360 ADAMS COUNTY SOLDIERS SURVIVE

Total Enlisted in Civil War Numbered 3,500, but Nearly All Are Dead

DOG QUARANTINE SPREADS PARTY FOR HAROLD WEIGLE

State Livestock Sanitary Board Issues Orders For Unmuzzled Canines to Be Shot

By Special Correspondence Gettysburg, Pa., April 17.—From data secured by Congressman C. William Beales, in the preparation of a list of pensioners, it is learned that of the 3,500 enlisted in the Civil war from Adams county, only 360 men survive. These interesting figures, the first of the sort compiled with any degree of accuracy, were secured by the congressman as an aid in looking after the interests of the old soldiers in his district.—The quarantine on dogs, which has been in effect here for some time, has spread to two sections of the county. Dr. E. D. Hudson has been instructed by the State Livestock Sanitary Board to have constables in York Springs and Cumberland township shoot all unmuzzled dogs. Several dogs have gone mad in those sections. Alleged to have forced the name of W. S. Adams, of Aspers, on a check which he attempted to pass at the store of Lewis E. Kirssin, a colored man known to the authorities as George Wolf, alias Samuel Brown, was hunted by Detective Wilson last Saturday, but escaped.

Never Mind How Strong You Are—What d'ye Know?

That's the point—"What d'ye know?" To-day it's a battle of wits—and brains win. Muscle and brawn don't count so much as they used to. In the fight for good jobs and big salaries it's brains—not brawn—that win. "What d'ye know?" is the one great question that draws the line between defeat and victory—between "wages" and "salary"—between you and the Boss. What do YOU know? Are YOU so expert in some line of work that you can "make good" as a foreman, superintendent, or manager? If not, why don't you mark and mail the attached coupon and permit the International Correspondence Schools to show you how you CAN "make good" on a big job? For 23 years the I. C. S. have been showing men how to do better work and earn bigger salaries. Every month over 400 students write of promotions or salary increases through I. C. S. training. What the I. C. S. are doing for these men they can do for YOU. No matter where you live, how old you are, what hours you work, or how limited your education—if you can read and write and are ambitious to learn the I. C. S. can train you in your own home, during your spare time, for a more important and better-paying position. Mark and mail the attached coupon—it won't obligate you in the least—and the I. C. S. will show you how you can acquire this salary-raising ability by their simple and easy methods. It will cost you nothing to investigate—it may cost a lifetime of remorse if you don't. Mark and Mail the Coupon NOW.

Form for International Correspondence Schools, including fields for Name, St. and No., City, State, Present Occupation, and a list of courses offered such as Electrical Engineering, Mechanical Drafts, and Show Card Writing.

Aunt Este's Stories For Children

THE ADVENTURES OF FAIRY SILVERWINGS

Silverwings Tempts Jack-in-the-Pulpit. While in Meadowland Silverwings met a queer creature—A chap dressed in blue—a prim little preacher; Named Jack-in-the-Pulpit—who almost jumped out of his pulpit when Silverwings hopped-skipped about, A-shaking her curls and twinkling her feet—His disgrace had he done so would have been complete, For there's one thing that preachers oh! never must do, Leave a pulpit to dance—and you know that is true. But I really don't blame Jack, for she was quite stunning, Her blue gauzy wings were so very becoming; And her sweet Fairy voice just kept beckoning him on, Like a Will-o'-the-wisp—well he might have gone Had it not been for Buzzy, the yellow-backed bee, He saw Jack was wavering, which could not be, So over he flew to that cushion of clover, Where Silverwings rested—her dance being over.
