

NOTED STAR IN TIMELY ACT AT THE ORPHEUM THIS WEEK

HENRIETTA CROSMAN

Whether it is because the subject of war is so timely or whether it is discussed to help to keep the peace in this country is pretty hard to say, but Henrietta Crossman, who appears in a peace play called "Thou Shalt Not Kill" at the Orpheum this week, is only one of the notable stars now coming forth with vivid lessons on some subject pertaining to war. Another instance is that of Mme. Nativova, who is now proving a great hit in New York city presenting "War Brides." And there are quite a few others. Miss Crossman, who has a big following in Harrisburg, will likely prove a big card at the Orpheum. This morning the management announced that pretty heavy sales were recorded for the entire week.

MISS MARGARET CUMMINGS WEDS LEE CHADMAN WIKER

Announcements have been received here of the marriage of Miss Margaret Gertrude Cummings, a former Harrisburger and daughter of Mrs. Bessie Gardner Cummings of 551 East Orange street, Lancaster, to M. Lee Chadman Wiker. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Dr. F. B. Allen, of St. John's Lutheran Church, at the bride's home, Tuesday evening, March 23, at 7 o'clock, in the presence of the immediate families. The bride, who was given in marriage by her brother, Ross Cummings, of Reading, wore a traveling suit of New Berkshire blue broadcloth with hat to harmonize and carried sweet peas. The wedding march was played by Miss Minnie Thompson, of Lancaster. After a honeymoon trip Mr. and Mrs. Wiker will be "at home" after April 1 at 627 South Lime street, Lancaster.

RUSH OF BUSINESS PREVENTS PRE-EASTER OPENING

Owing to the great rush of business, Mrs. E. Walzer will be unable to hold her usual pre-Easter opening at her millinery store, 27 South Second street. The date for the summer opening will be announced later.—Advertisement.

Rigid Censorship on All News Coming From Italy

Rome, March 28, 9:35 P. M., via Paris, March 29, 5:30 A. M.—A rigid censorship upon the publication of military news from March 31 to July 30 has been established by a royal decree issued in accordance with a decision reached by the council of ministers at its session Saturday. The publication is prohibited of information regarding the formation, movements or assignments of units of the army, navy and aerial forces, or even of soldiers and sailors. The prohibition includes arrangements made for the transport of naval and military forces, the sanitary condition of troops or sailors as well as details regarding armament provided on all works of defense. Even sections of discussions of military questions come under the ban, as well as criticisms of the army or navy.

J. M. LAMBERTON DIES AFTER LONG ILLNESS

noted Yale class of '78, and was presented with a loving cup some years ago in recognition of his services as class historian.

Mr. Lambertson had not been in good health following an operation two years ago, but was able to attend to his duties until a few months ago, when he began to decline rapidly. He was unmarried and lived with his mother, Mrs. Robert A. Lambertson, who, with a sister, Mrs. Hollin H. Wilbur, of Wayne, Pa., are the only close surviving relatives.

Funeral services will be held from the residence Tuesday afternoon at 3 o'clock, the Rt. Rev. James Henry Darlington, bishop of Harrisburg, and the Rev. Rollin A. Sawyer, rector of St. Stephen's Episcopal Church, officiating. Burial will be made in the Harrisburg Cemetery.

James McCormick Lambertson was born in Harrisburg May 21, 1856, the son of the late Robert Alexander Lambertson, LL. D., and Anne Bucheler Lambertson. The family, on the father's side, was Scotch-Irish, some of the ancestors having served in the French and Indian wars, and the Revolution. His mother, who was the daughter of the late William Buehler of this city, was of German descent, an ancestor having come from Prussia in 1737 and settled at Warwick, now Litz, Pa.

Mr. Lambertson was educated at private school and at the Harrisburg Academy and prepared for college at St. Paul's School, Concord, N. H. He entered Yale in 1874, and was graduated in 1878. Until 1881 he was a member of the St. Paul's School, Concord, and at the same time studied law under his father.

He was admitted to the bar of Dauphin county August 1880, and admitted to practice before the Supreme Court of Pennsylvania, June, 1884, on motion made by Judge John H. Weiss. He was also admitted to practice before the federal court of Central Pennsylvania when organized in 1901.

He practiced law in Harrisburg in partnership with the late William B. Lambertson from 1881 to 1887, when he again became married at St. Paul's school, Concord, remaining there until 1889, when he resumed the practice of law in this city.

Among his legal work he was instrumental in securing the passage of the legislative resolution for the display of the State flag on the Capitol and in the assembly chambers. He was chairman of the committee which designed the present city flag in 1907.

Mr. Lambertson was a speaker of reputation on academic and political subjects, and was especially in demand for Masonic functions. Among his published writings were: "History of Perseverance Lodge No. 21, F. & A. M., of Harrisburg." He edited a "Masonic" memorial volume and contributed articles to the Philadelphia "Keystone"; also compiled a "List of Special Acts of Assembly Relating to Harrisburg" and edited the "Digest of Ordinances of the City of Harrisburg." He also wrote "An Account of St. Paul's School."

As secretary of the class of '78 he prepared the "Biennial Record of his class at Yale in 1898, and the "Centennial Record in 1904. In 1909 he issued a triennial supplement. He was elected president of the Yale Association of class secretaries in 1905 and was re-elected annually until 1911 when he declined further service.

He was for many years vestryman and for 11 years treasurer of St. Stephen's Protestant Episcopal Church. He was sent as delegate to many Episcopal conventions and was active in the organization of the Diocese of Harrisburg.

He was a member of the American bar association, and of its local council of Pennsylvania, a charter member of the Pennsylvania Bar Association, the Pennsylvania Society of Sons of the Revolution, Military Order of Foreign Wars, Military Order of the Sons of the American Revolution, the Pennsylvania Scotch-Irish Society, the Pennsylvania-German society and the Pennsylvania Society of New York; the National Municipal League, American Civic Association, the Harrisburg Board of Trade, Municipal League of Harrisburg, Taxpayers' League of Dauphin county, Civic club, Civil Service Reform Association of Pennsylvania, American Historical Association, the Historical Society of Pennsylvania, for some years a member and secretary of the board of managers of the Harrisburg Hospital, secretary of the Training School for Nurses, a director of the Harrisburg Benevolent Association, and of the Harrisburg Bridge company.

He was a charter member of the Harrisburg club and its secretary from its organization in 1884 to 1887; a member of the Engineers club and the Country Club of Harrisburg; the University Club of New York, University Club of Philadelphia, Yale Alumni Association of Central Pennsylvania, and of the standing committee of the Alumni Association of St. Paul's school, Concord.

Russia Knocks at Back Door of Constantinople. London, March 29.—Russia is again today knocking at the back door of Constantinople by bombarding the Turkish forts on the Bosphorus, but with what success is not yet definitely known. As to the front door of the Turkish capital, the Dardanelles, the only news is the monotonous reiteration of the report that the mine operations of the allies are continuing their work and that weather conditions still prevent a resumption of the bombardment by the fleet. FRENCH GAINS MAINTAINED. Paris, March 29, by wireless to London, 1:35 p. m.—At Epargues the Germans attempted to regain the trenches lost by them March 27. After a violent struggle the French gains were on the whole maintained in their entirety. The Germans obtained a footing in a few sections of their old trenches but on the other hand the French made progress at other points.

Evans' Appointment May Be Announced This Week. Washington, March 29.—John H. Evans, a lawyer of Pottstown, will be appointed by President Wilson as sub-treasurer in Philadelphia on Wednesday. He will assume office on April 1, if the accounts of the present sub-treasurer have been examined by that time. Ex-Representative Robert P. Lee, who was a candidate for the place, with the backing of most of the Democratic members of Congress from Pennsylvania, has withdrawn from the field. It is understood that President Wilson is favorably inclined to the appointment of Mr. Lee as superintendent of the Congressional Library. In this Mr. Lee has the backing of Mr. Moton and the Democratic State organization.

Knights of St. George Oppose Censor's Repeal and Discuss Federation. Members of Branch 168, Roman Catholic, Knights of St. George, yesterday unanimously passed resolutions opposing the repeal of the bill creating the office of the State censor of moving pictures and commended the action of State Censor J. Louis Breiting in refusing to permit the production of pictures of a questionable or suggestive character. Copies of a resolution urging the continuance of the office of State censor were ordered sent to the Legislature, Governor Brumbaugh and Mr. Breiting. The Knights of St. George were one of the strongest Catholic organizations in this country. Reports on the federating of all the Catholic societies in Dauphin county in an effort to organize a county federation were also made during the meeting. The reports showed that in the thirteen Catholic churches in the county there were about thirty-five societies with an approximate membership of 3,000. During the coming week the committee planning the federation will send letters to the societies asking them to send delegates to a meeting to be announced later when plans for the formation of a permanent organization will be made. Ten applications for membership in the Knights of St. George were made yesterday.

Black Sea Fleet Opens Fire on Bosphorus Forts. Petrograd, via London, March 29, 5:30 A. M.—An official statement issued last night by the general staff says: "The Black Sea fleet on Sunday bombarded the outside forts and batteries on the Bosphorus on both sides of the strait. (The Bosphorus, called the Straits of Constantinople, is a narrow passage which connects the Black Sea with the Sea of Marmora. Constantinople stands on its west side at its outlet and partly on the Sea of Marmora. The strait is eighteen miles long.) "According to observations made from ships and hydroaeroplanes, our shells fell with exactitude. Russian aviators flying above the Bosphorus batteries carried out reconnaissances and dropped bombs with success. A heavy artillery fire was directed at the aviators, who fled. "The enemy's torpedoboats which tried to come out were driven back in the straits by the fire of our guns. "A large hostile ship which was trying to get into the Bosphorus from seaward was bombarded by us. She finally keeled over and blew up."

AUSTRIA IS MAKING PLANS FOR SUBMARINE BLOCKADE. London, March 29.—The Daily News correspondent at Athens learns from a private but reliable source that in Austrian naval yards all usual work has been suspended and the men are working hard pushed, on about 20 up-to-date submarines. It is intended when they are completed to attempt a blockade of the Mediterranean.

QUICK RELIEF FROM CONSTIPATION. Get Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets. That is the joyful cry of thousands since Dr. Edwards produced Olive Tablets, the substitute for calomel. Dr. Edwards, a practicing physician for 17 years, and a calomel's old-time enemy, discovered the formula for Olive Tablets while treating patients for chronic constipation and torpid livers. Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets do not contain calomel, but a healing, soothing vegetable laxative. No gripping is the "keynote" of these little sugar-coated, olive-colored tablets. They cause the bowels and liver to act normally. They never force them to unnatural action. If you have a "dark brown mouth," now and then—a bad breath—a dull, tired feeling—sick headache—torpid liver and are constipated, you'll find quick, sure and only pleasant results from one or two little Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets at bedtime. Thousands take one or two every night just to keep right. Try them. 10c and 25c per box. All druggists. The Olive Tablet Company, Columbus, O.
