NEW SCORE RECORD IN ACADEMY GAME

Steelton High Moves to the Front as a Season's Championship Contender

One new record for scoring and another victory for Steelton High were the features in Saturday's scholastic games. The new record was hung up by the Harrisburg Academy five in their defeat of the Lewistown Preparatory School by a score of 104 to 10. These figures have never been reached by an Academy team and broke all former scholastic scores. Academy tossers made the game interesting despite its one-sidedness by remarkable goal shooting. Bennett was the star in this line. Lewistown was unable to get near the goal until near the close of the game, when the Academy eased up. Redde and Fisher played the best game for Lewistown.

Winning from Tamaqua five by a score of 31 to 14 gives the Steelton High tossers further right to be considered in this season's championship race. At the go-off this season Steelton was picked as a tail-end five, but the brilliant work by this bunch within the past two weeks brought Steelton to the front as a strong contender. In Saturday's game McNulty and Wolford did all the scoring for Tamaqua. The Steelton stars were Crump, Stasarsinic and Dayhoff. Between the halves the Steelton Scrubs defeated the All-Scholastic five, score 24 to 14.

BITS OF SPORTS

Charley Buckley has retired from Harvard athletics. Because of his recent operation for appendicitis, training would be too strenuous.

Lebanon V. M. C. A. defeated Union Hose team Saturday; score, 35 to 22.

Hummelstown Juniors won basketball games. The average age of players is from 14 to 16 years. The manager is David B. Landis, Hummelstown, Pa.

St. Louis, former pitcher for the St. Paul Browns, is dying in the South Bend (Ind.) Hospital with tubercular trouble.

Washington and Jefferson decline an offer to play University of Pennsylvania October 23.

Curtin Heights Juniors defeated St. Matthew Juniors Saturday night, score, 22 to 11.

Montgomery, of the Senators, is closing up on Atticks, of the Casino league, for leadership. Atticks has an average of 201 and Montgomery 192. The Alpha team honors with an average of 178.

CHAMBERSBURG GIRLS WIN

High School girls lost their first game to Chambersburg on Saturday at Chambersburg Saturday; score, 33 to 6. The Harrisburg girls put up a plucky fight, but were outclassed. The Chambersburg floor shot and not adapted to basketball. The Central girls were at a disadvantage in goal shooting because of the short distances for shooting. Miss Richards, of the Central, and Miss Claudine Melville were point scorers for Harrisburg. Miss Baker and Miss Hartman were Chambersburg stars.

Diamond Company Will Pass Dividend; Demand Small and Supply Large

Kimberly, Union of South Africa, Dec. 2.—(Correspondence of the Associated Press.)

"The past year has been a bad one for the diamond trade and the De Beers Company will probably pass its dividends at the close of the fiscal year ending June 30 next."

Such was the statement of Chairman Francis Gates at the annual meeting of the De Beers shareholders. Diamonds are a luxury, said the chairman, and not only the demand has been less, but prices have been lower as the result of the war. "The company soon may have to close down entirely owing to the fact that there is already a large stock of diamonds on hand."

RUSSIAN APPROVAL HELD

Washington, D. C., Jan. 11.—Russia's approval of the relief expedition for German and Austrian prisoners in Siberian camps, headed by American missionaries at Peking, which was taken by officials here as granted, has been withheld, it was learned to-day, and the whole project awaits further negotiations. The American Red Cross learned to-day that the expeditions had been held up at Harbin.

GOVERNOR TENER BOOMED FOR 1918

Farewell Dinner Given by Harrisburg Citizens Big Demonstration For Executive

Governor John K. Tener was praised for the constructive work of his administration and boomed for election again in 1918 at a farewell dinner given in his honor at the Harrisburg Club on Saturday night. The dinner was unique in that it was the first of the kind given by Harrisburgers to a retiring Governor in many years and elaborate in every appointment. The idea of the dinner originated with a number of personal friends of the Governor in the Harrisburg Club and men with whom the Governor had been in contact during his term were invited. It was twice as large as planned.

About the board gathered men of prominence in the life of Harrisburg and some of the most prominent in the State to honor the Governor who will retire to private life next Tuesday after a most successful administration. There were men of every shade of political belief and they all agreed the suggestion that the Governor return. This came in the form of a song arranged to the tune of "Tipperary" and the closing lines of the chorus were:

"There's a hope in every heart here
That you'll be Governor again."

When the song was sung as a solo everyone rose to the chorus and cheered the idea to the roof. This thought also ran through the speeches of the evening and the Governor was called upon to say whether he would accept the nomination. He smiled and said that he enjoyed his residence in Harrisburg and thoroughly appreciated the tribute of the evening as well as the honor of being guest at the dinner.

William M. Donaldson, president of the club, was toastmaster and his reference to the Governor was heartily applauded and cheered. The speakers of the evening were President Judge George Kunkel, Judge S. J. McCarrick, Mayor John H. Daugherty, General Thomas J. Stewart, ex-Senator John E. Fox, Samuel Kunkel and Charles H. Bergner, others being called upon for impromptu remarks. The decorations were Southern smilax and roses. The whole banquet hall was hung with smilax and the gallery was hung with flags, the State flag being the chief attraction. The souvenirs were red leather booklets bearing the Governor's signature on the cover and containing a handsome picture. That presented to the Governor was signed by everyone of the diners.

The dinner afforded many an opportunity to say good-by to the Governor and to express their approval of his administration. The roses which decorated the table were sent to Mrs. Tener with the compliments of the diners.

Seated at the head of the table were the Dauphin Judges, the Mayor, the Adjutant General, Charles H. Bergner, Dr. Hiram McGowan, William Jennings Lewis, S. S. Saylor, C. Neal, and M. C. Kennedy, Chambersburg, Wrecker, Dr. S. N. Traver, Frank E. Cleckrah, J. A. Herman, Casper Dull, William F. R. Murrie, C. A. Lockett, Walter L. Montgomery, Gail Hain, J. M. Peters, F. Ziegler, A. M. HARRISBURG LOSES BY A NOSE

Substituting for Lehigh, who cancelled a few days ago, the Harrisburg Collegians were defeated at basketball at State College Saturday night by Penn State, score 33 to 31. The contest, teamed with brilliant plays by both teams, and State pulled out a victory in the last minute of play.

From the start Harrisburg led and maintained its fast pace until the middle of the last half, when State pulled together and the winning basket was scored by Blakeloe, a freshman, when he tipped the ball into the net from a jump-off. Krout and Atticks starred for Harrisburg, while Blakeloe and Captain Park were State's best men.

ARMGAARD KARL GRAVES

Dr. Graves has been characterized by the British press as "the most dangerous spy of the century." He was a wonder that England, realizing his knowledge of German military secrets, was willing to grant him his liberty. His services to Britain more than repaid her for his liberality.

As early as May, Dr. Graves, addressing a meeting in New York City, said positively that Europe would be plunged into general war. The latter part was well in. He was ridiculed at the time, but subsequent events proved the accuracy of his statements.

Dr. Graves' lecture promises to be full of interest. The war is the present all-absorbing topic and Americans like to get their facts first handed. Dr. Graves has such facts, and will tell of many of them in his talk here to-morrow night.—Advertisement.

ETHEL BARRYMORE

Extremely welcome announcement is made of the coming engagement at the Majestic Theater for one performance on Friday evening, January 15, of Miss Ethel Barrymore, who returns in a new play called "The Shadow." The latter is the work of Dario Nicodem and Michael Morton, the former the author of "The Yellow Wallpaper," and the latter best known as the author of "The Yellow Wallpaper." The play was originally written in French for the use of Rejane, but the intolerable war conditions now prevailing in Paris made it possible for Charles Froberman to obtain it for present production in this country with Miss Barrymore in the leading role. "The Shadow," in its French version named "L'Ombre," was translated into English by Mr. Morton. Miss Barrymore is accompanied by her cousin Miss McRea, recalled for his brilliant association with Miss Barrymore, in "Sunday." Other notable "Cousin Kate" and others of her notable successes, is entrusted with the leading male role. Surrounding players are: Grace Weston, Ernest Lawford, Edward Fielding, Amy Veness and Vera Pol. The scenes of "The Shadow" are laid in the artistically furnished art districts of Paris.—Advertisement.

FIELD'S MINSTRELS

"Minstrelsy of the Better Kind" is a line in the reading matter of Al G. Field. It would be impossible to list the jokes, songs, dances and scenic surroundings with all that swiftness pleasing to the spectator. From the rise to the descent of the curtain that picture as ever devised, the rapidity of action is kept up. Field's Minstrelsy is a real treat for the eye and ear, matinee ad night.—Advertisement.

ORPHEUM

It's a triple headline Keith show that the Orpheum presents this week and the Orpheum with its new comedy are comprised throughout the offering are pretty near enough to convince one that the Orpheum is a real fire hit. Not the least of the attractions is Bert Lamon's Cowboy Bear scene, which is a real Westerner, who offer a festival of fun and harmony in a delightful stage setting representing a realistic glimpse of the romantic life of a cowboy. A second feature of the act is entitled "A Breath of Old Virginia." Joseph Hart's newest production, a few days ago, was a real success being the season's most successful scenic novelty. This act is admirably mounted and played by cast of five prominent Broadway names, headed by Miss June Keith, late feature of "Stop Time." Another act of headliners is that of the Moneta Five, an exquisite vocal and instrumental act. Three women and two men, complete the quintet and their offering, which is staged along the most modern lines, is an artistic treat. Smith, Cookators, Branden, two men and a woman, are to appear in a clever comedy variety act. The three Gaudschmidt will offer a spirited turn of clever fun and sensation. The Orpheum will present a comic opera skit called "The Silent Opera." One or two other clever acts will complete the roster.—Advertisement.

Widely-known Constable Dies After Brief Illness

CONSTABLE JOHNSON

James Johnson, aged 62 years, for twenty years constable of the Sixth Ward and deputy under ex-Sheriffs Charles W. Seiders and J. Rowe Fletcher, died at his home, 273 Calder street, Saturday night. About a week ago he was stricken with vertigo while on his way to Union Station with some prisoners, whom he was taking to Philadelphia. He had been confined to bed since.

He was a prominent citizen, living in this city nearly all of his life. He was an employee of the old Harrisburg Railways Company and drove a horse car from Rely street to Market street. When electric cars were introduced, he went into the bus business. He was a constable for the past twenty years. Constable Johnson was a member of Peace and Plenty Lodge, Independent Order of Odd Fellows, and the Junior Order United American Mechanics. He is survived by his wife.

Funeral services will be held at the home to-morrow afternoon at 2 o'clock by the Rev. John H. Daugherty, pastor of Ridge Avenue Methodist Church, officiating.

J. M. Lenney, Movie Man, Is Sued in Equity Case by His Wife, Grace M.

Suit in equity to recover title rentals and other revenue from moving picture theaters and similar sources was filed to-day by Mrs. Grace M. Lenney against her husband, J. M. Lenney.

Mrs. Lenney sets forth among other things that she owned a building in Middletown which had been destroyed by fire and that the insurance she received therefrom she placed in a Perry county bank. Later, she says, she gave this money to her husband to deposit in the Harrisburg bank but sometime afterward discovered that he had deposited the money in his own name at another bank.

Furthermore she accuses him of having negotiated for the purchase of several Hill properties for moving picture theater purposes with money that belonged to her. In conclusion she accuses him of failing to properly provide for her.

MRS. MARYE VISITS RUSSIAN HOSPITALS

Petrograd, via London, Jan. 11, 4:05 a. m.—During a recent visit to the center of things, Mrs. Marye, the American ambassador to Russia, and a party from the embassy, Mrs. Marye and Secretary Raymond Baker took occasion to make a trip near the battle line in Poland. They were escorted by a director of the Red Cross Hospital to within three miles of the firing lines.

Mrs. Baker in recounting details of the experience said: "The experience of the experience was that the continuous booming of big guns was always in our ears. Mrs. Marye showed no apprehension but only the keenest interest in what was going on."

"At one point we were close enough to hear the intermittent spitting of the machine guns. Here we came upon the line of secondary trenches and were invited to enter. In the marvelously constructed underground rooms we saw the soldiers then off duty gathered around small fires and singing."

"Our objective was the field hospital to which the wounded were brought in automobiles and wagons. Mrs. Marye spent some time here and visited with Mrs. Grace M. Lenney, whom she distributed cigars."
