

PERSONAL SOCIAL

MISS DUNCAN TO WED

B. BOYD HARRINGTON

Mr. and Mrs. P. F. Duncan, of Duncannon, Make Formal Announcement Today

Mr. and Mrs. P. F. Duncan, of Duncannon, announced the engagement of their daughter, Miss Priscilla May Duncan, to B. Boyd Harrington, of Harrisburg, at a luncheon to-day, followed by an informal tea.

The appointments were of yellow and white with narcissus and jonquils prevailing in the table decorations.

The luncheon guests were: Mrs. E. B. Fletcher, of Newport; Mrs. William Jennings, Mrs. J. E. Wilson, Mrs. N. H. Trout, Mrs. H. D. Reutter, Mrs. M. J. Fahnstock, Mrs. Lane S. Hart, Mrs. C. A. Walter, Mrs. W. J. Stewart, Mrs. Farley Gannett, Mrs. H. H. Houseal, Mrs. B. S. Duncan, Mrs. G. B. Pennell, Mrs. N. M. Frock, the Misses Jenkin, Miss Anna Henderson, Miss Ellen Popper, Miss Sue Stewart, Miss Elizabeth Dorwart, Miss Gene Freck, Miss Anna Williams, Miss Anna Katherine Hart, Miss Jean Stewart Duncan, Miss Clara Stewart, Mrs. William Willis, Mrs. E. B. Harrington, Mrs. William Henderson, Mrs. Samuel Wittemeyer and Mrs. E. L. Rickenbach.

Mr. and Mrs. Rexford M. Gaspey of the Donaldson, are home after a week's stay at Vineland, N. J.

Miss Mary M. Vollmer is spending several days in New York city.

Cards With Miss Adams

in Mrs. Gaspey's Honor

Guests of Miss Charlotte Adams this afternoon at her Forster street home were delighted to greet the guest of honor Mrs. Rexford Mason Gaspey, a recent bride, formerly Miss Mary Graber, of this city.

Pink appointments in the card room and supper were augmented by masses of spring flowers, primroses, hyacinths, narcissus and daisies. The favors were Cupids with upraised parasols.

The party included Mrs. Gaspey, Mrs. William Coulter Wambaugh, Mrs. Willis W. Smith, Mrs. John Ford Adams, Mrs. Ross Simonetti, Miss Carolyn Reiley, Miss Gertrude George, Miss Mildred Astrich, Miss Helen Rinkenbach, Miss Constance Beilerman, Miss Marjorie Adams, Miss Helen Miller, Miss Esther Adams, Miss Elizabeth Dohoney and Miss Helen Adams.

SUFFRAGISTS ELECT

AN ADVISORY BOARD

Central Pennsylvania Woman Suffrage Association Has 500 Local Members

The Central Pennsylvania Woman Suffrage Association has elected the following members of its advisory board for the ensuing year: Chairman Mrs. Harry B. Montgomery, Mrs. William Elder Bailey, Mrs. James I. Chamberlin, Mrs. James Henry Darlington, Mrs. Rudolph Dubs, Miss Laura M. Gause, Mrs. W. O. Hickok, III; Mrs. Robert Hatfield Irons, Mrs. Walter Maguire, Mrs. George W. Rely, Jr., Mrs. Charles Stough Robinson, Mrs. Harvey F. Smith, Mrs. Silas C. Swallow, Miss Cora Lee Snyder, Mrs. Augustus Wildman, William Elder Bailey, the Rev. James Henry Darlington, Bishop Rudolph Dubs, Charles Francis Etter, the Rev. Stewart Winfield Herman, Meier G. Hilpert, Dean Hoffman, Robert Hatfield Irons, Vance C. McCormick, Harry B. Montgomery, James A. Stranahan, Silas C. Swallow, Augustus Wildman.

The association now numbers some 500 local members. The business of the society is in the hands of the executive board which includes the chairman of the advisory board, Mrs. Harry B. Montgomery, and the following officers: President, Mrs. Mabel Cronise Jones; honorary president, Miss Mira Lloyd Dock; first vice-president, Mrs. Wilbur F. Harris; second vice-president, Mrs. Philip T. Meredith; secretary, Mrs. Meier G. Hilpert; treasurer, Mrs. Charles Francis Etter; historian, Miss May Fox.

FOR THE N. I. CLUB

Two Hostesses Make It Pleasant for Their Guests

Mrs. George A. Robeson and Mrs. George A. Robeson, Jr., entertained the N. I. Club yesterday afternoon. After a pleasant afternoon supper was served with Washington decorations to Mrs. G. Lester Diehl, Miss Berta Templar, Miss Margaret Powers, Mrs. Raymond Whitman, Mrs. Milton W. Beach, Mrs. Howard Robeson, Mrs. Arthur Adam, Miss Evelyn Lenore W. Man, Mrs. George A. Robeson and Mrs. George A. Robeson, Jr.

Miss Fannie Hoy, of Green street, has gone to Lancaster to spend Sunday with Miss Margaret Moyer.

Mrs. M. J. Gause, of Carlisle, has returned from a business trip to this city.

Attorney George B. Reimensnyder, of Sunbury, came to Harrisburg on legal business yesterday.

Frederic C. Martin, of Riverside, is home after a little trip to Baltimore.

Mrs. Herman P. Miller has returned home after a visit with her sister, Miss Lillian Jones, at Conshohocken.

Mr. and Mrs. Walton Harris left for their home at Cleveland, Ohio, this morning after spending a fortnight among old friends in this vicinity.

The R. E. Boswell Class

Spends Social Evening

Members of the Ralph E. Boswell class of the Stevens Memorial Methodist church, were entertained last evening by Mr. and Mrs. Boswell at their residence, 30 North Seventeenth street.

Music by several of the girls, games and refreshments were features of pleasure enjoyed by the Misses Beatrice McAllister, Grace Bergstresser, Alice Schwaab, Lucille Smucker, Margaret Tempel, Lottie McClintock, Helen Nickel, Lenora Shearer, Margaret Cummings, Alice Brackbill, Lulu Orner, Ruth Spangler, Anna Wagner, Irene White, Ruth Fickes, Naomi Barnhart, Ruth Brink, Olive Sweigert, Merle Criswell, Naomi Spangler, Mr. and Mrs. Boswell.

MRS. QUIGLEY'S GUESTS

Pleasant Social Event With a Dozen Ladies in Attendance

Mrs. Henry Carter Quigley, of South Eighteenth street, entertained last evening by Mr. and Mrs. Boswell at their residence, 30 North Seventeenth street.

Music by several of the girls, games and refreshments were features of pleasure enjoyed by the Misses Beatrice McAllister, Grace Bergstresser, Alice Schwaab, Lucille Smucker, Margaret Tempel, Lottie McClintock, Helen Nickel, Lenora Shearer, Margaret Cummings, Alice Brackbill, Lulu Orner, Ruth Spangler, Anna Wagner, Irene White, Ruth Fickes, Naomi Barnhart, Ruth Brink, Olive Sweigert, Merle Criswell, Naomi Spangler, Mr. and Mrs. Boswell.

MISS BIXLER'S GUESTS

Play Progressive Cards

Miss Edna Bixler, 821 North Sixth street, was hostess for the D. I. K. Club last evening. Progressive five card solitaire and prizes were won by Miss Naomi Winger. Miss Helen Morsch, Paul Reindel and Roger Sellman.

After the games refreshments were served to the following members and their friends: Miss Naomi Winger, Miss Pearl Black, Miss Grace Daniel, Miss Helen Morsch, Miss Hazel Mackler, Roger Sellman, Mrs. Elizabeth Arbogast, Paul Reindel, Earl Fease, William Gardner and Ellis Roberts.

Program Announced For

Heaton Organ Recital

Walter H. Heaton, who will give an organ recital in the Bethlehem Lutheran Church Monday evening, March 1, at 8.15 o'clock, is a member of the Reading Rotary Club and has been in this city a guest of Rotarians several times. Mr. Heaton is also a fellow of the Royal College of Organists and fellow of the American Guild of Organists. A composer of note as well as a skilled organist. There is no admission, but a silver offering will be taken.

The concert will include: Concerto in G Major, J. S. Bach, allegro, adagio, allegro molto; Sonata di Camera (No. 3), A. L. Peace, cantilena, allegro molto vivace; Fantasia in A Minor, Lemmens, melodic; "The Two Angels," Bimenthal-Whiting; rondo; Westernout; meditation; Sturzig; humorous; Tschalkowsky; Oriental sketch; Bird; "A Rustic Wedding," J. A. West; Impromptu, "Marziane," H. Hiles.

ENTERTAINED AT DINNER

Special to The Telegraph

New Cumberland, Pa., Feb. 27.—Mr. Harriet Wickersham, Mrs. Marjanna Sponser and Miss Tille Wickersham, entertained at dinner at their home at New Market on Thursday, complimentary to the Rev. and Mrs. J. V. Adams and daughters, Henrietta and Mary Margaret.

TELL OF ENGAGEMENT

AT ROSE LUNCHEON

Miss Elizabeth Ellenberger Will Marry Joseph Griffin, of Boston, in Spring

Miss Elizabeth Ellenberger, of Riverside, entertained at luncheon to-day, when announcement was made of her engagement to Joseph D. Griffin, of Boston.

A color scheme of pink was carried out in the decorations and menu, and the centerpiece was of pink Killarney roses. The favors were bonbonnières to which were attached tiny heart-shaped cards bearing the names of the hostess and her fiancé.

The guests were Miss Edna Longford, of Gloversville, N. Y.; Miss Katharine Coover, Miss Marguerite Robinson, Miss Anna Margaret Miller, Mrs. Karl Richards, Mrs. William Hicks, Mrs. C. A. Dunn, Miss Margaret M. Miller, Miss Caroline Patterson, Miss Florence Carroll, Miss Helen Oenslager and Miss Katharine Phillips.

Miss Ellenberger is a daughter of Professor and Mrs. A. Ellenberger, and a graduate of the Liberal Arts department of Syracuse University. She has a record as a tennis player both at college and in this city, and several years ago she won three tennis events in the Reservoir Park tournament. Mr. Griffin is a graduate of Syracuse University, receiving his degree in the college of law. He also is an alumnus of Pennington Seminary, N. J., and of the Virginia Military Institute. A native of North Carolina, Mr. Griffin is now located at Boston as a claim examiner for the Fidelity and Casualty Company of New York.

Surprise Donald Heagy

on Eighteenth Birthday

When Donald Heagy of 1337 Market street reached his home last evening after a call on a neighbor, he found a gathering of his friends all prepared to help him have a jolly birthday celebration. He received many handsome gifts. Music, contests and a supper were enjoyed. The cake bearing 18 lighted red candles formed the table centerpiece.

The guests were the Misses Esther Fisher, of New Cumberland; Gretina Essinger, Margaret Esinger, Mary Goodheart, Helen Wharton, Kathryn Hoffmann of Riverside, Esther Pearce, Ada Lupton, Margaret Stouffer and Marguerite Reynolds, Donald Heagy, Paul Reynolds, Charles Froelich, Galen Mitzer, Blake Booser, Mark Phillips, Charles Snyder, Richard Heagy, Luther Miller, Andrew Stoffer, Luther Heagy, Mr. Heagy's Washington, D. C. friends, and Miss Laura Stoffer.

Clerks at Enola Guests

of T. C. Griffith Tonight

T. C. Griffith of Enola will entertain the clerks of the brick office at his home in Brick Church road, this evening.

With Mr. Griffith at the piano, there will be singing by Walter Crawford, Willy Harris and Harry McIntyre. Ike Rones will give a reading. With his Boots On—No. 15, and there will be some special eats.

The party will include G. W. Fosher, C. A. Bear, G. E. Myers, C. H. Rones, F. H. Crawford, H. F. McIntyre and J. E. Etcheberger.

CROWL-SOBER MARRIAGE

The marriage of Miss Laura E. Sober of 1612 North Fourth street, and John H. Crowl of Elysburg, took place this morning at 10 o'clock at the parsonage of the Fifth Street Methodist Church, with the Rev. B. H. Hart officiating.

The bride, who was unattended, wore a dainty, costly, blue marquisette with picture hat. She is a trained nurse and has served in two hospitals here. Mr. Crowl is connected with the Bell Telephone company.

After the wedding trip to Washington and Richmond, Va., Mr. and Mrs. Crowl will reside in this city.

Miss Bixler's Guests

Play Progressive Cards

Miss Edna Bixler, 821 North Sixth street, was hostess for the D. I. K. Club last evening. Progressive five card solitaire and prizes were won by Miss Naomi Winger. Miss Helen Morsch, Paul Reindel and Roger Sellman.

After the games refreshments were served to the following members and their friends: Miss Naomi Winger, Miss Pearl Black, Miss Grace Daniel, Miss Helen Morsch, Miss Hazel Mackler, Roger Sellman, Mrs. Elizabeth Arbogast, Paul Reindel, Earl Fease, William Gardner and Ellis Roberts.

Program Announced For

Heaton Organ Recital

Walter H. Heaton, who will give an organ recital in the Bethlehem Lutheran Church Monday evening, March 1, at 8.15 o'clock, is a member of the Reading Rotary Club and has been in this city a guest of Rotarians several times. Mr. Heaton is also a fellow of the Royal College of Organists and fellow of the American Guild of Organists. A composer of note as well as a skilled organist. There is no admission, but a silver offering will be taken.

The concert will include: Concerto in G Major, J. S. Bach, allegro, adagio, allegro molto; Sonata di Camera (No. 3), A. L. Peace, cantilena, allegro molto vivace; Fantasia in A Minor, Lemmens, melodic; "The Two Angels," Bimenthal-Whiting; rondo; Westernout; meditation; Sturzig; humorous; Tschalkowsky; Oriental sketch; Bird; "A Rustic Wedding," J. A. West; Impromptu, "Marziane," H. Hiles.

ENTERTAINED AT DINNER

Special to The Telegraph

New Cumberland, Pa., Feb. 27.—Mr. Harriet Wickersham, Mrs. Marjanna Sponser and Miss Tille Wickersham, entertained at dinner at their home at New Market on Thursday, complimentary to the Rev. and Mrs. J. V. Adams and daughters, Henrietta and Mary Margaret.

OPERATIC SOCIETY

DANCES LAST NIGHT

Miss Heishley and the Haydn Quartet Add to Pleasure by Vocal Numbers

The Harrisburg Operatic society held a pretty dance last evening at Hanshaw's ball, with F. Marion Sourbeer at the piano, Hetzel Davis and Harry Branyan, with drums playing.

Miss Ada Heishley sang several numbers during the evening, which were received with hearty applause. The Haydn quartet, comprising Ralph Steever, first tenor; Jerome Hamilton, second tenor; Nevin Seltzer, baritone and Howard Frain, bass, sang with fine effect for the dancers.

Among the guests were the Misses Ellen Pomeroy and Pamela Pomeroy of Port Royal; Louise Fisher, Pearl Floyd, Carrie Tunis, Josephine Shader, Mabel Books, Dorothy Frankberger, Ethel Davies, Margaret Kochenour, Margaret Landis, Mrs. Frank Davies, Esther Horning, Hazel Rexroth, Helen Keister, Mabel L. Weist Florence Scholl, Miriam Johnson, Miriam Keiser and Ada Heishley, Mrs. F. M. Sourbeer, Russel Hawk, Dennis Cocklin, Richard Maxwell, Robert Fohl, Frank Davies, Elmer Ehler, Jerome Hamilton, Nevin Seltzer, Ralph Steever, Howard Frain, Ralph Kulp, Raymond Isenberg, Robert George, Roger Stewart, Heath Braselmann, Lewis Cohen, Mick Windsor, John Fisher, Lewis Sarker, Jr., and Charlie Pease.

Surprise Donald Heagy

on Eighteenth Birthday

When Donald Heagy of 1337 Market street reached his home last evening after a call on a neighbor, he found a gathering of his friends all prepared to help him have a jolly birthday celebration. He received many handsome gifts. Music, contests and a supper were enjoyed. The cake bearing 18 lighted red candles formed the table centerpiece.

The guests were the Misses Esther Fisher, of New Cumberland; Gretina Essinger, Margaret Esinger, Mary Goodheart, Helen Wharton, Kathryn Hoffmann of Riverside, Esther Pearce, Ada Lupton, Margaret Stouffer and Marguerite Reynolds, Donald Heagy, Paul Reynolds, Charles Froelich, Galen Mitzer, Blake Booser, Mark Phillips, Charles Snyder, Richard Heagy, Luther Miller, Andrew Stoffer, Luther Heagy, Mr. Heagy's Washington, D. C. friends, and Miss Laura Stoffer.

Clerks at Enola Guests

of T. C. Griffith Tonight

T. C. Griffith of Enola will entertain the clerks of the brick office at his home in Brick Church road, this evening.

With Mr. Griffith at the piano, there will be singing by Walter Crawford, Willy Harris and Harry McIntyre. Ike Rones will give a reading. With his Boots On—No. 15, and there will be some special eats.

The party will include G. W. Fosher, C. A. Bear, G. E. Myers, C. H. Rones, F. H. Crawford, H. F. McIntyre and J. E. Etcheberger.

CROWL-SOBER MARRIAGE

The marriage of Miss Laura E. Sober of 1612 North Fourth street, and John H. Crowl of Elysburg, took place this morning at 10 o'clock at the parsonage of the Fifth Street Methodist Church, with the Rev. B. H. Hart officiating.

The bride, who was unattended, wore a dainty, costly, blue marquisette with picture hat. She is a trained nurse and has served in two hospitals here. Mr. Crowl is connected with the Bell Telephone company.

After the wedding trip to Washington and Richmond, Va., Mr. and Mrs. Crowl will reside in this city.

Miss Bixler's Guests

Play Progressive Cards

Miss Edna Bixler, 821 North Sixth street, was hostess for the D. I. K. Club last evening. Progressive five card solitaire and prizes were won by Miss Naomi Winger. Miss Helen Morsch, Paul Reindel and Roger Sellman.

After the games refreshments were served to the following members and their friends: Miss Naomi Winger, Miss Pearl Black, Miss Grace Daniel, Miss Helen Morsch, Miss Hazel Mackler, Roger Sellman, Mrs. Elizabeth Arbogast, Paul Reindel, Earl Fease, William Gardner and Ellis Roberts.

Program Announced For

Heaton Organ Recital

Walter H. Heaton, who will give an organ recital in the Bethlehem Lutheran Church Monday evening, March 1, at 8.15 o'clock, is a member of the Reading Rotary Club and has been in this city a guest of Rotarians several times. Mr. Heaton is also a fellow of the Royal College of Organists and fellow of the American Guild of Organists. A composer of note as well as a skilled organist. There is no admission, but a silver offering will be taken.

The concert will include: Concerto in G Major, J. S. Bach, allegro, adagio, allegro molto; Sonata di Camera (No. 3), A. L. Peace, cantilena, allegro molto vivace; Fantasia in A Minor, Lemmens, melodic; "The Two Angels," Bimenthal-Whiting; rondo; Westernout; meditation; Sturzig; humorous; Tschalkowsky; Oriental sketch; Bird; "A Rustic Wedding," J. A. West; Impromptu, "Marziane," H. Hiles.

ENTERTAINED AT DINNER

Special to The Telegraph

New Cumberland, Pa., Feb. 27.—Mr. Harriet Wickersham, Mrs. Marjanna Sponser and Miss Tille Wickersham, entertained at dinner at their home at New Market on Thursday, complimentary to the Rev. and Mrs. J. V. Adams and daughters, Henrietta and Mary Margaret.

Astrich's

Special For Monday

Fresh From the Factory

SHIRRED SATIN SAILORS, valued at $2, all the newest colors.

Only one Sale on these goods,

79c

Another lot of High-Class Hemp and Satin Sailors, Turbans Etc., Valued up to $3.00, an unusual fine variety

59c

BLACK HEMP HATS, large small and medium, 20 different styles, including Sailors and Mushroom, values $1 & $1.50,

SALE STARTS AT 9 O'CLOCK

Training School Girls

Clear $200 For Benefit

More than $200 was cleared last evening by the Teachers' Training school, of which Miss Anne U. Wert is the instructor, at the entertainment given in the Technical high school auditorium for the benefit of the piano fund. The money will be used to help buy a piano for the study room in the Stevens building.

The following took part in the play: and tableaux: Misses Anna Harris, Martha Wall, Elizabeth Workman, Susan Kurzenkne, Margaret Shilling, Louise Aughtinbaugh, Mary Black, Bess Bennett, Martha Treiman, Esther Parthemore, Margaret Cover, Esther Wiseman, Ruth Holbert, Ruth Parthemore, Miriam Britsch, Ida Marcus, Dolores Segelbaum, Elsie Landis, Margaret Murray, Frances Gekwicks, Dorothy Dickert, Jane Blalock, Sara Bannan, Ruth Atkinson, Beatrix Barger, Kathryn Aldinger, Gertrude Pendergast, Edna Mutschalgh.

The ushers were: Misses Mabel Hall, Evelyn Joyce, Rose Mahan, Mabel Maurer, Katherine Miller, Esther Sherk, Margaret Slaymaker, Margaret Smith, Ruth Tack, Mildred Williams.

St. John's Church Choir

Has Social Celebration

Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Kettle, of 2021 North Fourth street, entertained last night at their home the members of the St. John's Reformed Church choir. Games and music were features of the evening.

Professor E. A. Anderson, of West Point, was the guest of the evening and assisted in the musical end of the session. He sang the well-known masterpiece, "Swanana Ebban," accompanied by Miss Ruby Sweeters on the piano and Emory Muller on the violin.

After spending a pleasant evening refreshments were served to the Misses L. Gotwalt, Margaret C. Brenner, Mrs. J. B. Smythe, Mrs. H. J. Formwalt, Mrs. H. W. Kettle, Miss Evelyn Kettle, Miss Mary Kahle, Professor E. A. Anderson, J. B. Smythe, the Jonathan and Emory Muller, Whisler C. Smythe, H. J. Formwalt, H. W. Kettle and George Kettle.

MRS. D. I. BACHMAN IS ILL

IN MINNESOTA HOSPITAL

Dr. C. C. Stouffer, of 1923 Green street, returned to-day from Rochester, Minn., where he took Mrs. D. I. Bachman, of 2146 Green street, for an operation for gall stones at the Mayo Brothers hospital.

The operation performed Thursday was successful and Dr. Stouffer reports the patient doing well.

Mrs. W. H. Lower, of Roanoke, Va., accompanied her sister-in-law to Rochester and will remain with her for some time. Mrs. Bachman makes her home here with her sister, Mrs. C. H. Grove.

FOR BUFFALO VISITORS

Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Metzger, of Camp Hill, entertained in honor of Mr. and Mrs. P. W. Metzger, of Buffalo, N. Y. Their dinner guests included Mr. and Mrs. T. F. Boone, Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Metzger, of Camp Hill; Mr. and Mrs. C. R. Leach, of Lemoyne; Mr. and Mrs. W. Metzger, of Buffalo; Misses Louise and Claire Blaine, Master Lee Boone, Miss Evelyn Metzger, Master Morlin Metzger, P. W. Metzger, Jr., and Miss Elsie Leach.

ST. PATRICK'S BAL-MASQUE

Arrangements are being made for at St. Patrick's Bal-Masque at Winterdale, Friday evening, March 19, from 8.30 to 1 o'clock.

This is a subscription affair and the committee includes R. R. Brinsler, J. M. Fletcher, James Q. Handshaw, Jr., Lee A. Laubenshine and W. H. Johnston. The Upgrove orchestra will play.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur B. Henry and daughter Marion, 38 North Eighteenth street, left this morning to spend several days with relatives and friends in Philadelphia, Pa.

Miss Sarah Hayes, 110 Her street, and Miss Margaret Wheeler, 1266 State street, have returned home from a visit to Carlisle and Mt. Holly, Pa.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur B. Henry and daughter Marion, 38 North Eighteenth street, left this morning to spend several days with relatives and friends in Philadelphia, Pa.

Miss Sarah Hayes, 110 Her street, and Miss Margaret Wheeler, 1266 State street, have returned home from a visit to Carlisle and Mt. Holly, Pa.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur B. Henry and daughter Marion, 38 North Eighteenth street, left this morning to spend several days with relatives and friends in Philadelphia, Pa.

Miss Sarah Hayes, 110 Her street, and Miss Margaret Wheeler, 1266 State street, have returned home from a visit to Carlisle and Mt. Holly, Pa.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur B. Henry and daughter Marion, 38 North Eighteenth street, left this morning to spend several days with relatives and friends in Philadelphia, Pa.

Miss Sarah Hayes, 110 Her street, and Miss Margaret Wheeler, 1266 State street, have returned home from a visit to Carlisle and Mt. Holly, Pa.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur B. Henry and daughter Marion, 38 North Eighteenth street, left this morning to spend several days with relatives and friends in Philadelphia, Pa.

Miss Sarah Hayes, 110 Her street, and Miss Margaret Wheeler, 1266 State street, have returned home from a visit to Carlisle and Mt. Holly, Pa.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur B. Henry and daughter Marion, 38 North Eighteenth street, left this morning to spend several days with relatives and friends in Philadelphia, Pa.

Miss Sarah Hayes, 110 Her street, and Miss Margaret Wheeler, 1266 State street, have returned home from a visit to Carlisle and Mt. Holly, Pa.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur B. Henry and daughter Marion, 38 North Eighteenth street, left this morning to spend several days with relatives and friends in Philadelphia, Pa.

Miss Sarah Hayes, 110 Her street, and Miss Margaret Wheeler, 1266 State street, have returned home from a visit to Carlisle and Mt. Holly, Pa.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur B. Henry and daughter Marion, 38 North Eighteenth street, left this morning to spend several days with relatives and friends in Philadelphia, Pa.

Miss Sarah Hayes, 110 Her street, and Miss Margaret Wheeler, 1266 State street, have returned home from a visit to Carlisle and Mt. Holly, Pa.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur B. Henry and daughter Marion, 38 North Eighteenth street, left this morning to spend several days with relatives and friends in Philadelphia, Pa.

Miss Sarah Hayes, 110 Her street, and Miss Margaret Wheeler, 1266 State street, have returned home from a visit to Carlisle and Mt. Holly, Pa.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur B. Henry and daughter Marion, 38 North Eighteenth street, left this morning to spend several days with relatives and friends in Philadelphia, Pa.

Miss Sarah Hayes, 110 Her street, and Miss Margaret Wheeler, 1266 State street, have returned home from a visit to Carlisle and Mt. Holly, Pa.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur B. Henry and daughter Marion, 38 North Eighteenth street, left this morning to spend several days with relatives and friends in Philadelphia, Pa.

Miss Sarah Hayes, 110 Her street, and Miss Margaret Wheeler, 1266 State street, have returned home from a visit to Carlisle and Mt. Holly, Pa.

CHURCHES

[Other Church on Page 14.]

State Treasurer Young

Talks of Indian Tribes

Robert K. Young, State treasurer, spoke last night on the American Indian before 200 members and friends of the Albrechts Association in St. Andrew's Episcopal church, 15th and Chestnut and Market streets. A smoker and luncheon followed the address.

Mr. Young gave interesting information regarding the Indian and the almost complete annihilation of the 200,000 who inhabited the territory east of the Mississippi river in Colonial times. The 2,000 Iroquois who are now living in Pennsylvania, he said, are prospering and maintaining a steady growth.

MEN'S CLASS PLANS MUSICALS

The Men's Bible Class of St. Matthew's Reformed Church, Enola, will give a musical in the church Thursday evening, March 4, at 7.45 o'clock.

SPECIAL MUSIC

Special music by the choir and a short address by the Rev. B. M. Ward, pastor of the Capital Street Presbyterian Church, will be in the evening services at that church.

"GOD WANTS OUR BEST"

The Sunday afternoon men's mass meeting at the P. R. Y. M. C. A. will be in charge of W. L. Palmer, who will speak on the subject "God Wants Our Best."

FRIENDS TO DISCUSS PEACE

The Society of Friends will meet tomorrow afternoon at 3.30 o'clock at the home of George Chambers, Wormeysburg. A peace meeting to be held probably March 6 in Technical High School will be arranged for under the auspices of the Society of Friends and the Pennsylvania Arbitration and Peace Society. S. T. Brown and A. Lowery will attend the meeting tomorrow.

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE

First Christian Scientist—Board of Trade Hall, Sunday, 11 a. m. and 7.30 p. m. Testimonial meeting, Wednesday, 8 p. m. Free reading rooms, Kunkel building, 1.30 to 5 p. m. daily; also Monday and Saturday evenings.

GUESTS OF MISS PETERS

Miss Sara F. Peters was hostess at a George Washington party at her home, 1120 Green street. The color scheme was red and green with ferns and jonquils decorations and the favors were miniature hatchets. Games, music and dancing were features. In attendance were the Misses Gertrude Fry, Edna Wallower, Trevilla Wallower, Rebecca Swonger, Anna Lewis, Mary Allen, Fay George, of Reading; Helen Ross, Jessie Andrews, of Philadelphia, and Sara Peters, Mrs. Rose Peters, Mrs. B. Miller, Agnes Peters, Mrs. Thurma R. Bodenhoth, John Miller, Charles Maloy, John Bright, Fred Ritter, Herbert Koons, Albert Smith, Harry Hance, John Boyer, of Altoona; Robert Messersmith, of York; Mr. and Mrs. John Peters, Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Peters, Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Fry.

STANDARD BEARERS GIVE SUPPER TO HONORARY LIST

The "Standard Bearers," a young girls' missionary club of Grace Methodist church, gave a supper last evening to the honorary members, twenty boys. It was one of the most delightful events of the season and quite a novel one.

The president of the society is Mrs. William R. Denehey; Miss Marian Bretz, corresponding secretary; Miss Miriam Fishel, recording secretary, and Miss Edith Bentley, treasurer.

ENTERTAIN AT PENBROOK

Mr. and Mrs. I. Gumpfer of Penbrook entertained at their home last evening with games and music. Among the games played were "Number 7" and "Number 44," popular games in Switzerland, introduced last night by two of the guests.

Refreshments were served to the Misses Clara Shirk, Ruth Garrett, Edna Kellar, Mabel Eveilhoop, Margaret Sheriff and May Currey. Sherman Garrett, Roger Koons, William Yeh, George Arnold and Ira Schaeffer of Switzerland, Mr. and Mrs. I. Gumpfer.

TO ADDRESS PEOPLE'S FORUM

Calvin W. Anderson of Williamsport, will address the People's Forum at 3 o'clock Sunday afternoon in Wesley Union Afro-Methodist Episcopal Church, in South street. Mr. Anderson will use as his theme: "The Drama of Life." A musical program will precede the lecture. A large attendance is anticipated. There will be no charge.

ON YACHTING TRIP

Mrs. William H. Bradley, Miss Mary Cameron and Mrs. Marlin E. Olmsted are going to North Carolina on Monday and will take a yachting trip with Senator Cameron in Southern waters.

TO ADDRESS MEN

The Rev. William C. Yates, pastor of the Fourth Street Church of God, will speak at a men's mass meeting in the Nagle Street Church of God tomorrow afternoon at 3 o'clock. The Rev. Dr. Yates will speak in the Fourth Street Church to men only at 1.40 o'clock to-morrow afternoon on "A God Man."

BAPTIST LEADER HERE

The Rev. C. A. Soars of Philadelphia, secretary of the Baptist State Mission Board, will speak to the congregation of Tabernacle Baptist Church at 10.00 o'clock to-morrow morning and in the Market Street Baptist Church to-morrow evening at 7.30. The Rev. J. H. Palmer will have charge of the morning services in the Market Street Church.

WILL CONDUCT RALLY

A Christian Endeavor rally will be held under the auspices of the United Brethren Christian Endeavor Society at Millersburg on Sunday, March 14. Among the speakers will be Charles W. Black, president of the Dauphin County Christian Endeavor Union.

BISHOP CONVERTS ONE

Bishop J. H. Darlington made a conversion last night at 322 Race street, before a large audience.

MISSION MEETING AT ENOLA

The Pennsylvania Woman's Temperance Union will hold a mission meeting to-night in the Enola P. R. Y. M. C. A. The program will include music and addresses on "Work in Prisons and Jails."

TO ADDRESS MEN

The Rev. William C. Yates, pastor of the Fourth Street Church of God, will speak at a men's mass meeting in the Nagle Street Church of God tomorrow afternoon at 3 o'clock. The Rev. Dr. Yates will speak in the Fourth Street Church to men only at 1.40 o'clock to-morrow afternoon on "A God Man."

BAPTIST LEADER HERE

The Rev. C. A. Soars of Philadelphia, secretary of the Baptist State Mission Board, will speak to the congregation of Tabernacle Baptist Church at 10.00 o'clock to-morrow morning and in the Market Street Baptist Church to-morrow evening at 7.30. The Rev. J. H. Palmer will have charge of the morning services in the Market Street Church.

WILL CONDUCT RALLY

A Christian Endeavor rally will be held under the auspices of the United Brethren Christian Endeavor Society at Millersburg on Sunday, March 14. Among the speakers will be Charles W. Black, president of the Dauphin County Christian Endeavor Union.

BISHOP CONVERTS ONE

Bishop J. H. Darlington made a conversion last night at 322 Race street, before a large audience.

MISSION MEETING AT ENOLA

The Pennsylvania Woman's Temperance Union will hold a mission meeting to-night in the Enola P. R. Y. M. C. A. The program will include music and addresses on "Work in Prisons and Jails."

TO ADDRESS MEN

The Rev. William C. Yates, pastor of the Fourth Street Church of God, will speak at a men's mass meeting in the Nagle Street Church of God tomorrow afternoon at 3 o'clock. The Rev. Dr. Yates will speak in the Fourth Street Church to men only at 1.40 o'clock to-morrow afternoon on "A God Man."

BAPTIST LEADER HERE

The Rev. C. A. Soars of Philadelphia, secretary of the Baptist State Mission Board, will speak to the congregation of Tabernacle Baptist Church at 10.00 o'clock to-morrow morning and in the Market Street Baptist Church to-morrow evening at 7.30. The Rev. J. H. Palmer will have charge of the morning services in