Wellesley Club Holds Its Holiday Meeting

An informal meeting of the Wellesley Club of Southeastern Pennsylvania was held yesterday afternoon, at the home of Miss Anna Margaret Miller, Cottage Ridge, with the president, Miss Anna Sauer, of Lancaster, presiding. Reports of various committees were read and an account of the rebuilding plans made. Three undergraduates, Miss Clarissa Claitor, Miss Ruth Sauer, and Miss Hermione Barker, told most interestingly of the college life of today, with refreshments and music following.

AGOGAS BANQUET Class Holds Annual Election of Officers

Members of the Tabernacle Bible class of the Tabernacle Baptist Church were banqueted by their teacher, Mrs. William Hertz, at her home, 412 Forster street. The roses were decorated with Christmas greens and colored lights. After a turkey dinner, speeches were made by the Rev. Calvin A. Hare, pastor; Harold Germer, retiring president; and other officers of the class. The election resulted as follows: Joseph Howard Germer, president; Herbert W. Hunter, vice-president; Edward Hess, treasurer; William Hertz, teacher; George Shatto, librarian; William Mead, statistician; Philip Arva, chaplain; Paul Waid, visitor; William Swartz, entertainer; Walter R. Hall, reporter. The retiring president administered the charge to each newly elected officer, responded to with appropriate remarks.

LYKENS RECTOR WEDS
Mrs. Annie James and the Rev. J. Vaughan Davies Married

Bishop James Henry Darlington officiated at the marriage of Mrs. Annie James, of Williamstown, and the Rev. J. Vaughan Davies, of Lykens, yesterday morning at 10:30 o'clock in the private chapel of the rectory, North Front street. The Rev. LeRoy F. Baker, of Sells Grove, assisted in the service, attended only by the bishop's family. The bride wore a traveling suit of dark blue with hat to harmonize and an exquisite blouse of lace and net. After spending several days among friends in this city, Mr. and Mrs. Davies will occupy the rectory of the Christ Episcopal Church at Lykens. The Rev. Mr. Davies, who is a native of Wales, has been in this country for about thirty years. He has held charges in Oklahoma, Missouri and a number in this State, including those at Scranton, Wilkes-Barre and Middletown. He was appointed to the Lykens charge about three months ago.

FIRST SUNDAY SERVICE IN NEW MEMORIAL HALL

Gospel song service in the new Young Women's Christian Association Building next Sunday, January 3, at 2:30 p. m. The service will be held in the John Y. Boyd Hall and will continue three-quarters of an hour. This is the first Sunday service in the new building. Being reading books used in the tabernacle meetings. There are so many cozy corners in the beautiful rooms where girls may spend the afternoon until time for evening service in the churches. They may read in the library, rest in the rest room, or visit in the clubroom. Girls are urged to come and use these rooms.

The Governor Receives on New Year's Afternoon

The Governor and Mrs. John Kinley Toner will keep "open house" at the Executive Mansion to-morrow afternoon from 4 to 6 o'clock.

The reception will be most informal and no cards have been issued for it. All good citizens of the State are privileged at this time to extend good wishes to the Chief Executive and his charming wife, who have endeavored themselves to many bring their four years' residence here and who will soon leave for a new home.

The mansion will be in holiday array of greenery and poinsettias, with masses of roses in the tea room. Mrs. Samuel Claybaugh Todd and Mrs. Frank Payne will preside at the refreshment table.

Dancing For Charity at the Country Club

Saturday afternoon, from 3 to 6 o'clock, there will be the dances at the Country Club of Harrisburg, the proceeds to go to the Belgian fund. The music will be furnished by Miss Eleanor T. Darlington, the Columbia Orchestra, and a large attendance is anticipated. The tickets include dancing and tea, and some who cannot attend because of other engagements are sending their contributions to help swell the fund for our neighbors across the sea.

HOLIDAY WEDDING

The Rev. E. Luther Cunningham, pastor of St. Paul's Baptist Church, united in marriage Miss Anna Jordan, of 106 Balm street, and Leonard Green, of 144 Linden street, yesterday afternoon at 3 o'clock at the parsonage of the church, 1616 Walnut street. The attendants were Mrs. Mary Williams, Mrs. Edgar Williams, Samuel Greiser, and Robert Williams. The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, Stephen Jordan, wore a broadcloth traveling suit with hat to match and a corsage bouquet of violets. They were "the home" wedding at 323 South Fifteenth street after a short wedding trip.

PLAY FIVE HUNDRED

Miss Wolfe's guests met Miss Martha Hare, of Altoona. Miss Eleanor Wolfe's guests at five hundred last evening had the pleasure of meeting her guest, Miss Martha Hare, of Altoona. The Wolfe residence at 1504 Green street was in holiday adornment and after the cards a buffet supper was served.

YOUNG WOMEN'S CHRISTIAN ASSOCIATION CLASSES

All classes in the educational and physical departments will reopen next week, beginning Monday, January 4. We now have between seven and eight hundred women and girls attending these classes.

New classes will be formed if there is a demand for them. Arrangements have been made for two new classes. A choral is to meet every Monday evening at 8 o'clock. The instruction is given by Mrs. Francis J. Friend, corresponding secretary; Mrs. E. Stern, treasurer.

MISS MORSCHE ENTERTAINS

Miss Helen Morsch entertained at five hundred last evening complimentary to C. Ralph Kent and his bride, who was formerly Miss Edna Martin, of Milton.
