SUIT FILED AGAINST REP. A. R. BRODBECK

Congressman Charged With Paying Money to Federal Employees For Support

York, Pa., Jan. 7.—Bartering of post offices and the payment of money to Federal employees for their election support are counter-charges made against Congressman A. R. Brodbeck, Democrat, of the Twentieth district, in a reply of C. William Beales, of Gettysburg, Republican Congressman-elect, to the contest brought against him. The hearings are expected to furnish a sensational chapter in the political history of York and Adams counties. Beales served his papers on Congressman Brodbeck in Washington yesterday.
