Every Kind of Doll Is Here This Christmas

We can truthfully say that at no time have we shown such a variety of cunning dolls, and so many, too. To look at them, you'd think all "Dolleria" had responded to the call of Toytown, including the Queen.

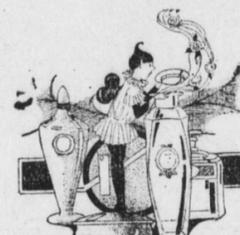

There are dolls of almost every nation—Germany, France, Russia, England, and so on, with little character dolls in many varieties.

Besides, there are crying dolls, talking dolls, bisque dolls, jointed dolls, infant dolls, dressed and undressed dolls, unbreakable dolls, Kewpie dolls, Campbell Kids, whistling dolls, and ever so many more.

Almost Three Dozen Different Prices

Starting at a nickel, the prices range upward until they reach $15.00, and the dolls at this price are worthy of mention. There's a doll here at most any price you can think of between the smallest and largest amounts.

Women's Coats Are a Part of the Great Christmas Stock in the Cloak Department

A more complete showing of fashionable coats than is on display here would be hard to find. If there is a popular style missing it is because we have never seen nor heard of it—and that's not likely. Corduroys, and plushes, zibelines and broadcloths, astrakhans and Persiannas, boucles and mixtures—and in every shade and color mixture that's fashionable.

There are more than half a thousand coats to select from—and the prices are attractive.

Over a hundred sample coats are here from Wile—the best models that New York produces. It's a sale and every one of them is just a third less than you would ordinarily have to pay.

- Plush Coats, $15.00 to $35.00
- Corduroy Coats, $12.50 to $25.00
- Zibeline Coats, $10.00 to $25.00
- Mixtures, $5.98 to $20.00
- Broadcloths, $10.00 to $45.00
