

We Welcome You to the Stieff Temporary Store

INVESTIGATE

INVESTIGATE

The contractors will be busy tomorrow tearing away the present Stieff piano warehouses at 24 North Second street, to make way for the big new home of the Stieff.

By September 1 we hope to be able to invite you to visit us in our new building—the biggest exclusive piano house in Central Pennsylvania. Meanwhile we welcome you to our

Temporary Quarters
212 North 2nd Street

Drop in when you're down town and let us show you the beauties of the Stieff player piano. It is perfect in operation and absolutely devoid of mechanical effect even in the hands of a novice.

In the Stieff is combined 73 years' experience and scientific research in all lines of piano building.

Our rates are right.

"INVESTIGATE"

Chas. M. Stieff

PERSONAL SOCIAL

HARRINGTON-DUNCAN WEDDING TONIGHT

Pretty Event Will Take Place in the Duncannon Presbyterian Church

The marriage of Miss Priscilla May Duncan, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Patrick F. Duncan, of Duncannon, to B. Boyd Harrington, of 111 South Front street, this city, will take place this evening in the Duncannon Presbyterian Church, with the Rev. Dr. George H. Johnston officiating. Edwin B. Wase will play the wedding marches and Mrs. James Lynn Fitzgerald, of Clarion, will sing.

The bride, who will be given in marriage by her father, has chosen a lovely toilette of ivory tulle with over accordion pleated Georgette crepe, en-traine. Point d'Alecon and old point lace will adorn the corsage. Her veil in cap effect will be arranged with point lace and fresh orange blossoms from Florida. She will carry a shower of bride roses and valley lilies, with broad satin streamers.

Mrs. Benjamin Stiles Duncan, the matron of honor; Miss Jean Stewart Duncan, maid of honor and the bridesmaids, Miss Anna Duncan Willis and Miss Ruth Willis, will wear quaint Empire frocks of corn-colored taffetas over ruffled skirts of gold net, simply trimmed with black velvet ribbons and old-fashioned posies. They will carry nosegays of yellow daisies and forget-me-nots tied with fluffy blue chiffon.

The bride's youngest sister, Miss Mary Stewart Duncan, will be flower girl, wearing an Empire gown of white organdie and Valenciennes lace over accordion pleated chiffon, the scallops touched with yellow rosebuds. A sash of broad, white satin and poke bonnet of white tulle and yellow daisies, with black velvet ties complete this charming little costume.

William Stewart Duncan will be best man, and the ushers include: Farley Gannett and George P. Shotwell, of Harrisburg; B. Stiles Duncan and Patrick F. Duncan, Jr., of Duncannon.

A reception at the Duncannon home will follow the service, attended by many friends from Harrisburg and other cities. The Lesser Orchestra will play throughout the evening and the guests will have the pleasure of viewing the large display of wedding gifts presented to the popular young couple.

Charles T. Jones, 258 Verbeke street, who has been quite ill, was slightly improved today.

Miss Sophie Green, of Bainbridge, is the guest of her sister, Mrs. L. P. Wambach, 1808 Penn street.

Samuel A. Burns has returned to Mercersburg Academy after visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Merry Burns, 226 State street.

Charles Kissinger, electrician at the Pastime theater, Lewistown, has returned home after a pleasant visit in Harrisburg.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Snyder, who were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Koehnour at Lewistown, have returned to Harrisburg.

John Schott, of Lewistown, is visiting in Harrisburg.

Mrs. John Price Jackson of the Riverside apartments returned home last evening after an automobile trip to State college with a party of Easton friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Hopkins Moffitt are home after a trip to the Panama-Pacific exposition. They are guests of Dr. R. H. Moffitt, 1705 North Front street.

John Kuhn, of Buffalo, and Charles Kuhn, 1348 Vernon street, returned last evening from a motor trip to Chambersburg.

GRANDSON OF GREAT INVENTOR GRADUATE OF TRADE SCHOOL

Mrs. G. H. Eyster has returned from the Philadelphia where her son Daniel D. Eyster was just graduated from the Williamson Trades School. The young man, who is a grandson of the late Daniel Dreyfus, the great inventor, leaves April 5 for Poughkeepsie, N. Y., to accept a position with the DeLaval company.

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Pennington and children of 1925 North street, are home from Hummelstown, where they spent a week with Mr. and Mrs. Pennington.

NURSE ASSOCIATION MOVES

The Visiting Nurse Association is removing its home from 1199 Green street to Front and Euse streets, today. The location is a most delightful one which the nurses are sure to enjoy.

STORK NEWS

The Rev. Horace E. Clute, rector of the Church of the Holy Nativity, New York City, and Mrs. Clute, announce the birth of a daughter, Margaret Elizabeth Clute, Tuesday, March 30, 1915.

Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Detweiler of 2227 Logan street, announce the birth of a son, George Edward Detweiler, Monday, March 22, 1915. Mrs. Detweiler was Miss Anne Quensier prior to her marriage.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Moyer, 1814 Hunter street, announce the birth of a daughter, on Tuesday, March 23, 1915. Before her marriage, Mrs. Moyer was Miss Olive Deardorf, of Lemoyne.

By the Mother of Seven Children

Mrs. G. Justus, of Jersey City, says Father John's Medicine always cures her seven children when they are run-down in health or have a cold or cough. "We always recommend it to everybody." (Signed) Mr. and Mrs. G. Justus.

ADVISE TO MOTHERS

You should give your children Father John's Medicine when they have a cold or run down, because it is a pure and wholesome food medicine which will give them strength to fight off the disease. Father John's Medicine is a safe medicine for children because it contains no alcohol nor dangerous drugs.

YOUNG COUPLE WED IN THEIR NEW HOME

HENRY E. RUPP

MISS MINERVA B. MCMANAMY

SPRING BLOSSOMS IN THE DECORATIONS

Miss Minerva McManamy and Henry E. Rupp to Marry This Evening

Miss Minerva B. McManamy, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George N. McManamy, of this city, and Henry E. Rupp, son of Mrs. Minnie Rupp, 555 South Front street, will be united in marriage this evening at 8:30 o'clock in their newly furnished home, 123 Royal terrace, by the Rev. B. H. Hart, pastor of the Fifth Street Methodist Church, who will use the double ring ceremony.

Masses of Spring flowers and lace ferns will decorate the rooms and an orchestra will play the "Lohengrin Bridal Chorus," immediately after the service, Miss Esther Smith will sing "O, Promise Me."

The attractive bride will wear an exquisite costume of white satin with touches of rare lace, and corsage bouquet of valley lilies and sweetheart buds. Miss Madeline S. Ritter, the maid of honor will wear a frock of pale green satin with shadow lace.

Congratulations and a wedding supper will follow the ceremony. Mr. and Mrs. Rupp leaving at midnight for a honeymoon spent at Buffalo, Toledo and Detroit. They will be "At Home" to their friends after April 15.

Mrs. Charles E. Rupp, who is one of the most popular girls of the city, has been guest of honor at a number of pre-nuptial events. She is a graduate of the Central High school, class of 1910, and has been connected with the offices of the Elliott-Fisher company for quite a time. Mr. Rupp is an attaché of the Pennsylvania Railroad freight offices in this city.

Mrs. Walter Buck and daughters, Margaret and Sara, of Scranton, are visiting Mrs. Buck's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles T. Weakley, 1821 North Fourth street.

Miss Adelaide Greathard, a student at the Horticultural school, Ambler, is spending the Easter vacation with her mother, Mrs. George W. Meily, of the Delmar apartments.

Mr. John A. Fritchey and small son James are home after a late visit with Mrs. George B. Holcomb at Philadelphia.

Miss Lillian Decevee of Brooklyn is an Easter guest of her sister, Alice Marie Decevee at the Conservatory of Music.

Mrs. David Watts and the Misses Watts have removed from 112 State street to 1517 North Second street.

Mrs. A. E. Shirey and son Robert Shirey of 1517 State street, left today for New York City to be Easter guests of friends there.

Mrs. Alice E. Berringer of 129 Evergreen street is visiting Mrs. R. E. Irons at Chester.

Mrs. George A. Richardson and Walter Whitmoyer, of Detroit, Mich., son and daughter, of W. G. Whitmoyer, are spending the week in this city.

John Q. Stewart, Jr., and James H. Stewart, Princeton students, are spending the Easter holidays with their mother, Mrs. John Q. Stewart, at 1404 North Second street.

GUESTS OF MISS IVY JONES INFORMALLY ENTERTAINED

Miss Ivy L. Jones informally entertained a few friends at her home, 339 Crescent street last evening, her guests being: The Misses Rheda Bird, Clara Books, Faith A. Mell and Margaret Polack. Mr. Thompson of Philadelphia; J. Donald Carpenter, Carroll Denney and Martindale Ward.

FAREWELL TO MRS. TAYLOR WHO IS LEAVING FOR OHIO

Mrs. William Gumpert, of 288 Woodbine street, entertained last evening at her home in honor of Mrs. Taylor, the guest, Mrs. William Snyder, Green street, who is leaving for her home in Springfield, Ohio.

The appointments were of yellow and white, with Easter favors. In attendance were Mrs. Eaver, Mrs. Fornwalt, Mrs. Gornley, Mrs. Weakley, Miss Belle Walters, Mrs. Himes, Mrs. Snyder, Mrs. Romberger, Mrs. Taylor and Mrs. Gumpert.

GUESTS OF MISS ROTH

Miss Mary Roth of 229 South Thirtieth street pleasantly entertained a few of her friends. Music and cards were enjoyed. Those present were the Misses Jane Harry, Caroline Hahn, Jean Allen, Anna Roth, Mary Roth and Harry Leonard, Ira Kinder, Mr. Ulrich, of Philadelphia, and Arthur Keagy, of Waynesboro.

Can Wooden Leg Tango? Col. Green Wants to Know

Special to The Telegraph

San Francisco, Cal., March 31.—Can an artificial leg be steered through the intricate steps of the tango? Colonel Edward Howard Green, son of Hetty Green, is earnestly asking that question.

Professor Sloden, of London and Paris, has taken the colonel in hand, of rather in earnest to solve this question. He says "yes." Green is not sure whether he is tangoing or not. He says that he used to play baseball despite his artificial leg—but tango—well, it remains to be seen.

Zion Choir Will Sing "Burden of the Cross"

The choir of Zion Lutheran Church, under the direction of Professor Edwin J. Decevee, will sing the cantata, "The Burden of the Cross" by William Reed, to-morrow evening at the church services.

This is the story of the crucifixion, dramatically given, with tenor and baritone solos by Mr. Allen and Mr. Lutz. One male chorus, "Save Thyself and Come Down From the Cross," is especially thrilling and the cantata ends with a tenor solo and chorus, "Lord of My Heart."

Professor Decevee will play as prelude, "Hymn of the Nuns," by Wely, and as a postlude, "March Funebre," by Chopin.

Mrs. G. A. Simpson and daughter Helen, of Sunbury, visited friends in this city on Tuesday.

Dr. Harry Vastine, Locust street, visited relatives in Sunbury yesterday.

Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Warner, of Chambersburg, have moved to this city.

Mrs. Harry Hoffman and son, are visiting the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Eberhardt, at Gettysburg.

Mrs. E. L. Doner, of Carlisle, spent yesterday in town.

Mrs. Ralph Hamlin and daughter of Minneapolis, Minn., are visiting her father, William E. Machlin, of the Masonic Temple.

Robert V. Finney, a State college student, came home today for the Easter vacation bringing with him a classmate.

Carroll Wilhelm and Porter Harris, Mercersburg students, are in the city for the Easter holidays.

Miss Ellen K. McCulloch spent yesterday with Mr. and Mrs. Curtis O. Bosserman at Shippensburg.

Herbert Lloyd Thomas of Elmira, a former Harrisburger, is registered at the Senate during a brief stay in the city.

Spring Terms Beginning in Classes at Y. W. C. A.

There will be new classes formed at the Y. W. C. A. next week to continue five weeks.

The Spring term in basketry begins Friday evening, April 9, and will be taught by Miss Mabel Arnold.

The new term of millinery begins Monday evening, April 12. The instructor is Miss Clara Bashore. The class will be large as many have enrolled.

Domestic science which has been so popular will have a number of classes. There will also be a class in china painting.

MEMORIAL LUTHERAN CLASS HOLDING EASTER BAZAR

The Ladies' Bible class of the Memorial Lutheran Church will hold an Easter Bazar all day to-morrow, Thursday, April 1, at Fifteenth and Regina streets. On sale there will be the best of homemade pies, cakes, puddings, baked beans, candies, besides ice cream and a fine display of Easter flowers.

MRS. MARTIN GIVES READING

Mrs. Frederic C. Martin of Riverside participated in a program of "Readings by Popular Authors" given last evening in New York City, by the Bookellers' League, at Aeolian Hall. Mrs. Martin gave selections of Pennsylvania Dutch from some of her own writings.

DR. C. C. COCKLIN, the eye specialist, will be absent from his office until further notice.—Advertisement.

DR. JOHN F. CULP HAS MOVED his offices to the Park apartments, 410 North Third street.—Advertisement.

What we say it is, it is

Easter Means Flowers in Every Home

And flowers are always much more beautiful when daintily arranged in attractive vases. The new designs in Bud Holders for the early Spring blooms with long stems are unusually pleasing. You will enjoy seeing them at Diener's.

Bud Vases, 65¢ to $8. Fern Dishes, $4.25 up. Vases, $2.50 to $25.

A more delightful Easter present for a friend or for your home than a Bud Holder, Fern Dish or Cut Glass Vase could not be selected.

Diener The Jeweler The Hallmark Store 408 Market Street

Witmer, Bair & Witmer

All Easter Suits, Coats, Dresses and Waists purchased between this and Saturday noon will be altered, if necessary, and delivered to you for Easter Day wear.

KEEP COMING — Our stocks have again been fitted up with new up-to-the-minute garments, and are more complete than at any time during this season. Sizes, 16, 18, 36, 38, 39, 40, 41, 42, 43, 44, 45, 46, 48 to 51. Prices: Suits—$10.00 to $45.00. Coats—$5.00 to $35.00. Dresses—$3.95 to $35.00. Waists—$1.00 to $8.75.

We advise coming as early this week as possible. Are we busy? Yes. But we can procure efficient extra help.

Witmer, Bair & Witmer
202 Walnut Street

CATTLEYAS (Orchids)

35¢ each, 3 for $1.00

For Easter

Other flowers and plants just as reasonable.

SCHMIDT FLORIST
213 Market Street

Gifts For Mrs. Jones From Her Tuesday Class

The Current Events class of the Young Women's Christian Association taught every Tuesday afternoon during the winter by Mrs. Mabel Cronise Jones, closed for the season yesterday. There was an attendance of 200 people, this being the largest Y. W. C. A. class in the country, and the Join Y. Boyd hall was filled with an overflow into the hall and corridor. Mrs. Jones, who gives her services without charge, was presented by the class with a beautiful corsage bouquet of sweet peas and a little box containing a $29 gold piece.

FAREWELL TO PASTOR

Mr. and Mrs. Harry W. Miller, of 217 Emerald street, gave a farewell dinner to the Rev. John H. Daugherty and Mrs. Daugherty last evening at their home. The Rev. Mr. Daugherty who has been pastor of the Ridge Avenue Methodist Church for the past six years, leaves for his new charge at Sunbury to-morrow.

HOSPITAL AID SOCIETY HOLDS ANNUAL MEETING

Notices have been sent out for the annual meeting of the Woman's Aid Society of the Harrisburg Hospital, to-morrow afternoon, at 2 o'clock at the hospital. As this is the annual meeting, officers will be elected and matters of the utmost importance will be considered.

Mrs. J. Kirk Bosler, of Carlisle, and Miss Mullen of Mt. Joy Springs, are guests of their sister, Mrs. J. Austin Brandt, 603 North Front street.

Mercersburg Seniors Elect Class Day Officers

The senior class of the Mercersburg Academy has elected the following officers to serve at the class day exercises in commencement week:

President, H. M. Clark, Ohio, Pa.; Presentation orator, C. W. Cook, Worcester, Mass.; Orator, F. H. Knight, Jr., Sunbury, Pa.; Prophet, G. V. Hayes, Washington, Pa.; Historian, J. E. Kunkle, Jr., Greensburg, Pa.; Poet, H. A. Gelsler, Orwigsburg, Pa.; Secretary, J. S. Whaley, Snow Hill, Md.; Class Marshal, S. A. Burns, Harrisburg, Pa.; Ode Committee, P. A. Bream, Ardenstville, Pa.; J. J. Gray, Pittsburgh, Pa.; W. L. Hartman, Jr., Pueblo, Colo.; D. C. Waidlich, Mercersburg, Pa.; Memorial Committee, W. P. Brumbaugh, Van Wert, Ohio; T. W. Enfield, Bedford, Pa.; T. M. Howe, Cincinnati, Ohio; R. C. Winslow, Indianapolis, Ind.; Class Day Committee, A. W. Bromer, Schenckville, Pa.; T. H. Lineaweaver, Lebanon, Pa.; J. J. Gray, Pittsburgh, Pa.; M. M. Nesbit, Edgewood Park, Pa.; F. W. Sidlo, Danville, Pa.; W. P. Brumbaugh, Van Wert, Ohio; T. M. Howe, Cincinnati, Ohio; J. R. Schley, Frederick, Md.; S. G. Freck, Williamsport, Pa.; W. Stevenson, Waverly, N. Y.; P. C. Rupp, Boalsburg, Pa.; W. L. Hartman, Jr., Pueblo, Colo.; H. S. Bailey, Marietta, Ohio; G. R. Dulebohn, Mason-Dixon, Pa.; H. S. Long, Uniontown, Ala.; F. S. Gillespie, Nottingham, Pa.; C. C. Cooper, Cleveland, Ohio; J. S. Hackney, Jr., Uniontown, Pa.; J. E. Irvine, Street, Md.; M. D. Moore, Avondale, Pa.

Mrs. M. H. Eiden of Lewistown who was the guest of Mrs. H. H. Thomas, has returned home.

Get a Victrola Now and Have Easter Music in Your Own Home

The spirit of Easter giving has within the past few years assumed vast proportions.

And a charming sentiment it is. Easter, with its gladness of victory will be of more significance to you if there is a Victrola in your home to play the Easter music.

Easter is a most natural time to give the family a gift that will bring gladness all the year. That gift will find its best expression in the Victrola.

In our Victor booths you can hear any or all of the Easter music. And at the same time you can have our salesmen explain how it is possible for you to have a Victrola in your home for Easter. They range in price from $15.00 to $250.00, on convenient terms.

C. M. Sigler, Inc.

Pianos 30 N. 2nd St. Victrolas

Bud Vases, 65¢ to $8. Fern Dishes, $4.25 up. Vases, $2.50 to $25.

A more delightful Easter present for a friend or for your home than a Bud Holder, Fern Dish or Cut Glass Vase could not be selected.

Diener The Jeweler The Hallmark Store 408 Market Street

Easter Flowers

We are showing the finest Easter Display of Flowers in the city. Thousands to select from and many different varieties, such as Hyacinths, Tulips, Daffodils, Narcissus, Azaleas, Easter Lillies, Spireas, etc.

MAKE YOUR SELECTION EARLY

WM. A. FENICAL---The Hill Florist

DECORATING AND FLORAL EMBLEMS 1339 VERNON STREET HARRISBURG, PA.

PICTORIAL REVIEW TAILORED DRESSES

are justly famous all over the United States. Among the APRIL Patterns, now on sale, you will find a wonderful selection of plain, simple dresses, good for serge, linen or cotton, also a large variety of EMPIRE STYLES.

Costume 6135, 6136, 6137, 6138, 6139, 6125

15 cents for each of the above numbers. Make up one of the above illustrations. You will be delighted. The FASHION BOOK for SPRING. Can't only 10 cents when purchased with one 15 cent Pattern. APRIL STYLES now on sale.

Dives Pomeroy & Stewart