The Dives, Pomeroy & Stewart silk waist section has gained a reputation that few departments of the kind enjoy, even in larger centers, and the newest creation to win the praises of femininity is the "Country Club," a crepe de chine garment of rare charm and quality. The high-low throat is fetching, the Country Club pocket is bewitching, and the arrangement of the sleeve at the wrist is—but see the garment for yourself.

How To Get Rid of a Bad Cough

A Home-Made Remedy that Will Do It Quickly, Cheap and Easily Made

If you have a bad cough or chest cold which refuses to yield to ordinary remedies, get from any druggist 2 1/2 ounces of Pinex (50 cents worth), pour into a pint bottle and fill the bottle with plain granulated sugar syrup. Start taking a teaspoonful every hour or two. In 24 hours your cough will be conquered or very nearly so. Even whooping cough is greatly relieved in this way.

The above mixture makes a full pint—a family supply—of the finest cough syrup that money could buy—at a cost of only 54 cents. Easily prepared in 5 minutes. Full directions with Pinex.

This Pinex and Sugar Syrup preparation takes right hold of a cough and gives almost immediate relief. It loosens the dry, hoarse or tight cough in a way that is really remarkable. Also quickly heals the inflamed membrane which accompany a painful cough, and stops the formation of phlegm in the throat and bronchial tubes, thus ending the persistent loose cough. Excellent for bronchitis, spasmodic croup and winter coughs. Keeps perfectly and tastes good—children like it.

Pinex is a special and highly concentrated compound of genuine Norway pine extract, rich in quaiacol, which is so healing to the membranes.

To avoid disappointment, ask your druggist for "2 1/2 ounces of Pinex," do not accept anything else. A guarantee of absolute satisfaction, or money promptly refunded goes with this preparation. The Pinex Co., Ft. Wayne, Ind.

How Redskins Were Stranded Early in March, without the knowledge of the writer, an agent for a German circus, with headquarters at Berlin, Germany, was successful in engaging sixteen Onondaga Indians (twelve men, three women and one babe in arms) to tour Europe for nine months. The salary offered was a dollar a day and expenses. In due time they reached Berlin and divided into two parties for two German circuses, each group having a western cowboy or leader. War broke out. One circus stranded at Trieste, Austria, the other at Essen, Germany. The German members immediately joined their regiments and the Onondagas were abandoned to shift for themselves.

Realizing the situation, the writer wired the Secretary of State at Washington on August 5 to cable the United States ambassadors and consuls to locate, protect and send home the Indians. Six weeks later, after many telegrams and letters to Washington, they were found, some at Hamburg and others at Stockholm. Nine had reached the reservation and seven were to have sailed from Christiania October 17.

Tales of Hardship
"The Indians who returned had a tale of hardship to relate; abandoned, days without food, suffering from bodily violence from German mobs, and straggled as Russian or Serbian spies at every city on the way to Hamburg, though all had United States and German passports. All the Onondaga Indians wear the white man's clothing.

"Much credit is due Hon. J. R. Clancy, congressman from Syracuse district, for the safe return of the Indians, and especially as Russian and Serbian, energetically with the State Department and carried the matter to a successful issue.

"The agents are perfectly legitimate and wholesome engagements, and can be made. No possible objections can be made to Indians taking part in local historical plays and pageants designed to correctly portray historical or ethnological facts, when under the auspices of colleges and historical societies in localities near their reservations. Such events stimulate the white man to accurately himself with the real man of the past and show the Indian of to-day as he is. Throughout the eastern states at the present time local historical events are being presented in the form of plays and pageants, and it is encouraging to note the increasing demand for archeological and ethnological accuracy in staging scenes in which the Indians occupy no inconspicuous parts.

"Only a few days ago the writer stood before the shelves of works on the New York Iroquois in the State Library at Albany, N. Y. Within a few minutes five persons took from the shelves books on this subject for reference or research. The contrast between the morbid curiosity to see the red man as a savage in war paint and the desire to see the Indian as a fellow-human being, with the aid of good books by the family fireside, is a great advance. Dr. F. G. Speck, in the January Quarterly Journal, makes a just plea when he says, 'Educate the white man up to the Indian.'

'MILK' PLEASES FIRST NIGHTERS AT ORPHEUM

Comedy Points Out Evils of Selling Dirty Milk to Babies; Theater 7 Years Old

"Milk," a comedy showing how a "little mother" of the tenements and a newspaper agitator persuade a New York milk baron to clean up his stables and pasteurize his product, is the Orpheum headliner. Seldom, indeed, have the first-nighters an opportunity to see an actress of real talent in a playlet with a real purpose, but that is the opportunity that "Milk" affords.

Miss Una Clayton and Herbert Griffin, in the leading roles do splendid work, but the part of the "newspaperman" might have just a trifle less of the sob in it. Frank Kilday, as the milk baron supports Miss Clayton exceptionally well in one scene. A human interest touch is lent to the comedy by the interest the milk baron takes in his little granddaughter who falls a victim to disease as a result of drinking his dirty milk.

Mack and Orth, in a laughing burlesque, "The Wrong Hero," keep everybody laughing with their "fool talk" and clever little songs. Harry Clarke, banjoist, with two pretty girls, adds much to the musical attractiveness of the week's bill. Mabelle Sherman and Arthur Uttry, in song and dance, are far from homesome.

The Three Bifords, trick cyclists, are here again this week. It will be remembered that Alfred Biford nearly was killed in a fall on the Orpheum stage several weeks ago. Pictures of the inaugural featured the Orpheum last night. O'Brien Havel and Company are a trio of fun makers.
