For Conservative Men, Are New Models in Overcoats

They are not of the ordinary style, for they feature the raglan sleeve, yet are not as striking as the Balmacaan. Full draped backs give a quiet, dressy appearance. (Similar to illustration)

Come in subdued grays, blues and oxfords. Also models for the man who desires the set-in sleeves. All have velvet collars. Specially priced at $8.75—$10.75—$12.75

Every Overcoat and Balmacaan Has Received a New Price

This includes our entire stock of Chinchillas, kerseys, chevots, velours, tibets, cassimeres and Scotch mixtures.

Included are the popular form fitting coats that are extremely smart in fashion circles. These are shown in dark greens, blues and heather mixtures. Coats that formerly sold from $10.00 to $20.00, now priced at

Another Week Has Brought a New Revision of the Popular Sailor

Snaff in shape, with narrow brims and rather long lines. Unlike the other sailors, its ribbon tails at back do not dangle, for they are wired to appear as though raised by the wind. Exceedingly chic and first shown in Harrisburg. Other popular models that hold sway, are:

Chin Chin Sailors Polk Bonnet Effects Shepherdes Shapes

Mostly all are patterned after the medium or low crowns, and long narrow brims. The "Shepherdess" is distinguished by a slight mushroom brim, and the Polk Bonnet, while not as decided as former Polk effects, has a brim dipped in front and raised in back. Satin is a dominant material, and in color, white undoubtedly is the leader. Prices are $3.50 to $10.00.

Fifty Dozen New Shapes of Satin, Now on Sale at 98c to $4.95

They are the last word in style, and feature all the popular shades—

Sand, Putty, Peach, Cherry, Regimental Blue, Black, White, Battleship Gray, Belgium Blue

As our Millinery Chief is in constant touch with the New York modists, our milliners are able to interpret all the new ideas as they appear, and invariably show them first. Second Floor—BOWMAN'S.

The House of Plush Coats

Where only the best plushes, and the most stylish are permitted to be displayed.

Every week brings new receivements and as the season advances, the values seem to grow. At this moment they are all selling at one price.

$15.00

Salt's seal plushes, lined with heavy yarn-dyed satin of soft colors and black. Fur collars and some are detachable. Half belts, full belts, flared effects and fox trot models.

We've sold scores of the same grades at $25.00 and higher. When the store opens tomorrow there will be almost a hundred for you to choose from.
