AMERICANS COME HOME FOR WINTER

Mrs. H. H. Horton and Son Will Spend the Winter at Selinsgrove

SITUATION IN MEXICO UNSAFE

Redefication of First Lutheran Church at Selinsgrove on Sunday

By Special Correspondence
Selinsgrove, Pa., Feb. 27.—Mrs. H. H. Horton and son, Robert William, of Nakazora, Sonora, Mexico, daughter-in-law and grandson of Mr. and Mrs. Horton, of Selinsgrove, arrived at the latter's home on Wednesday to spend the remainder of the winter. On account of the existing warfare in Mexico, it was deemed unsafe for Mrs. Horton and her son to remain, so the trip North was made. The chicken and waffle supper held in the P. O. S. of a lodge room Saturday for the benefit of the Reformed Church was a success, as nearly $200 was realized. Redefication services were held in the First Lutheran Church Sunday. The Rev. Ochenford, a former pastor of the church, preached in the morning and evening. Lester Schucker and cousin, Paul Merkle, of Reading, students at State College, spent a few days at the home of the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Daniel G. Schucker. Mr. and Mrs. Frank A. Rentz, of Mount Carmel, were guests at the home of the latter's mother, Mrs. Mary A. Snyder. Miss Marian Drumheller returned to her home in Philadelphia, after spending several weeks with her brother, the Rev. Leon S. Drumheller at the Reformed parsonage. Mr. and Mrs. Howard Doebler, of Harrisburg, spent several days with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Smith and Mr. and Mrs. H. J. Doebler.

D. Garber, rural mail carrier, has received the appointment as substitute train mail clerk. Miss Edith Rohm is visiting at Harrisburg. Miss Grace Fleck, who had an operation performed for appendicitis at the Harrisburg hospital, is getting along nicely. Miss Emma Holtz did not go to teach her school in Horse Valley on account of the serious illness of her sister, Daisy. Wentz Gutshall went to Des Moines, Iowa. Coyle Martin, little son of H. Martin, who is ill with tonsillitis, is improving. Banks Rohm is ill with tonsillitis. Mrs. D. H. Snyder entertained the R. T. A. at her home. Ice cream and cake were served to the following guests: Mrs. R. K. Hench and two children, Mrs. Creigh Patterson and son, George; Mrs. S. M. Woods, the Misses Golda Dimm, Ira McKee, Lea Dromgold, Grace Stambaugh, Cora Burd and Marie Patterson. The next meeting will be held on Tuesday evening at the home of Miss Grace Stambaugh. Miss Ruth Donahue is the guest of the Rev. and Mrs. T. R. Gibson. Mrs. Henry Bistline is recovering from injuries sustained by falling on the ice.

BETTER THAN SPANKING

Spanking does not cure children of bed-wetting. There is a constitutional cause for this trouble. Mrs. M. Summers, Box W, Notre Dame, Ind., will send free to any mother her successful home treatment, with full instructions. Send no money, but write her today if your children trouble you in this way. Don't blame the child—the chances are it can't help it. This treatment also cures adults and aged people troubled with urine difficulties by day or night.

GOOD DINNER FOR COLUMBIA'S POOR

Ladies' Auxiliary of Susquehanna Fire Company Prepares Meal for 100 People

MRS. A. BACHMAN
President Auxiliary.

Special to The Telegraph
Columbia, Pa., Feb. 27.—Members of the Ladies' Auxiliary of Susquehanna Fire Company, No. 4, of East Columbia, have shown commendable zeal in their effort to relieve and assist some of the indigent people in their section of the borough whose condition has been rendered distressing by the stagnation in business and the industrial depression. Headed by their president, Mrs. A. Bachman, the officers of the auxiliary prepared and served a sumptuous dinner in the hose house, at which nearly one hundred persons were seated, and to whom were served all the delicacies that the season affords. It was a fine treat to the participants and all who enjoyed the repast expressed their appreciation of the kindness and diligence of the officers.

PROF. E. W. MARTINDELL

Standard of High School Has Been Raised by Work of Prof. E. W. Martindell

By Special Correspondence
Wrightsville, Pa., Feb. 27.—Public schools of this borough have made remarkable progress under the supervision of Professor E. W. Martindell, who is now serving his fourth year. When Prof. Martindell took charge of the schools, in 1910, there were 54 pupils in the high school with an average attendance of 43. The graduating class then numbered seven. This year there is an enrollment of 78 pupils in the high school and an average attendance of 74. The graduating class numbers 17, the largest in the history of the schools.

In the picture are shown the public school building and the pupils of the high school rooms, the principal, Prof. Martindell, and the assistants, Prof. H. G. Shimp and Miss Anna Bull. The faculty is well equipped for the work in the high school classes and the standard has been raised to compare favorably with that established in larger towns. The school has a splendid library, fine collection of minerals and a modern laboratory.

Never Mind How Strong You Are—What d'ye Know?

That's the point—"What d'ye KNOW?" To-day it's a battle of wits—and brains win. Muscle and brawn don't count so much as they used to. In the fight for good jobs and big salaries it's brains—not brawn—that win. "What d'ye KNOW?" is the one great question that draws the line between defeat and victory—between "wages" and "salary"—between you and the Boss.

What do YOU know? Are YOU so expert in some line of work that you can "make good" as a foreman, superintendent, or manager? If not, why don't you mark and mail the attached coupon and permit the International Correspondence Schools to show you how you CAN "make good" on a big job?

For 23 years the I. C. S. have been showing men how to do better work and earn bigger salaries. Every month over 400 students write of promotions or salary increases through I. C. S. training. What the I. C. S. are doing for these men they can do for YOU.

No matter where you live, how old you are, what hours you work, or how limited your education, if you can read and write and are ambitious to learn the I. C. S. can train you in your own home, during your spare time, for a more important and better-paying position.

Mark and mail the attached coupon—it won't obligate you in the least—and the I. C. S. will show you how you can acquire this salary-raising ability by their simple and easy methods.

It will cost you nothing to investigate—it may cost a lifetime of remorse if you don't. Mark and Mail the Coupon NOW.

THE ADVENTURES OF FAIRY SILVERWINGS

NO 1. SILVERWING AT HOME

Over the hills and far away,
Where the red sun comes from at break of day;
Not in the sky nor yet on the land,
Lived Silverwing with the Fairy band.
Live the wonderful, gauzy-winged Fairy band,
Fairies of fun, and fairies of light,
Fairies to guard you by day and by night;
Fairies with silver wings, fairies with gold,
Fairies with magic wands, so I've been told,
No one may enter this land of the elves,
Only the fairy creatures themselves;
For the King of the Fairies—Whiff! Phiff! Phew!
Forbids Fairyland to such creatures as YOU!
For you see all humans are so very tall,
That we seem great giants to Fairies so small,
And they never would let us enter in
Their land, without raising a terrible din

Yes, over the hills and far away,
Where the red moon comes from at end of day;
Not in the sky nor yet on the land,
Lived Silverwing with the Fairy band.
Her mother's name was Will-o'-the-wisp;
Her father's name Sir Krinkley Krisp.
She had sisters and brothers by the score—
I really think a thousand or more.
But Silverwing was not satisfied—
She fussed and fretted and fretted and cried,
Till the King and all his subjects true—
Cried out aloud: "Away with you!
All such as cannot be happy here,
Must be banished for all of a great long year!"
So he summoned the Wind to blow a strong blast,
And blow Silverwings out of Fairyland fast!
Watch For Silverwing's Next Adventure.
