Will Continue Until Saturday Evening

Thursday and Friday were days of continual surprises for style seekers—they had never seen such a showing in Harrisburg before so far in advance of the usual time for showing the new fashions. It pleased us also, because we COULD show the new things first—that is part of our service.

Tomorrow there will be lots of interesting fashion sights, and every woman is invited to pay especially the millinery and suit departments a visit.

Visions of Grace and Beauty Are the New Spring Suits

If we could only stretch our imagination to the point of creating proper words, there might be some possibility of giving a fair description of these suits.

But we want you to see them, for you can secure a better idea of the coming Spring styles than any fashion magazine can picture.

We'll expect you tomorrow.

Our Millinery Department Is Keeping Time With Fifth Avenue

—in showing the latest style tendencies, first. This is because our millinery chief is in constant touch with designers. Right now, the beautiful models here, are precisely the same that high class 5th Ave. shops are showing.

Trimmed Hats are presented in the most authentic styles such as only designers of note produce and you will agree with us that no showing in Harrisburg can compare with this one, for exclusiveness of style and variety.

Untrimmed Shapes—we cannot say too much about the assortment. While we feature shapes of rare beauty and fineness, the finest that are made, yet for $1.95 you may secure chic styles in good materials that will trim up splendidly.

agement. After their talk, in which they describe their own experiences in taking the "Twilight Sleep" treatment to relieve pain during childbirth, Mrs. Francis X. Carmody and Mrs. Mary Sumner Boyd, the speakers, will answer all questions seriously put to them on this subject.—Advertisement.

ORPHEUM

How a loving but over extravagant wife can be made to economize is pointed out in very entertaining fashion at the Orpheum this week. The playlet is called "Such Extravagance" and the players are Mr. and Mrs. Frank Gilmore and the company. The trick is turned by the husband telling his wife he has forged to keep her in luxury, and he substantiates his statements by having an old school friend, whom his wife hasn't seen, don police uniform and come to arrest him. Mr. and Mrs. Frank Gilmore offer one of the clever turns supporting the Four Marx Brothers in "Home Again." Also Van and Sobenck, the popular singing comedians, Augusta Glose, the charming vocalist and pianist, is slated to appear at the Orpheum next week.—Advertisement.

COLONIAL

A fine mixture of harmony and mirth is being served up by the Empire Comedy Trio at the Busy Corner for the last half of the week. Admirers of good voices as much as they tickle the risibilities of lovers of irresistible comedy, Frank Madden and company, presenting a roaring comedy called "The Top Floor Front," are also coming in for almost equal honors in the way of laughter and applause. Marie King Scott, the Hoosier Girl, has a bright and funny line of patter, and the Three Bartos, sensational gymnasts, complete an unusual roster.—Advertisement.

PHOTOPLAY TODAY

"The Leopard's Lair" is shown to-day at the Photoplay along with a two-act Vitagraph drama, "For Another's Crime," featuring Leo Delaney and Leah Baird. "Broncho Billy's Greaser Deputy," with Helen Holmes, the fearless girl in the lead, "The Escape on the Fast Freight," is another thriller. This time Helen, the telegraph operator, fights with a fugitive on top of a fast moving freight train.—Advertisement.

BIG BILL OF FEATURES AT THE VICTORIA THEATER TODAY

The Victoria Theater, 223 Market street, to-day presents its patrons with a big bill of features of exceptional merit. The headliner is "The Hoosier Schoolmaster," in five reels, featuring Max Figman, supported by Miss Lolita Robertson. Full of thrillingly amusing scenes and events, this great photodrama is well worth seeing and the Victoria management extends a cordial invitation to its patrons to take advantage of the production here to-day.
Another extraordinary offering at the Victoria to-day is a special two-reel "Keynote Comedy." This piece of film is brimming with humor and is one continuous laugh. Don't fail to see it to-day. The program will be concluded with the "Facts Daily News" showing latest pictorial news events at home and abroad.

To-morrow's special will be the first episode of "The Exploits of Elaine" an extraordinary serial of love mystery and adventure, which will continue every week. The management considers itself fortunate in securing this big attraction, which promises to out-ride "The Million Dollar Mystery," which pleased so many of its patrons.—Advertisement.
