

Children make delicious fudge with Wilbur Cocoa

NOT everyone realizes the many good ways in which Wilbur Cocoa can be used. As a drink, it is loved by old and young alike.

But because the Wilburs make it in the good way which has given it over thirty years of public favor Wilbur Cocoa is, of course, pure and wholesome for candies of all kinds.

Try a small package—but you'll soon be keeping the pound size, or larger, in your pantry.

Ask your grocer, or write us, for "Cook's Tours Through Wilburland"—it tells how to make things with Wilbur Cocoa.

H. O. Wilbur & Sons, Inc., Philadelphia, Pa.

Wilbur Cocoa Fudge
This pure, wholesome fudge is quickly made and is a genuine treat.
2 rounded tablespoons Wilbur Cocoa
2 cups sugar
2 tablespoons butter
1/4 cup milk or cream
Put all the ingredients into a saucepan and boil until, when tried in cold water, a soft ball is formed. Remove from the fire, add a pinch of salt and stir until smooth and creamy. Pour into buttered paper, when cold, cut into blocks.

RAILROADERS TO BE TABERNACLE GUESTS

will start their parades not later than 7.25 o'clock.

Tabernacle Two-thirds Full
"With everything frozen up and this the first night," declared Dr. Stough last night after about 70 trailblitters came out of the smallest audience he has yet had at the tabernacle.

The building was not uncomfortable after the crowd got settled and all the doors were tightly closed, but there were many who put on their overcoats and wraps when Dr. Stough suggested that they avoid any danger of taking cold. The house was barely more than two-thirds full, which Dr. Stough considered a generous consideration in view of the weather. An extra effort will be made to get up more steam for this evening's meeting.

Dr. S. C. Swallow made some remarks at the beginning of the service concerning the free-will offering for the Stough party next Sunday. He said he was not begging, but hoped there would be a generous offering as a deserved reward for the large value Dr. Stough and his workers have given to the city.

Vaccinate Dr. Stough
Dr. Stough read a statement telling of the vaccination of himself and the members of his party who had been in the presence of a man who had been in the same boarding house with a man recently discovered with a case of smallpox.

"I think this is all a nuisance, but we don't want the devil to get any capital out of us, so we got vaccinated to be on the safe side in order to protect the public from apprehension in view of the fact that the gang in this city would take advantage of the least rumor," he explained.

Firemen at Service
Several hundred volunteer firemen from the city companies and from neighboring towns, many of them in uniform, last night marched to the tabernacle. The Royal company with a representative of forty-one out of a total membership of seventy-nine, won the prize of a fireman's trumpet for the best proportionate attendance. The Shamrock company had forty-five men present, and the Mt. Royal company and consequently a smaller percentage present, they failed to take the award.

Colonel H. C. Demming, president of the Firemen's Union, who made the presentation speech said the price of the trumpet had been provided by a well-known public spirited man of Harrisburg who would not allow his name to be disclosed. The trumpet which had been ordered from New York had not arrived last night, but will probably be delivered to the Royal boys to-day.

Firemen Not Boozed Hoisters
Colonel Demming said he was sorry there was such a comparatively small number of firemen at the service, but declared that if they had had a few more notices of the special night they might easily have had three times the number present. He spoke of the common opinion of the firemen being great on drinking booze, which he said is prevalent in the city, and said that the most large-hearted and unselfish body of men to be found in the public service. He declared there is one fire company in the city with fourteen members who have never tasted liquor in their lives.

In behalf of the Shamrock company, the Rev. John M. Warden, of the Bethany Presbyterian Church, presented Dr. Stough with a bunch of flowers. He said this company has the only organized fireman's Bible class in the city, thirty-eight of its members being enrolled, and seventeen of them being trailblitters during the campaign. He expressed the hope that all the others present might hit the trail at the service last night. Dr. Stough was given a large fireman's badge by both the Shamrock company and the Hope Juniors.

Believes in Child Conversions
The sermon on the text, "When shall I entreat for them?" was a strong plea that "now is the time to hit the trail" and Dr. Stough included some opinions on the question of child conversions. He said:

"I believe in child conversions with all my heart. The first thing a child learns at home and at school is confidence and faith, and why should not express these qualities in religious matters? It is not necessary for a child to know and understand the doctrines and creeds of the church, and I cannot understand the reasons for some adults being opposed to children hitting the trail. No one should discredit the coming of children into the church at the age of 11 and 14 years, or be so much impressed to good things."

11 to 14 the Vital Age
He referred to the religious instruction the Catholics give their children from their first entrance to school. He also spoke of the reform schools crowded with young boys and said if a boy is old enough to learn to be a criminal he is surely old enough to learn to be a Christian.

"There are more of the young people of the present day converted between the ages of 11 and 14 years than at any other period. If it is left till later all the artifices of the devil are likely to work into their lives. More men become criminals between 15 and 18 years than at any other time of life because the church has lost the attraction for them."

"At this age worldliness creeps in and the youth go under the influence of the moving picture, the theater, the dime novel, and the dance hall. Most of the white slaves are recruited from girls of 15 to 18 years who do not have the uplifting influence of the church."

Parents Fail in Duty
"Some parents are positive stumbling blocks to their children; they feed, clothe and shelter them but do nothing to teach them to honor God. Lots of families never pray or read the Bible, and yet the parents wonder why their children do not grow up good. Some children are positively damned by the parents who might just as well give them rat poison as to allow some of the things they do."

He went on to speak of the great calamity of persons in middle life who have not accepted Christ. "No wonder there are so many men and women drift apart in married life; there are too many silent homes where there is no spirit, which are conducted like boarding houses." He said that probably 99 per cent. of unconverted people intend to accept Christ before they die but keep putting it off through carelessness.

Before Dr. Stough had completed his sermon a man who has been a common drunk about the city for years and one of the most frequent culprits at the police court ran forward to grasp his hand. He said he had been serving the devil since his twelfth year, and has been putting off hitting the trail since the campaign started, but would wait no longer after the stirring appeal of last night.

There were five members of the Shamrock fire company among the trailblitters, two of them coming with their wives. Dr. Stough was enthusiastic over the total of seventy out of such a slim audience.

CONSTANT ITCHING FROM DANDRUFF

Hair Started to Fall, Red Rash Dried Into Small Scales, Could Be Seen Plainly in Hair, Used Cuticura Soap and Ointment, Trouble Gone.

1410 No. 60th St., Philadelphia, Pa.—"Some time ago I was troubled with dandruff. At first it was just thin and I didn't pay any attention to it but after about a month or so it became so thick and itched me so much that I would scratch it until my head would bleed. Shortly after my hair started to fall and then I knew I must do something. When the trouble first appeared it was kind of a red rash which later dried into small scales and could be plainly seen in my hair. There was a constant itching from morn till night so great that I would scratch until my scalp would bleed and later turned to little scales. My hair became very thin and dry."

"First I used a salve but it didn't have any effect. Then I used lard and sulphur which had the same effect. After that I saw Cuticura Soap and Ointment advertised and wrote for a sample, then I purchased a cake of Cuticura Soap and box of Cuticura Ointment. Now my head is free from dandruff and my hair is growing in nicely. The trouble is completely gone." (Signed) Fred E. Dingo, Feb. 9, 1914.
