HARRISBURG D. A. R. HONORS WASHINGTON

Interesting Program Presented; Mrs. Gilbert M. McCauley Resigns as Regent

The Washington's Birthday celebration of Harrisburg chapter, Daughters of the American Revolution held this afternoon in assembly hall of the Y. M. C. A., was one of the most attractive in the chapter's existence, attended by a goodly company of members and their guests.

A large portrait of the "Father of His Country" hung just back of the platform and American flags adorned the reading desk with a beautiful Oriental vase of scarlet carnations.

Mrs. Henry McCormick, first vice-regent, presided and included in the business session was the election of delegates to the National Congress in Washington in April. Mrs. Charles J. Wood, Jr., will be the Regent's alternate, and Mrs. Mabel Cronise Jones will represent the chapter as delegate.

The resignation of Mrs. Gilbert M. McCauley as regent, was regretfully accepted, her prolonged illness making it impossible for her to keep the position. The chapter will send Mrs. McCauley a basket of flowers with best wishes for her speedy recovery.

Miss Cora Lee Snyder, chapter historian, spoke of early celebrations of Washington's Birthday, of the death of a "Real Daughter" in the American Moore, of Wayne county, whose father was an officer in Washington's army in 1776; of the death of Miss Sara Hand Coleman Wilhelm, a member of this chapter, and of his present in the Legislature to preserve historical sites in the State of Pennsylvania.

Music and Stories

The chapter's new piano, a Mehlin upright, was in use for the first time, to-day and materially assisted in the enthusiastic singing of patriotic songs.

Mrs. Keats Peay read a letter from the Hindman Settlement School of Kentucky, telling of the needs of that institution where the chapter helps support a little girl of Revolutionary ancestry.

Mrs. Martin A. Cumber, a skilled pianist, played with grace and rare interpretation, a "Gavotte" by Gluck-Brahms, one of the stately dances of the early days of the Republic, and an "Edgie" by MacDowell, an American composer. Miss Lois K. Booker, president of the Story Telling club, expressively told that beautiful Lincoln story by Margaretta Spalding Gerry, "The Toy Shop" showing the great heart and simplicity of Lincoln the man and president. Mrs. William K. Bumbaugh, soprano, sang with Newell Albright as accompanist, "Sunlight," a waltz song by Harriet Ware and two of Liza Lehman's bird songs, "Wood Pigeons" and "The Little Owls." Mrs. Bumbaugh's voice was never more effective than in the lilting cadences of her first number and in the quaint and soft bird notes.

Tea was served following the program, with Mrs. Thomas M. Jones pouring, Mrs. Edward Z. Gross and Mrs. Samuel F. Dunkle assisting. The tea room was decorated with potted plants, an antique silver service was used and there were tall red candles in silver candlesticks gracing the table.

DAUGHTER OF ANTI ARDENT SUFFRAGIST

Miss Josephine Urich Organizes Suffrage League Right in Her Own Home

MISS JOSEPHINE URICH
Special to The Telegraph

Annapolis, Pa., Feb. 22.—That Miss Josephine Urich, daughter of Representative Isaac K. Urich, of Lebanon county, does not share her father's fears on what may happen to the women of Pennsylvania if the ballot is given to them, is being demonstrated by the active part which she is now playing in the local local suffrage movement.

When the suffrage resolution came up for vote in the House recently, Representative Urich made an impassioned protest against its passage. The House passed the resolution nevertheless and right on the heels of that action, his daughter Josephine called the members of the local G. I. G. club to her home and organized them into a suffrage league. She was made secretary of the league and is now in charge of the suffrage meetings to which all the students of the college will be invited.

mination to refuse in the future any letters bearing upon the issue of liquor license applications.

The communications in question were the letters referring to the presence of women in the side rooms of the Hoffman House, this city, and of the sale by the keeper of the St. Lawrence House, Berryburg, of liquor to intoxicated men.

Counsel for the applicants suggested that inasmuch as the letters were not filed within the time limit allowed for remonstrances nor in the regular way, the court could quite properly refuse to consider the objections.

President Judge Kunkel took up the consideration of the letters at the close of the hearing on the Paxtonia Inn application. In view of the fact that the communications had evidently been sent in good faith, the court decided to give them proper consideration, although he announced definitely the future policy of the court in this respect.

March 1 was fixed as the time for hearing these applications. This means that when the bars at these hotels are closed at midnight Saturday they must remain "dry" until the question of their fitness for relicensing is settled.

Before Monday the court will decide whether or not the applications of the Ann Street Hotel, Middletown, and the Paxtonia Inn, the two hosteries against which remonstrances had been
