COUNSEL FOR MAJORS HITS FEDERAL BODY

Questions Court's Jurisdiction; Tells How Players Are Developed For Big Leagues

Special to The Telegraph Chicago, Ill., Jan. 22.—The question of the Federal Court's jurisdiction and the renewed declaration that the National and American Leagues have so modified their contracts that a player becomes a free agent the year after the expiration of his agreed term of service were features at yesterday's session of the antitrust suit against the most powerful bodies of organized baseball. Judge Landis brought up the question of jurisdiction again, and George Harton Pepper, of Philadelphia, of counsel for organized baseball, discussed it at some length after the Federal League attorneys had stated their side of the case. Pepper quoted authorities to show that there must be a Federal question involved to secure hearing in a Federal Court. He declared the interfering suit of Leo Magee was not to be regarded, and said the only Federal question was that in the charge that the defendants maintained a monopoly in restraint of interstate commerce. The decision, holding that the labor of opera singers was not commodity

McCurdy and Weitzel were the honor men for Hassett, while Bachler, a Franklin and Marshall athlete, who played center for the victors, scored all but two of their points. His foul shooting was the best seen on the local floor this year, caging 19 of 24.

The girls' division five of the Hassett Club won their initial game last evening on Cathedral Hall floor when they defeated the Elizabethtown high school team by the score of 25 to 5. MIKE GIBBONS TWINS TEN-ROUND BATTLE

Pace Is Too Fast For Jimmy Clabby, the Indiana Boy

Milwaukee, Wis., Jan. 22.—Mike Gibbons, the St. Paul middleweight, had the better of Jimmy Clabby, the idol of Hammond ind., in ten fast rounds here last night. In ten fast bouts was fast and hard fought, but at other times it was marred by the clinching of both principals. Gibbons carried the harder punch and repeatedly landed on Jimmy's jaw with his smashing right that rocked Clabby more than once, but Mike was never able to land a finishing punch. Clabby used a stiff left jab and a right to the body.

Gibbons was the first to enter the ring. He was given a great ovation, and Clabby, who followed shortly after, also received a rousing welcome. Jack Dillon, the Indianapolis fighter, stepped into the ring and challenged the winner. Dillon stated he had a certified check for $1,000 in his pocket, with $4,000 more in a bank in Indianapolis, to bind a match with the winner. When the fighters stepped on the scales at 3 o'clock yesterday afternoon they were both below the required weight—158 pounds. Clabby was slightly heavier than Gibbons. Jimmy tipped the beam at 153 pounds stopped, while Mike weighed 153 1/2 with his fighting togs on. There were many baseball figures in the crowd, among them being Roger Bresnahan, manager of the Chicago Cubs, and Clarence Rowland, the new manager of the Chicago White Sox. The fight delegation was also represented by two ex-champions and a champion claimant, Ad Wolcott, former lightweight dictator, and Johnny Coulon, bantamweight title holder until Kid Williams dethroned him, while Eddie McGorty, the Oshkosh middleweight were sitting near the ring.

AROUND WORLD RACE IS NOW CERTAINTY

Date Officially Set For Long Distance Contest to Pacific Coast

Philadelphia, Jan. 22.—The long-distance cruiser race from New York to San Francisco will start October 5 from one of the yacht clubs at New York. The date was officially fixed yesterday when announcement was made by Thomas D. Bowes, chairman of the Eastern race committee, the headquarters of which are in this city. The official distance on which the time allowance will be figured is 5,730 sea or nautical miles. The actual distance of a boat sailing a true course, as laid out by the hydrographer, is 5,772 sea or nautical miles. In the latter is included the run through the Panama Canal, a distance of forty-two miles, from Colon to Balboa, which is not part of the race. Racing craft leaving Colon an proceed in a leisurely fashion, inasmuch as the rules allow boats forty-eight hours to make the passage, which time must be consumed in the trip either in actual sailing or in stops enroute.

The distances and stops as contained in the circular of rules and conditions will be as follows: New York to Charleston, 627 nautical miles; Charleston to Key West, 588 nautical miles; Key West to Colon, 1,070 nautical miles; Colon to Balboa (42 miles); Balboa to Corinto, 688 nautical miles; Corinto to Salina Cruz, 525 nautical miles; Salina Cruz to Mazatlan, 877 nautical miles; Mazatlan to San Pedro, 1,002 nautical miles; San Pedro to San Francisco, 358 nautical miles. Total official distance, 5,730 nautical miles. The distance from Colon to Balboa, through the Panama Canal, is not included in the official course measurements, and when added makes the actual length of sail 5,772 nautical miles.

TO APPEAL MEREDITH CASE

Penn Anxious to Have Runner Re-instated at an Early Date

Philadelphia, Jan. 22.—"Ted" Meredith's much-discussed case, in which he has been barred from competing in any open meets for the University of Pennsylvania because he has represented the Meadowbrook Club last Fall in open meets, has one chance to be untangled in his favor. Meredith and Coach Orton, as also the Meadowbrook Club, have been under the impression that this was legal under the rules of the A. A. U. and such has been the interpretation by the Middle Atlantic Association of the A. A. U. At a meeting in the Union League yesterday, which George Pawling, president of the Middle Atlantic Association of the A. A. U.; Andrew C. McGowan, president of the Meadowbrook Club; Secretary Dalters, of the Meadowbrook Club; Dr. Howard Kennedy Hill, chairman of the track committee at the University of Pennsylvania, and Coach George Orton, attended, it was decided to try to right the matter through this division of the A. A. U. President Pawling will hold a meeting to-day and appeal to the national body of the A. A. U. to grant Meredith permission to have his registration with the Meadowbrook Club annulled.

MARTY KAVANAGH ANXIOUS

Decision in Injunction Suit May Make Him a Free Agent The impending crisis in the great baseball war in history is being watched by thousands of people throughout the United States, but there is no one in the player ranks to whom the final decision will mean more than to Marty Kavanagh, the former York Tri-State League player. Kavanagh has come out flat-footed with a statement that under no conditions will he play for Hughey Jennings again in Detroit. Differences between Kavanagh and his manager led Kavanagh to reach the decision. At present he is signed to a Detroit contract, which is binding, but if organized baseball is declared to be a trust and shorn of its bulwark—the National Commission—Kavanagh's contract will then be illegal and he may sign with whom he pleases. Marty has been hoping that he would be traded or sold, but nothing has been done in that direction. He states that he has an offer from a big manufacturing concern in Philadelphia to play independent ball next year, and he is considering it.

LETTER TELLS OF GAME

Received at P. R. R. Y. M. C. A. To-day But Does Not Belong There Harrisburg's semiprofessional basketball team is scheduled to play the Peddie Institute five at Picketown, N. J., to-morrow night. A letter received by Horace Geisel, physical director at the P. R. R. Y. M. C. A., this morning gives the information. The letter has evidently been mis-sent. If any local manager has arranged for the game to-morrow, he can get the letter at the P. R. R. Y. M. C. A.
