MISS GIRVIN WEDS ALFRED P. DAVIES

Young Couple Will Reside in This City After Eastern Honeymoon

MRS. ALFRED P. DAVIES

There was a pretty holiday wedding at the home of Mr. and Mrs. O. R. Girvin, 215 Woodbine street, Wednesday afternoon, December 30, when their daughter, Miss Margarette Girvin, was united in marriage with Alfred P. Davies, of this city, by the Rev. Edwin E. Curtis, minister of the Westminster Presbyterian Church. Miss Elizabeth Frantz played the wedding marches. Following a trip to Philadelphia and New York Mr. and Mrs. Davies will reside in this city.

SERIES OF MUSICALS

Mrs. William Scott Hall Entertains for Her Parents from Boston

Mrs. William Scott Hall, of 1206 North Fifteenth street, is giving a series of informal musicals in honor of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph E. Mitchell, of Boston.

The first event will take place this evening with twelve guests in attendance. Mrs. Hall, who is an active member of the Wednesday Club and a pupil of the late E. J. Lang, of Boston, will play several times, Mr. Small will sing and Mrs. Bent L. Weaver will give two or three numbers. A buffet supper will follow. Next Tuesday evening Mrs. Hall will give the second in the musical series, with two well-known violinists participating in the program.

LEAVE FOR NEW YORK

Mr. and Mrs. Paul W. Emerick and son, Paul Wool Emerick, leave tomorrow for their home at Hollis, N. Y., after a holiday visit with relatives in this city and Carlisle. Miss Katrina Pfouts will accompany them for a visit of several weeks.

Special to The Telegraph Winchester, Va., Jan. 1.—Four hours after Mrs. Jane Catherine Swartz was buried here, her husband, Johnny Swartz, a prominent resident of this section, and father of Samuel Swartz, of Carlisle, Pa., died of blood-poisoning as a result of a fall sustained Christmas even when he severely bruised his face. His funeral was held to-day.

CALVARY CHOIR TO SING "BETHLEHEM"

Steelton Soloist to Assist in Entertainment Tomorrow Evening at 7:30

Tuneful music will feature an entertainment in Calvary Presbyterian Church, Cameron and Sycamore streets, Sunday evening. Assisted by a number of soloists, the choir will sing "At Bethlehem," a Christmas cantata, in two parts, by Alfred Judson. This same cantata was sung last year and was so well received that it will be repeated at the request of the new pastor, the Rev. Frank McKenzie. The augmented choir has been holding regular rehearsals for several weeks, assuring an excellent rendition of the difficult music.

The solo parts will be sung by Rodney Miller, of Steelton; Mrs. Frank Green and Mrs. Bertha Fenstermacher. J. Herbert Springer will play the accompaniments.
