CHILDREN OF STEVENS MEMORIAL SEWING SCHOOL

CHILDREN OF THE SCHOOL

ROLL SCARLET EGGS OVER GREEN CARPET

Fun for Children at Completion of Season's Work in Graded Lessons

The Sewing school connected with the Stevens Memorial Methodist Church held closing exercises this afternoon from 2.30 to 4 o'clock, with the program including singing, recitations, an address by the pastor, the Rev. Dr. Clayton Albert Smucker and the promotion of pupils from the Kindergarten department to the first grade.

The three graduates who have completed the full graded course, Miss Elizabeth R. Beam, Miss Esther Leeds and Miss Martha Shartzler received their diplomas from the superintendent, Mrs. J. H. Kase, and prizes were awarded to the following pupils who were present every Saturday the past year: The Misses Alice Pickell, Anna Burnham, Vivian Eves, Margaret Hoffman, Isabelle Wright, Florence Brown, Esther Leeds, Frances Caton, Dorothy Mellinger, Elizabeth Murray, Dorothy Murray, Leona Eby, Helen Copeland, Dorothy Leeds, Dorothy Slothower, Julia Shartzler, Mary Close, Mary Carson and Grace Stoner. The children enjoyed the egg rolling following the program, the bright scarlet eggs on the green carpet making a pretty effect. Prizes for the most skillful rollers were given and each pupil received a chocolate candy egg and a bright hued one to take home.

MRS. J. H. KASE, Superintendent.

Interesting Closing Exercises at Market Square This Afternoon

There was a most interesting display of the work done by pupils of the Market Square Presbyterian Sewing school at the closing sessions this afternoon. The girls of the post-graduate class taught by Mrs. Herman E. Miller, wore their dresses made under her supervision and the eighteen graduates had fine specimens of their work, receiving diplomas. Thirty-six years ago this school was organized with 44 girls as pupils and to-day there is a total membership of 317. The officers are: Miss Roberta Orth, superintendent; Miss Anna S. D. Lewis, treasurer and directress of work; Miss Sara Nunemacher, assistant work directress; Mrs. Meade D. Detweiler, secretary, and Mrs. Schrum, treasurer of the savings fund. Ninety-five members were present at every session.

The graduates this year include the Misses Ethel May Deimler, Mary Alice Shearer, Marian Catherine Shuman, Esther Mabel Shuman, Mildred Fisher Shuman, Lillian Mildred Wagner, Dorothy Catherine Haas, Helen May Diefenbach, Florence Irene Diefenbach, Lois Eva Gerhart, Almada Brickley, Nellie May Gruber, Emma Louise Vingling, Katharine Collins Worley, Neva Margaret Rupp, Letta Sara Warner, Albert Elsie Nave and Jeanette Chambers Hargreaves.

After the program comprising music, a report of the year's work by Mrs. Detweiler and an address by the Rev. Dr. Smucker, the graduates in charge of the church, diplomas were presented and ice cream and cake served to the school. Every member was given a blooming plant to take home.

Mrs. Charles Clayton, Jr., and son Charles, of Philadelphia, are guests of Mrs. and Mrs. C. Floyd Hopkins, 1925 Market street.

Mr. and Mrs. William Irwin, of 1812 Green street, are home from Philadelphia, where they visited their daughter, Mrs. Ralph Steckley.

Dr. and Mrs. W. S. Gimper, of 1616 Briggs street, are spending Easter with friends in Baltimore.

Miss Edna Spahr, of 1162 North Third street, is improving in health after a recent serious illness.

William and John Boyson, of 1530 Walnut street, are visiting their cousins, Mr. and Mrs. James L. Grimes, at Driftwood, Pa.

Hospital Easter Gifts From the Merry Workers

The Merry Workers' Sewing Club of Grace Methodist Episcopal Sunday School, recently organized by Miss Ivie May Rahter Cook, met at the home of Miss Cook, 925 North Second street, this afternoon at 2 o'clock and a well-filled Easter basket was given to every member of the club.

Following the distribution of the baskets the club proceeded in a body to the Harrisburg Hospital, where the girls presented each patient in the children's ward with an Easter basket. This club since its organization has been greatly interested in making scrapbooks and postal card folders for the patients in the children's ward.

Easter at St. Stephen's With Augmented Choir

A choir of thirty-five boys and men will sing the Easter music in St. Stephen's Episcopal Church, assisted by several stringed instruments at the morning service, and the 4.30 service will be further augmented with Frank A. McCarrell at the piano. Alfred C. Kuscha is organist and choirmaster. Following is the program: Professional hymn, "Welcome, Happy Morning"; anthem, "Christ Our Passover"; "Tours; Te Deum in B flat, Stanford; Jubilate in B flat, Stanford; hymn, "At the Lamb's High Feast We Sing"; Communion Service in E flat, Allure; hymn, "The Strife is O'er"; offertory anthem, "As It Began to Dawn"; Foster; recessional hymn, "Christ is Risen." At the 4.30 service, offertory anthem, "King All Glorious," Barnby, with strings, piano and organ.

Camp Hill Music Club Giving Choral Concert

A real treat is in store for the music-lovers of Camp Hill and vicinity Tuesday evening, April 6, when the Camp Hill Music Club gives its annual choral concert in the auditorium of the Methodist Episcopal Church.

Chorus by the club under the leadership of Mrs. Harry Mann Shope and a piano solo by Mrs. John Henry, so well known in musical circles as a pianist of marked ability, will be included in the program. In addition the club will sing the cantata "The Lady of Shalott," by Bendall, with Mrs. Guert H. Ensign as soloist.

Mrs. Mabel Hess Dromgold, of York, formerly of this city, has been secured as special soloist of the evening. She will sing a charming group of Spring songs by Woodman and "The Earl King" by Schubert. The latter selection is quite dramatic and affords an opportunity to hear Mrs. Dromgold at her best.

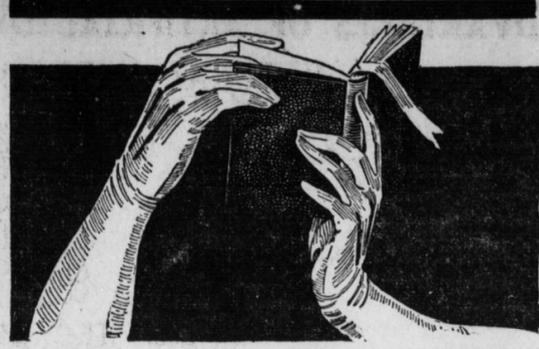

Camp Curtin School Arranges Fine Musicale

Pupils of Miss Emily Brown's room of the Camp Curtin school will give a musicale Friday evening, April 9, at 8 o'clock at the building, the proceeds to go toward purchasing a piano for the school.

The program includes a piano duet, "Charges of the Uhlans," by Adaline Burris and Elizabeth Brown; piano duet, "Coral Wave," Mildred Mills and Margaret Ziegler; piano solo, (Schumann), Helen Hampton; recitation, Alice Muggins; piano duet, "Polish Dance," Elizabeth Brown and Blanche Martin; saxophone solo, "Three for Jack," Stella Shoemaker; Miss Lois K. Booker will tell the "Story of Beethoven's Moonlight Sonata," with the selection played on the victrola; piano duet, "Emperor March," Adaline Burris and Florence Shader; piano solo, "Minuet (Paderewski)," Miss Ella Yost; piano duet, "The Witches' Flight," Anna Guy and Catherine Holbert. There will also be a number of fine selections played on the victrola.
