BEST LAXATIVE FOR CHILDREN

When your baby is cross and fretful instead of the happy, laughing little dear you are accustomed to, in all probability the digestion has become deranged and the bowels need attention. Give it a mild laxative, dispel the irritability and bring back the happy content of babyhood. The very best laxative for children is Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin, because it contains no opiate or narcotic drug, is pleasant tasting and acts gently, but surely, without gripping or other distress. Druggists sell Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin at fifty cents and one dollar a bottle. For free trial bottle write to Dr. W. B. Caldwell, 452 Washington St., Monticello, N. Y.

SEED FOR GARDEN PLOTS

Two Hundred Men Secure Ground For Gardening Purposes. Special to The Telegraph. Lewistown, Pa., April 19.—On Saturday corn, beans and potatoes for seeding were distributed at the Burnham Young Men's Christian Association to more than 200 amateur gardeners who have been given plots of ground from the gardening association of the Standard Steel and Logan Iron and Steel Companies. One hundred and fifty bushels of potatoes were quickly given out and it was found that another consignment would have to be ordered to supply the lot-takers with enough for seed. While most of the gardeners were plain workmen, some of the men came in autos and other came in horse-drawn vehicles.

JOHN TYLER TO SPEAK

Four Mechanicsburg Churches Will Hold Union Prayer Meeting. Special to The Telegraph. Mechanicsburg, Pa., April 19.—On Wednesday evening the four churches under whose auspices the tabernacle campaign was conducted, the Church of God, Presbyterian, Grace United Evangelical and Methodist Episcopal, will hold a union prayer meeting in the latter church in charge of the Rev. George Fulton. John Tyler, a son of an old Virginia family, who spent a fortune in dissipation, and was found and reformed by the McAuley Mission of New York city, will be present and address the audience. He is now 79 years old and will tell of his experiences. The tabernacle orchestra will be a feature of the musical program.

THIEVES CAPTURED

Waynesboro, Pa., April 19.—Two thieves who broke into three Western Maryland box cars at Highfield, Md., and the Sanatorium station, near Sabillasville, Md., Thursday night, and who started several detectives at work, were caught by an old-fashioned Maryland constable, who is now 79 years old, near Waynesboro, charged with the robbery. The men gave their names as Frank Smith, aged 19, of New York, and Arthur Jones, aged 18, of Baltimore. They were taken to Hagerstown for a hearing.

WHEN RUN DOWN

Hood's Sarsaparilla, the Reliable Tonic Medicine, Builds Up.

The reason why you feel so tired all the time at this season is that your blood is impure and impoverished. It lacks vitality. It is not the rich red blood that gives life to the whole body, perfects digestion and enables all the organs to perform their functions as they should. Get Hood's Sarsaparilla from any druggist. It will make you feel better, look better, eat and sleep better. It is the old reliable tried and true all-the-year-round blood purifier and enricher, tonic and appetizer. It revitalizes the blood, and is especially useful in building up the debilitated and run-down. Hood's Sarsaparilla is helping thousands at this time of year. Let it help you. Get a bottle today and begin taking it at once. Be sure to get Hood's. Nothing else acts like it.—Advertisement.

ESSAYS ON GAS

Lykens Valley High School Students in Novel Contest. Special to The Telegraph. Lykens, Pa., April 19.—The Williamson Gas Company is holding an essay writing contest in the several high schools of the valley on the manufacture and production of illuminating gas. Principals Toole, of Lykens, Shambaugh, of Wiconisco, and Moyer, of Williamson, are interested in the contest and have inspired many of their pupils to enter it. The contest is a timely one, owing to the fact that greater attention was given to the subject of English composition this year than ever before. The conditions of the contest are that all contestants must be students in the high schools of Lykens, Wiconisco and Williamson; essays must contain at least 1,000 words and must be written at the same time in the respective high schools. Essays will be judged according to style, composition, arrangement and neatness. The writer of the best essay in each respective school will receive a gas range, connected to main and installed in the winner's home.

When Glands Swell Blood Needs Attention

Even a Sweat Gland May Result in Severe Consequence.

In our intricate body the use of S. S. S. for the blood has a most remarkable influence. We little realize our glandular system. It may be a tiny bulb no bigger than a pin point, and yet if a disease germ gets into it, there is a tremendous swelling. It becomes a boil, a carbuncle, it may be a "blood rising," and it often a source of continuous misery if not checked. Many of the most excruciating forms of torture begin with the swelling of a tiny gland, which is often a source of continuous misery if not checked.
