ENDEAVORERS TO SING "MAZARENE" CANTATA

More Than Hundred Enrolled in 1915 Chorus; Frank McCarrell to Direct

Officers of the Harrisburg Christian Endeavor Choral Union met at the home of the president, J. Frank Palmer, last evening to enroll members for the season of 1915. The majority of the former members have asked to be enrolled and applications from sixty-six new members will carry the enrollment to more than one hundred. The chorus will be accompanied by a volunteer orchestra, the following members have already been secured: Violin, Claude Engle and Arthur M. Bushman; cello, J. M. Rider, W. J. Dunlap; double bass, M. H. Mulligan; flute, Miss Dunlap; first cornet, H. D. Sollenberger; second cornet, W. D. Reed.

The director will be Frank A. McCarrell, organist and choirmaster of the Pine Street Presbyterian Church. The rehearsals will be held each Monday evening, beginning January 13, in the social room of the Pine Street Presbyterian Church.

The cantata to be sung will be "The Nazarene" written by William Ape Madoe and W. Rhys Herbert.

Those present last evening were Misses Mary DeHart, Emily Edwards, Anna McKevey, Messrs. Alfred Lewis, Forest E. Schwartz.

Miss Jean Sheesely Weds West Shore Business Man at Frederick

Rumors of Elopement Vigorously Denied; to Be at Home at Enola After January 20

Miss Kathryn Jean Sheesely, of this city, and Tolbert K. Wonderly, of Enola, took a little trip to Frederick, Md., and were married in that city Monday morning by the Rev. E. H. Lamar, pastor of the First Methodist Episcopal Church, in the parsonage. The wedding was a quiet affair and the happy couple returned home shortly after the ceremony.

The couple had been engaged for some time and the little romance ended in the wedding in Maryland. The bride was a clerk in the Schlesinger store, in North Third street, and is popular and well known among the younger set. The groom is a prosperous business man of Enola. Mr. and Mrs. Wonderly will be at home to their friends after January 20 in Enola.

Rumors that the pair eloped were vigorously denied this morning.

ENTERTAINS REUNION PARTY

Mr. and Mrs. Frank E. Comings, 14 North Fourth street, entertained a number of guests at their home last night. Those present had just returned from a family reunion at the home of A. B. Where Every Day Is Bargain Day

215 Market St. Opp. Courthouse

Old-fashioned New Year Openhouse at Y. M. C. A.

New Year's Day will be celebrated by the Young Men's Christian Association, Second and Locust streets, in this good old-fashioned way.

There will be a public reception from 11 to 5, when substantial refreshments will be served to one and all in attendance. The invitation extended is a most generous one, for it includes the public. Men, women and children will be welcomed; unemployed men and boys will be cordially received, for the desire of the association is to be helpful first to those who really need help and encouragement. The building will be prettily decorated, and everything will savor of holiday cheer.

A gymnasium exhibition under the auspices of the physical department for the benefit of the visitors will be given in the afternoon at 3 o'clock, followed by basketball games.

In the evening the annual members' entertainment will be held in Fahnestock hall at 8:15 o'clock. Demott Paxton, of New York, the clever humorist, has been engaged for the occasion. Admission will be by ticket only, but every member in good standing will receive two tickets for the entertainment. The program for the day and evening will attract thousands to the building. The entire plant will be thrown open to the public except the dormitory system.

Mrs. Edwin Bowers and Miss Jessie Bowers, 318 Cumberland street, left today for a short visit to Philadelphia.

W. G. Conklin, 130 Locust street, has returned from a visit to his home in Columbia.

Miss Carolyn Stahler, Williamsport, who is attending the Educational Association convention in this city, is the guest of the Rev. Mr. and Mrs. A. S. Williams, of 2337 North Sixth street.

COES GIVE CHRISTMAS DANCE AT COUNTRY CLUB

Complimentary to their daughter, Miss Dora Wickersham Coe, and her house guests, Miss Leavitt Wickersham, Lancaster; Miss Alberta Weber, of New York, and Miss Josephine Gloninger, of Lebanon, Mr. and Mrs. Sanford DeWitt Coe will give a Christmas dance at the Country Club tonight.

The decorations at the club will be of Christmas greens, with holly and poinsettias adding a touch of color here and there. The Looser orchestra will play.

Receiving with Mr. and Mrs. Coe and Miss Coe will be Miss Alberta Weber, Miss Josephine Gloninger, Miss Leavitt Wickersham and the debutantes of the season.

MISS BACON GIVES DANCE

Miss Anne Bacon, 216 North street, was hostess at an informal dance in Handshaw's Hall last evening complimentary to her house guests, Miss Gene Frederick, Carlisle, and Miss Mary Tomkin, Norfolk, Va. Fifty-six guests were present.

Mrs. J. Cobean and Miss Anne Stevens, Thirteenth and Kittatiny streets, entertained twelve guests informally at their home last evening. Buffet luncheon was served.

Mr. and Mrs. James A. Clark and daughter are visiting Mrs. Clark's parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Bratton, 1618 State street.

CAMP HILL CLUB TO MEET

The officers and directors of the Camp Hill Civic Club will meet Thursday afternoon at 3:30 o'clock at the home of the president, Mrs. J. W. Millhouse.

Our Service to Women

The service of a strong financial institution is as valuable to women as it is to men and realizing this, a constant aim of the management of the Mechanics Trust Company is to make it an institution with which the women of the city may conveniently and advantageously transact their financial business.

Small as well as large accounts are received—either subject to check or at 3 per cent interest—and those women who favor us with their patronage receive the most prompt and courteous service at all times.
