, and Mrs. Cora A. Yost, of Tanawana, were given the highest honors at the reception at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Williams, where the clergy men and prominent lay workers of the recent campaign here assembled to greet them. The couple was the widow of the Rev. W. W. Yost, a former pastor of Lancaster, and is well known throughout the Evangelical Church.

THANK OFFERING RECEIVED

Special to The Telegraph
Dauphin, Pa., Nov. 30.—Yesterday the Presbyterian Church, as has been the custom for several years, received as a thank offering eighty-two dollars, fifty of which was given by the Sunday School. The class, taught by Miss Margaret Brooks and consisting of 170 girls, gave the highest amount, $24. This money is for the benefit of the church. The amount collected this year is greater than ever before.

THREE TRIMMER FALLS

Special to The Telegraph
Mechanicsburg, Pa., Nov. 30.—While trimming trees surrounding St. Paul's Reformed Church on Saturday Earl Swanger fell from the ladder, caught in the branches of the tree and finally landed on the ground, a distance of one foot. He sustained internal injuries and was removed to his home.

PAGEANT IN CHURCH

Special to The Telegraph
Mechanicsburg, Pa., Nov. 30.—A pageant entitled "The Torch Bearers" will be presented in the Methodist Episcopal Church on Thursday, December 3, under the direction of Miss Elizabeth Campbell. Seventy-five persons in costume will be in the cast, furnishing an impressive and interesting scene. A silver offering will be lifted for the benefit of the Standard Bearers.

LECTURE ON PALESTINE

Special to The Telegraph
Mechanicsburg, Pa., Nov. 30.—This evening a stereoscopic lecture on "The Holy Land" will be given in Trinity Lutheran Church by the Rev. Dr. T. C. Billheimer, of Gettysburg. It includes about sixty slides of the important places and scenes in Palestine. The lecture is given under the auspices of the Lutheran Brotherhood.

INTEREST IN REVIVAL SERVICES

Special to The Telegraph
Blain, Pa., Nov. 30.—A growing interest is being manifested in the revival held nightly in the Methodist Episcopal Church. The pastor, the Rev. Thomas R. Gibson, will be assisted this week in the services by the Rev. George Comp, of Elliottsburg.

CHURCH MEMBERSHIP INCREASE

Special to The Telegraph
Mechanicsburg, Pa., Nov. 30.—A class of twelve persons was received into church membership in the Methodist Episcopal Church yesterday by the pastor, the Rev. J. J. Resh, following several weeks' evangelistic service. Seven other classes were received previously.

WEST SHORE NEWS

FUNERAL OF MRS. CLESS

Enola, Pa., Nov. 30.—Funeral services were conducted in the Zion Evangelical Lutheran Church, Enola, on Saturday afternoon over the remains of the late Mrs. Charles H. Cless. Burial was made in the Paxtang Cemetery, Harrisburg.

COMING WITH BAND

Enola, Pa., Nov. 30.—Enola P. R. R. Y. M. C. A. band of forty-eight pieces will accompany the citizens of Enola to the Stough tabernacle on Wednesday evening.

P. O. S. OF A MEETING

Enola, Pa., Nov. 30.—Washington Camp, No. 680, of the P. O. S. of A. of Enola will hold a meeting in the rooms of the Enola Y. M. C. A. on Tuesday evening at 7:30 p. m.

BIG HOGS KILLED

Enola, Pa., Nov. 30.—John M. Boyd and Mike Comicelli, of South Enola, killed four large hogs on Friday which weighed 1155 pounds, dressed, producing eight cans of lard.

SUNDAY SCHOOL MEETING

New Cumberland, Pa., Nov. 30.—Thursday, December 10, the Sunday School Association will hold a meeting in Daughman Memorial Methodist Church. There will be a morning, afternoon and evening session. Committees were appointed to secure homes for the delegates.

FIREMEN TO ELECT

New Cumberland, Pa., Nov. 30.—This evening the Citizens' Hose Company will meet and elect officers for the coming year.

ENTERTAINED AT DINNER

New Cumberland, Pa., Nov. 30.—Mrs. R. L. Beckley entertained the following guests at dinner at her home at Hillside on Friday evening: Lieutenant Chester A. Beckley, of the U. S. S. Mohawk; Miss Helen Zeigler and Miss Mary Bond, of York, and Miss Margie McVior, of New Cumberland.

ATTENDED STEELTON DINNER

New Cumberland, Pa., Nov. 30.—Mrs. Henry Mossey attended a dinner at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Shelly at Steelton yesterday, which was held in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Berger, of Nebraska.

HORSE BITES OFF MAN'S LIP

Special to The Telegraph
Gettysburg, Pa., Nov. 30.—Hamilton Bucher, of Steinwehr avenue, who is employed at the Gettysburg Ice and Storage Company, had the misfortune of having his upper lip torn off when one of their large draught horses snapped at him, catching him by the mustache with the above result. Mr. Bucher lost the sight of one eye less than a year ago.

Saw Mill Took Off His Shoes and Stockings

Special to The Telegraph
New Germantown, Pa., Nov. 30.—David Minter, the son of a member of the Mumper Brothers, lumbermen, who operate a sawmill on the Hite farm four miles west of this place, narrowly escaped death on Thursday. While running the saw the belt attached to the carriage caught in Mr. Mumper's clothes, stripping them all off, even the shoes and stockings from his feet. He escaped without injury except a few scratches on his legs.

FIRE IN CAPE

Special to The Telegraph
Columbia, Pa., Nov. 30.—Some excitement was caused in the center of the business section here Saturday afternoon, when two ladies seated at a dining table of John C. Nissley's cafe, dining in the cafe, were over their heads. An overheated pipe between the first and second floors, was found to have caused the blaze.

TRACTORS FOR WAR PURPOSES

Waynesboro, Pa., Nov. 30.—Emerison-Brantingham Implement Company here is making a large number of tractors for the Russian government. The tractors are to be used to drag heavy field guns to the front, instead of pulling peaceful plows, which has been their sole function heretofore.

WEDDING AT BALTIMORE

Waynesboro, Pa., Nov. 30.—Mrs. James Stottmeyer, Buena Vista, near Waynesboro, attended the wedding in Baltimore of her daughter, Miss Annie M. Stottmeyer, who was married to John W. Colton, that city, Saturday morning.

SHOT BY COMPANION

Waynesboro, Pa., Nov. 30.—Irvin M. Herman, Chambersburg, a Chambersburg and Gettysburg trolley motor-man, was accidentally shot in the face by a hunting companion, John West, while hunting near Elderslie. Five shot were imbedded in Herman's face, one below the eye and several in the hand.

TWO YEARS FOR HORSE STEALING

Columbia, Pa., Nov. 30.—Thomas Cloud, formerly of this place, pleaded guilty in court Saturday of stealing two horses and was sentenced to serve two years in jail and pay a fine of one hundred dollars.

MURDERER ARRESTED

Asheboro, N. C., Nov. 30.—Lowe Daniels, charged with killing his sister, Cora Daniels; his sister-in-law, Ethel Huber, and Edward Varner, a visitor, and probably fatally wounding his wife at their home near here on Saturday night, to-day was taken to the scene of the crime for a preliminary examination. He had been in jail here since yesterday but would say nothing.

STRIKE DELAYS SHACKLETON

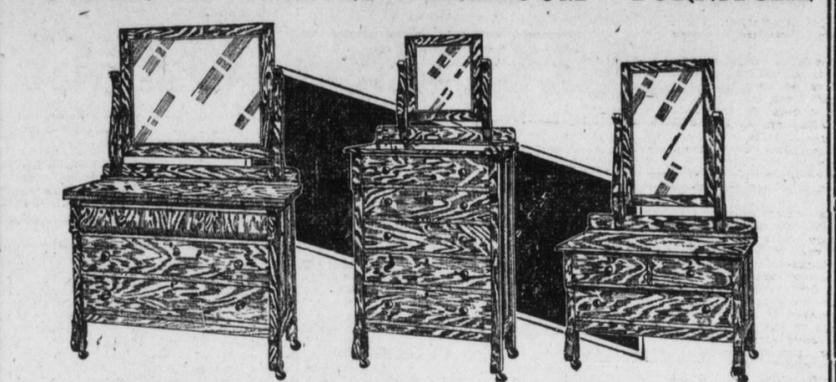

By Associated Press
London, Nov. 30, 7 a. m.—A dispatch from the Telegram Company from Sydney, N. S. W., states that a strike in the dockyards has delayed the departure of the Antarctic ship Aurora, which is to carry a section of Sir Ernest Shackleton's Antarctic expedition and that the indications are that Shackleton will not start on his trans-Antarctic journey until next year.

SEVERE RHEUMATIC PAINS DISAPPEAR

Rheumatism depends on an acid in the blood, which affects the muscles and joints, producing inflammation, stiffness and pain. This acid gets into the blood through some defect in the digestive process.

Hood's Sarsaparilla, the old-time blood tonic, is very successful in the treatment of rheumatism. It acts directly, with purifying effect, on the blood, and improves the digestion. Don't delay. Get Hood's to-day.—Advertisement.

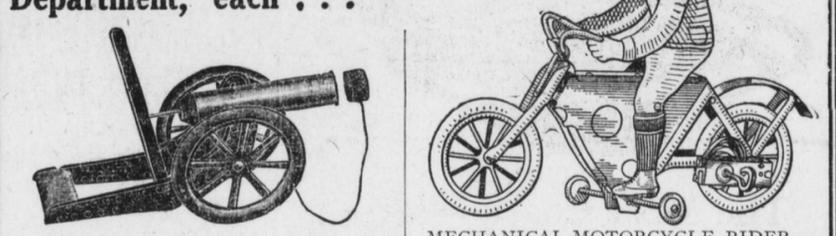

WONDERFUL VALUES BEDROOM FURNITURE

Finished dull mahogany, pure colonial design, perfectly matched, scroll feet, good cabinet work, re-enforced tops. You can select one piece or the set.

Dresser, $23. Princess Dresser, $21. Chiffonier, $19.

Two examples of the low prices in our Toy Department, each ... 19c

CANNON—all metal, easily operated, and the delight of any boy. Made to sell for 50c. Our price ... 19c

MECHANICAL MOTORCYCLE RIDER — the most entertaining toy. Wind it up and it runs for a long time. Wonderful value, packed in a strong box. Our price ... 19c Toys will not be sent C. O. D., wrapped or delivered.

Toy Department

The greater part of our first floor has been converted into a Toy Department. It's easy to get to and a comfortable place to make your selections. We operate a Toy Department to assist our customers in making a Merry Christmas for the little ones at the LEAST expense. We don't figure a profit on this Department, and, therefore, you will find our prices on toys the LOWEST in the city—saving you as much as ONE-HALF.

BURNS & CO.

Cash or Credit 28-30-32 S. Second St.

LITERARY SOCIETY FORMED

Special to The Telegraph
Blain, Pa., Nov. 30.—Pine Grove Literary Society has been organized, as follows: Roy Arnold, president; Miss Lillian Kistler, secretary; Miss Burnadette Nesbit, treasurer. The question for debate on the first meeting of the society on December 11 is "Resolved, That Intemperance Has Caused More Sorrow Than War."

LITTLE PORKER GREW BIG

Special to The Telegraph
Blain, Pa., Nov. 30.—John Stum has just slaughtered a prize hog. One year ago he bought a pig from Farmer George F. Stine that weighed ten pounds, at the nominal price of 25 cents. When butchered it cleaned 303 pounds.

BISHOP CONFIRMS CLASS

Special to The Telegraph
Marletta, Pa., Nov. 30.—Rt. Rev. Henry Darlington, bishop of Harrisburg Diocese of the Episcopal Church, yesterday afternoon confirmed a large class in St. John's Church, and preached for very eloquent sermon to a large congregation. In the evening he confirmed a class and preached to the congregation of St. Paul's Church at Columbia. The Revs. Hoyt and Puffer, assisted in the ceremonies.

GIRL BEST SPELLER

Special to The Telegraph
Blain, Pa., Nov. 30.—A large crowd gathered at Mount Pleasant on Friday evening at an interesting spelling contest, held by Leslie Shumaker, teacher of the school. Miss Lourene Thomas, a pupil of the High School, won the honor as best speller.

BIGLERVILLE SHOW TO OPEN

Biglerville, Pa., Nov. 30.—To-morrow the annual exhibition of the Biglerville Agriculture, Horticulture and Poultry Association will open and the display promises to be the most successful ever held by the organization.

FARMER KICKED BY MULE

Special to The Telegraph
Rowena, Pa., Nov. 30.—Amos Shank, tenant farmer on the Eyer farm, was hurt Saturday afternoon by being kicked in the face by a mule while he was in the act of disinfecting the stables. The mouth and hoof disease was discovered on these premises, and while assisting to kill one of the cows, Mr. Shank was hurt in the chest by a cow falling and throwing him against the wall.

HOSPITAL OFFICIAL RESIGNS

Special to The Telegraph
Lebanon, Pa., Nov. 30.—Miss Susanna Searles, who has filled the position of assistant superintendent at the Good Samaritan hospital here for several years, has resigned and will leave on December 1. She came here from the Samaritan Hospital at Philadelphia and during her residence in Lebanon made hosts of friends.

CHILDREN'S CHORUS SINGS

Special to The Telegraph
Dillsburg, Pa., Nov. 30.—On Saturday night the children's chorus sang at the S. B. Goff evangelistic services in the Methodist Church. The children were trained by Professor Myers, musical director of the evangelistic campaign. This evening Washington Camp, No. 777, Patriotic Order Sons of America, will attend the revival services in a body on an invitation from the Rev. Mr. Goff.

CAMPAIGN FOR NEW MEMBERS

Special to The Telegraph
Lebanon, Pa., Nov. 30.—Directors of the Young Men's Christian Association of this city, recently decided upon a whirlwind campaign to secure 400 new members, and the project was formally launched at a dinner given by the Women's Auxiliary, and at which seventy-five men and boys were present. It is planned to recruit twelve men each to make the canvass on a basis of rivalry.

SIMPLE TO HEAL SKIN TROUBLES WITH POSLAM

With the use of Poslam the process of healing any skin trouble is simple. No guesswork, for you can see improvement after every application. Itching stops and burning skin is comforted at once.

You take no chances in using Poslam, for it cannot possibly harm. It is antiseptic, kills germ life and is unequalled for the eradication of Eczema, Acne, Itch, Pimples, etc.

Your druggist sells Poslam. For free sample write to Emergency Laboratories, 32 West 25th Street, New York.

Poslam Soap is non-irritating, absolutely pure, luxurious and beneficial for daily use, toilet and bath. 25 cents and 50 cents.—Advertisement.

There'll Come a Time when constant leaning on coffee is bound to result for most people in shattered nerves, heart flutter, biliousness, headache, or some other of the well known coffee ills.

It's the drug, "caffeine," in coffee—about 2 1/2 grains to the cup — that causes the trouble.

If coffee disagrees, try

POSTUM

—the pure food-drink,

free from the drugs, caffeine and tannin, or any other harmful substance.

Nothing but the goodness of choice wheat, roasted, with a bit of wholesome molasses, enters into Postum. A beverage of delightful taste and aroma, used with benefit by young and old.

"There's a Reason"

Postum comes in two forms:

Regular Postum, which has to be boiled—15c and 25c pkgs.
Instant Postum—soluble — made in the cup, instantly—30c and 50c tins.

Cost per cup is about the same for both kinds.

Grocers Everywhere Sell POSTUM

THE CHRISTMAS BIBLE GIVING PLAN COUPON

A MAGNIFICENT BIBLE

SELF-PRONOUNCING TEXT

LARGE CLEAR TYPE

BOUND IN GENUINE FRENCH MOROCCO, ABSOLUTELY FLEXIBLE

WITH NEW SERIES OF HELPS, ILLUSTRATIONS AND MAPS

BRING THIS COUPON to our office with 98 cents (which covers cost of packing, transportation from factory, checking, clerk hire and other expense items), and this Bible will be delivered to you. If the Bible is to be mailed, send 15 cents extra for postage.

THE HARRISBURG TELEGRAPH

BELL PAINLESS DENTISTS

10 North Market Square Harrisburg

We do the best dental work that can possibly be done and we do it at charges that are most moderate. Painless extraction free when plates are ordered. Largest and most complete offices in the city; sanitary throughout. Lady attendant.

Hours: 8 a. m. to 9 p. m. Sundays, 10 a. m. to 1 p. m.

GEO. H. SOURBIER FUNERAL DIRECTOR

310 NORTH THIRD STREET