TO BRIGHTEN WALLS OF DAUPHIN'S JAIL

County Commissioners Grant Request of Business Men of Court Street Building

Dauphin county's rugged gray prison walls will likely be kalsomined with a thin coating of light concrete in accordance with a request made to the county commissioners today by a committee of businessmen of the Arcade building. The commissioners said they would take up the question at once with the county engineer with a view to ordering the work done. It is estimated that the job will cost less than $500.

A few days ago the businessmen in the vicinity asked the prison board to relieve the dark and rugged surface of the Court and Strawberry street sides of the jail wall. They pointed out that resurfacing with concrete or some other light uniform material, would not only brighten the appearance of the walls but would help make lighter the offices that front on Court street, as well as court room No. 2. "The streets in question," say the petitioners, "are so much traveled that they can very properly be called thoroughfares." The prison board referred the petition to the county commissioners and to-day a committee consisting of Harry F. Oves, Alexander Miller and Alderman C. E. Murray urged the request of the petitioners.

Victim of Misfortune Says Everyone Is Down on Man of Fifty Years

"No matter how good a man may be at fifty, no one wants to hire him," remarked David Gordon of Baltimore today. "I have had one son, who is a regular job since last December. He landed in Harrisburg a few days ago, broke, and after the misfortune to fall and fracture his right wrist," Gordon said to-day. "I lost my position when the business depression came on last year. Later my son died and in November my wife died. I have but one son, who is a second lieutenant in the Second United States cavalry. I broke up my home in Baltimore and started in search of a position, hoping to get something to do away from the scenes of my misfortunes. Everwhere I go they tell me I am no good, when I say my age is fifty-one years. They won't hire anyone over forty-five years. I am just as good a machinist as can be found, notwithstanding my age. If it were not for the hospitality of the Harrisburg police department I would have starved. I am good for many more years of hard work, so will try my luck on a farm. If a person could only keep from getting old."

FUNERAL SERVICES OF MISS WILHELM

Prominent Woman Identified With Social and Charitable Life of City

The funeral services of Miss Sara Hand Coleman Wilhelm will be held at her late residence, "Paxtang," tomorrow afternoon at 2 o'clock. They will be conducted by the Rev. A. W. Rudisill, D. D., of Baltimore, Md., assisted by the Rev. Rollin A. Sawyer, St. Stephen's Episcopal Church, Harrisburg. Her friends are invited to attend and the burial will be at York, Pa.

The death of Miss Sara Wilhelm on last Tuesday afternoon, came as a shock to her many friends. For nearly seven years she had been in poor health, but so courageously did she bear her affliction, that she seemed almost invulnerable to the ravages of disease. Her death was a great loss to the city, for she was a woman of high character and noble spirit. She was born in Cornwall, Pa., where her father was for many years manager of the Coleman estate. There was spent her early childhood. About thirty-three years ago Mr. Wilhelm removed to York, Pa., at the same time buying the farms of the late James Dougherty, near Paxtang, for a summer home for his family. Since the death of Mrs. Wilhelm, in 1901, her daughters have made "Paxtang" their permanent home, and have been closely identified with the social and charitable life of Harrisburg.

Miss Wilhelm was a member of the Harrisburg Civic club, the Wednesday club and the Daughters of the American Revolution. At an early age she joined the First Methodist Church of York, and was a member of it at the time of her death, though she attended St. Stephen's Episcopal Church of this city, of which she was a generous supporter, being especially interested in foreign missions. Catholic in her benevolences there are few charitable organizations in Harrisburg or York that will not feel a friend has been lost who could be counted on in time of need. So unobtrusive was her charity that those closest to her scarcely realized the part she was playing in lifting the burden of poverty and sorrow around her. No one in distress appealed to her in vain; but nearest to her heart were the sick and little children. Threatened with blindness a few years ago she has ever since, sent, weekly, great bunches of vivid-toned flowers to the Eye Ward of the University Hospital, Philadelphia, to cheer others whose sight was falling.

CASTORIA

For Infants and Children In Use For Over 30 Years Always bears the Signature of J. C. Ayer & Co.

She had marked musical and artistic taste and executive ability of a high order. Blessed with a sunny nature, that unselfishness whose chief joy is to make others happy, and of unbounded hospitality, she drew to her friends of all ages. Never was she happier than when entertaining, and through all these years of illness her home has been a center of Harrisburg's social life. With a special fondness for young people, she gathered them around her to the very end, planning constantly for their pleasure. Possessed of what someone has called "the genius for friendship," for those she loved nothing was counted too much trouble. She made their joys and sorrows hers, and met them ever with a smile—when the smile meant for her a courage that was heroic.

A SAFE WAY TO STOP INDIGESTION

Without Fear of Weakening the Stomach. Works Fine in Any Case and Brings Relief in Ten Minutes. The greatest folly of to-day is committed by people with weak dyspeptic stomachs who take artificial digesters to cure indigestion. Artificial digesters—pepsin pills, etc.—for a time, but as every stomach is a stomach to shirk its work by doing most of its work for it. This is fine for a time, but as every stomach is a stomach to shirk its work by doing most of its work for it. This is fine for a time, but as every stomach is a stomach to shirk its work by doing most of its work for it.

There is one stomach remedy that every dyspeptic can depend on as surely as that the sun will rise to-morrow and that is the famous old MI-O-NA Stomach Tablets. Most stomach ailments let the stomach rest and digest the food themselves. MI-O-NA won't digest anything, but it will strengthen and stimulate the stomach and make it do its own digesting. It stops stomach pains, gas, bloating, burning, belching, etc., in ten minutes and does still better by making the flabby, inflamed and inactive stomach walls grow strong and elastic and able to do their own churning. MI-O-NA Tablets never lose their effect and unlike mere artificial digesters need not be used forever. A few weeks' use is generally sufficient to put any stomach in line with the rest of the body. MI-O-NA Tablets are sold by all druggists and many other leading druggists hereabouts sell it with that understanding, agreeing to refund money to anyone who does not get complete relief.
