CLASS BANQUET FOR MRS. ABRAHAM L. GROFF

All Write Steamer Letters For Teacher Who Leaves For Canton, China

Mrs. Abram L. Groff, of Old Orchard, who is removing to Canton, China, with her family, was given a farewell party by members of her Bible class of the Olivet Presbyterian Church.

A banquet was held in the church dining room, profusely decorated in palms, ferns and spring flowers. There were Chinese cards and favors for the sixty-two scholars and four invited guests. The ladies of the class loaned their own china, cut glass and silver to the committee to make the appointments more beautiful. After the banquet the party adjourned to the infant Sunday school room, which another committee had decorated in American, Pennsylvania State and Chinese flags and bunting. Here each guest wrote a steamer letter to Mrs. Groff and the evening was rounded out with music and games. MACKENSON-ADAMS WEDDING AT HOME

Prominent Members of Younger Set Marry in Presence of Large Gathering

One of the prettiest of home weddings was solemnized this afternoon at 4 o'clock at the residence of Mrs. Richard Adams, 217 Forster street, when her younger daughter, Miss Charlotte Adams, was united in marriage with Earl Mackenson by the Rev. Dr. John D. Fox, pastor of the Grace Methodist Church, in the presence of a large gathering of relatives and friends.

The ceremony was performed in the drawing room beneath a Colonial canopy of smilax and ferns, relieved with pink blossoms. The walls were draped with Alabama smilax and lace ferns and ferns and orchid-sweet peas blanketed the mantel. The stairway was twined with smilax and a tall vase of American Beauties gave a touch of color at the landing. In the dining room there were masses of pink smilax and white lilacs, with smilax everywhere, a low basket of the pink flowers gracing the center of the bride's table. A screen of ferns and palms hid the Loesser orchestra, which played throughout the festivities. Utterly was the floral artist.

The dainty little bride, who was un-attended, wore an exquisite costume of creamy silk lace over pink accordion-pleated chiffon; her transparent picture hat crowned with roses had touches of black velvet, with a rose. Her corsage bouquet was a Tokio model of Japanese rosebuds. Miss Marjorie Adams, the bride's sister, played the bridal chorus from "Lohengrin" as a professional and little airs softly during the service.

After congratulations and a wedding supper Mr. and Mrs. Mackenson will start for their wedding journey to Florida, stopping at Palm Beach and other prominent southern resorts. They will reside at 217 Forster street for a time, going to housekeeping in the summer, when their handsome wedding gifts will add to the furnishings of the home.

Both young people are graduates of the Central high school, class of 1911, Mrs. Mackenson being a popular member of the Sigma Eta Phi sorority. She later attended Miss Bennett's finishing school at Mt. Airy, N. Y. Mr. Mackenson, a son of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence T.
