ALLEGED FORGER ARRESTED AFTER 20 YEARS' FLIGHT

Chicago, Ill., Dec. 4.—At the request of the New York police that they detain as a fugitive from justice Carleton H. Betts, accused of forgery in New York in 1894, the Chicago police took into custody Carleton Hudson, a Chicago citizen, in a charge of forging.

Carleton H. Betts fled from New York city twenty years ago while awaiting trial on a charge of forging the name of Mrs. Margaret McGowan to a check for $500. He was out on a bond of $1,500, which was forfeited.

"PROTECTED" CLAIRVOYANT GAINED PRINCELY SUMS

Chicago, Ill., Dec. 4.—In spite of the $400 monthly payment for police protection, Frank Ryan, alleged head of a clairvoyant ring that operated in Chicago until recently, had a rather good thing of it here and his personal share of the swindling receipts averaged from $3,000 to $6,000 a month, he told Maclay Hoyne, State's Attorney, in a written confession made public last night. In addition to the regular monthly police payments Ryan said he paid an average of $25 to $100 weekly to help buy flowers for some policeman who had lost a member of his family. He also said it took a neat sum to entertain properly the out-of-town policemen who frequently came with warrants for members of the clairvoyant squad.

ATLANTA POLICE REJECT CARHART'S BURGLAR STORY

Atlanta, Ga., Dec. 4.—The city's detective force has refused to accept and conclusive the coroner's jury verdict of "justifiable homicide" in the shooting of James P. Callaway, prominent businessman, by W. B. Carhart, president of the Carhart Shoe Manufacturing Company, in the Carhart home early yesterday.

HEALTHY HAIR, SOFT, FLUFFY AND LUSTROUS

Many women envy the pretty hair of their friends without ever inquiring the reason why their own is not as attractive. "Rats," pads and switches are far less assistance towards a fine head of hair than daily care and attention.

The natural secretions of the scalp often clog the pores and root glands until they cannot possibly carry out their functions. Ordinary combing and brushing does not get down to the real roots of the hair, and something more is needed to properly keep the hair and scalp in health and vigor.

Parisian Sage has been recognized for many years as one of the most valuable hair tonics and is daily making new friends because of its undoubted efficiency, the ease with which it may be applied and its cheapness.

Faded, dull or lifeless hair is quickly restored to its natural beauty; dandruff disappears like magic, while oiliness and stickiness vanish after a few applications, leaving the hair permanently strong, glossy, soft and beautiful.

Do not wait until your hair is in really bad condition before doing anything to keep it. H. C. Kennedy, or any drug counter can supply you with Parisian Sage. It is such a helpful toilet necessity that you cannot afford to do without it.
