

What a Beautiful Kitchen You Have!

A beautiful kitchen is primarily clean and clean looking. Cleanliness the first among the virtues of a housekeeper.

Clean food, clean dishes, clean utensils—and why not a clean refrigerator? You can't keep a refrigerator really clean if it is lined with zinc or tin or sheet iron, merely painted or enameled. Dirt collects, germs breed, disease lurks there.

For real cleanliness, you should have a Leonard Cleanable Refrigerator with its wonderful porcelain lining—"like a clean china dish," made in one piece, without crevices, corners or cracks. This porcelain lining is ever-lasting—you can't scratch it even with a knife.

Don't think of buying a refrigerator without at least looking at the "Leonard Cleanable." Nine out of every ten persons who inspect it at our store, put in an order for one. That's pretty good evidence, isn't it? We have an interesting booklet for you, too—"Selection and Care of Refrigerators," written by President Leonard himself. Call for your copy—it's free.

While athletics are on a high plane, school work is being placed first, as a result of this more than one athlete is barred this Spring from track athletics, because of scholastic conditions. The school boasts of a camera club, a wireless club, live class organization, and the best orchestra in the school's history. Thousands of friends and patrons of the school are present on the occasion of "open house, and the Tech boys say that this year's opening will be the best ever."

Wharton School's Exams Will Cover Two Weeks

Announcement was made this morning by officials of the University of Pennsylvania Extension School that the last instruction of the year will be given the students in the Harrisburg school on Thursday evening of next week.

Beginning immediately thereafter the students will be given the final examinations of the year. The exams will continue two weeks and the grades will be announced soon thereafter.

There will be no formal exercises this June, as there will be no class ready for graduation until 1917, the course in the extension school covering three years' work.

Already more than a hundred applications for information have been received from prospective students for the 1915-16 beginners' class. From present indications the first year class will be even larger next year than the present one.

NEW VAUDEVILLE AND LUSTANIA PICTURE TODAY

The moving picture of the Lusitania sailing from New York on the ill-fated trip across the Atlantic, which was shown at the Colonial Theater yesterday, will be repeated this afternoon in a new program at the Busy Corner Playhouse to-day. The headline of the new bill of vaudeville resorted during latter half of the week at the Colonial is headed by the "Monte Carlo Girls," a musical comedy of romantic and dramatic nature, the sort of spectacular act that always draws big houses to the Colonial. The rest of the bill includes: Young Doris, a singing comedienne; Morris and Wilson, in a comedy sketch, and Deadala, in an exhibition of magic and illusion.—Advertisement.

Nellie (played by Edith Taliaferro) pretends to be a wealthy heiress and is pursued by an unscrupulous fake count, from whom she is rescued by Tom. They are both unwilling to confess their deceptions. However, they meet under normal conditions on the very first day of the return to work—and everything ends happily.

London, May 13.—Assertions that the towns of Chanak Kaleisi, Maitos and Kilid Bahr now are nothing but smoking ruins are contained in a series of belated dispatches dated May 5, 8 and 9 received by the Times from Moudros, on the island of Lemnos. Their destruction is said to have been unavoidable since they lay in the direct line of the fleet's fire.

MAY ABOLISH HORSE RACING

London, May 13.—A movement looking to the abolition of all horse racing until the end of the war has been started privately in the house of commons. "TOO MANY LONG FACED CHRISTIANS"

So Declared Dr. Tomkins in Address Before Church Club; Convention Ends

With three hundred clergymen, laymen, high church dignitaries and distinguished guests in attendance, the annual banquet of the Church Club was held last evening in the Masonic Temple, bringing to a close the three-day celebration of the tenth anniversary of the Diocese of Harrisburg and its first Bishop, the Rt. Rev. James Henry Darlington.

Men of wide prominence spoke at the after-dinner "Feast of Reason," which was presided over by ex-Governor Samuel W. Pennypacker. Governor Brumbaugh, owing to the press of business, was unable to be present.

The first address was delivered by the Rev. Dr. Floyd W. Tomkins, of Philadelphia who spoke on "The Christian of To-day?" He said many apparent are "running around with long faces, getting ready to die instead of living."

Showing reasonable connection between physical activity and militant Christianity in the power of self control, Arthur J. Drexel-Biddle, famous organizer of men's classes, spoke on "Athletics and Bible Classes." Other speakers were Francis A. Lewis, of Philadelphia, and General Charles M. Clement, Bishop Darlington. Briefly expressed his appreciation of all the honor accorded him during the celebration.

Brosius, Sunbury, vice-presidents, John Langdon, Huntingdon; F. K. Luker, Tyrone; J. H. C. Schmidt, York; Herbert W. Hartman, Lancaster; Dr. H. B. Meredith, Danville, and Edgar Munson, Williamsport.

Nearly $5,000 Has Been Received by the Treasurer, H. W. Hartman, toward the Bishop Darlington endowment fund with more to come from unpaid pledges. It is planned to raise $10,000. The next session of the diocese will be held in Trinity Church, Williamsport, May, 1916.

The following officers of the diocese were re-elected for the ensuing year: Gen. Charles M. Clement, Sunbury, registrar; Standing committees, the Rev. W. C. Pugh, Sunbury, acting assistant secretary; H. W. Hartman, Lancaster, treasurer; Frederic Round, Sunbury, secretary; Standing committees, the Rev. R. A. Sawyer, president; the Rev. L. F. British Merchants Are Refusing to Sell Their Supplies to Germans

London, May 13.—Anti-German demonstrations virtually ceased at Liverpool and Manchester yesterday. Two hundred shops were damaged in Liverpool during the disturbances.

Rioting in Glasgow has not been serious, although feeling runs high. At New Castle and Gates Head many German shops were attacked, the windows broken and the contents thrown into the street. The movement for refusing to sell goods to Germans is spreading to many towns.

The first case of an inn being looted occurred in the Black Friars district of London last night, when a mob attacked the Crown Inn, near St. George's Church, turned the German landlord into the street and helped themselves to liquor. A small detachment of police was helpless against the big crowd.

Election Bill Up in House Monday Night

Special orders were made in the House to-day for consideration on Monday night of the bill amending the election laws so that the position of parties on the ballot shall be determined by the vote at the preceding general election. The effect of this bill would be to give the Republican party first place because of the vote last November. The position is now rated according to the presidential election.

The House passed the Senate bill providing for witness fees in contests before registration commissioners in first and second class cities and recommended to the elections committee the bill providing nominations by papers after the primary.

The stamp tax bill, one of the revenue raisers, was postponed and the Ramsey bill for boiler inspection in third class cities defeated. All Senate appropriation bills were passed on first reading. The Senate bill regulating width of sidewalks along public highways was passed.

Special to The Telegraph

Geneva, May 13.—The Journal de Geneve has received a dispatch from Saloniki, saying that many persons have been killed or injured in the course of rioting in Constantinople. According to this information, the Pera Palace Hotel, the largest and most pretentious European hotel in the city, was sacked. The people were overwhelmed.

Food prices in Constantinople have doubled and there is widespread misery among the poorer classes. The hospitals are crowded with wounded soldiers.
